Woman's Health

Every woman may be attractive. Bright eyes, pink cheeks and red lips are her natural given right. A sallow skin, lack of animation, low spirits and weak nerves may be avoided by the use of Beecham's Pills, a remedy that well deserves the confidence of every woman. Again and again they have proved to be invaluable at those recurring times when so many women feel debilitated and suffer from nervousness, headache and depression. It is wonderful the way these pills assist Nature and relieve the suffering. Every woman who values health and good looks should become a user of

ACTION FOR LIBEL

Mr. Cox said he had Mr. Avery arose and denied that he had ever canvassed Mr. Cox to vote for Mr. Thomson as member for the county.

Dr. Edwards said that Mr. Avery had pledged himself to support the choice of the convention and now he had broken his word. He denied that he had packed the convention. He had received 11 votes to his 66. In the convention of 1903 Mr. Avery had defeated him by seven votes and there were many who believed that convention to be unfair, as Kennebec township had too many delegates. He felt sore over the result, naturally.

Dr. Edwards asked why Mr. Avery had not condemned the salary grab, even if he wasn't there to vote on the question, as the conservatives asked him to. He charged that instead Mr. Avery had voted against Mr. MacLean's motion to repeal the indemnity vote. Mr. Avery arose and said Dr. Edwards' statement was not true. The motion, he said, was never put on the floor of the house.

As to his positions of county clerk and jail physician he was ready at any time to resign as clerk. The county council had given him an increase as jail surgeon. Dr. Edwards said he had made enemies in Frontenac because he had stood between men who tried to loot the county treasury and the people. He claimed that he had stood for the people's rights. He had stopped Sheriff Dawson in taking too much in fees, as he was doing. That amounted to $200 or $300 a year.

As to "trimming" Dr. Edwards charged that Jabez Stoney had been knifed by men of his own party and that Mr. Avery had slid in as a candidate on this account.

As to the Vanluven defalcation Dr. Edwards said the audit showed that the only two years picked out when there was no defalcation were the years in which he was an auditor. He charged that Mr. Avery had voted to give Mr. Vanluven a clearance, but the motion was voted down. Whenever county matters came up the speaker said that Mr. Avery considered himself first and the county afterwards. What had Mr. Avery done in parliament? the speaker asked.

Dr. Edwards gave the courier government credit for reducing the postal rates and for some other legislation it had enacted. He favored giving better mail service to the rural districts, spending money on drainage, and a better class of immigration, revision of tariffs, particularly along the line affecting the farmers; far more agricultural colleges and schools and better facilities for transporting farm produce.

Dr. Edwards said that it was his opinion that some liberals were supporting Mr. Avery because of their hatred of the speaker. That was a high standard of politics, and the doctor declared that he would defeat Mr. Avery in his own township, and also in Kennebec and Frontenac. Mr. Avery, he said, would not get the solid north county vote as he thought he would. The speaker declared he would triumph by a big majority.

In closing, Dr. Edwards said he would support what he thought in the best interests of the country. He claimed he possessed all the qualifications necessary to represent the people of Frontenac. He denied that he had ever sent a bill for five hundred dollars to the widow of the late G. W. Bell for platform speaking in 1896, and read a letter from the son of the deceased branding the statement as a lie. It was nobody's business, Dr. Edwards said, if he was paid for public speaking.

Mr. Avery took a few minutes to reply, and denied the various charges made by Dr. Edwards against him. He said the doctor would not win in the north county but would get a good trimming. He was confident of being returned as Frontenac's member.

McMULLEN IS OUT.

He Withdrew From Prince Edward County Contest.
Picton, Oct. 20.—The expected has happened. H. C. McMullen, who, a month ago, announced himself an independent candidate for the federal elections, has failed to come up to the scratch. Monday afternoon, at the nomination meeting, presided over by the returning officer, D. Burlingham, Wellington, there were but two candidates put in the field, Dr. Currie, liberal, whose agent will be C. B. Allison, and G. O. Alcorn, conservative, whose agent will be W. H. Williamson. Mr. McMullen made an explanation for not entering the field as at first announced. He said he never had any intention to make it a three-cornered fight. When he entered as an independent liberal he said he understood there would be an independent conservative in the running. Were he to run he knew his friends would be only throwing away their votes. Just here it might be remarked that there is a little bird whistling the tune, to the effect that McMullen has been won over by the smiles of the conservative. He was openly stated by McMullen that he had two hundred conservative votes promised him. This rather went against the grain of the conservative party, hence the "pulling off".

Speeches were made by Dr. Currie, G. O. Alcorn and J. W. Johnston, M.P.P., Belleville, on behalf of Mr. Alcorn.

COST $1,000.

Searched For Pocketbook Found Mislaid.

Clayton, Mo., Oct. 19.—A jury here decided that Justice of the Peace E. C. Kroening, Gumbo, must pay Miss May Eatherton, Chesterfield, $1,000 damages for making her disappear. Miss Eatherton testified that, while she was employed at August Glaser's, a pocketbook containing $250 was missed. Justice Kroening was summoned, and made her take off all her clothing, except a short petticoat, and a light waist, in an attempt to find the money. The money was found later where it had been mislaid.

COFFER-DAM COMPLETED.

Work on Trent Canal is Progressing Favorably.

Trenton, Ont., Oct. 19.—The work on the Trent canal in this section is still progressing well. The large coffer-dam at dam No. 2 has been pumped out and fifty men are busy clearing away the loose boulders and gravel which cover the rock bottom. Thousands of loads of gravel brought by teams and machinery already installed, are in readiness to begin the construction of the eastern half of the dam. Surveyors are in town in connection with taking the water level from Trenton to Peterboro.

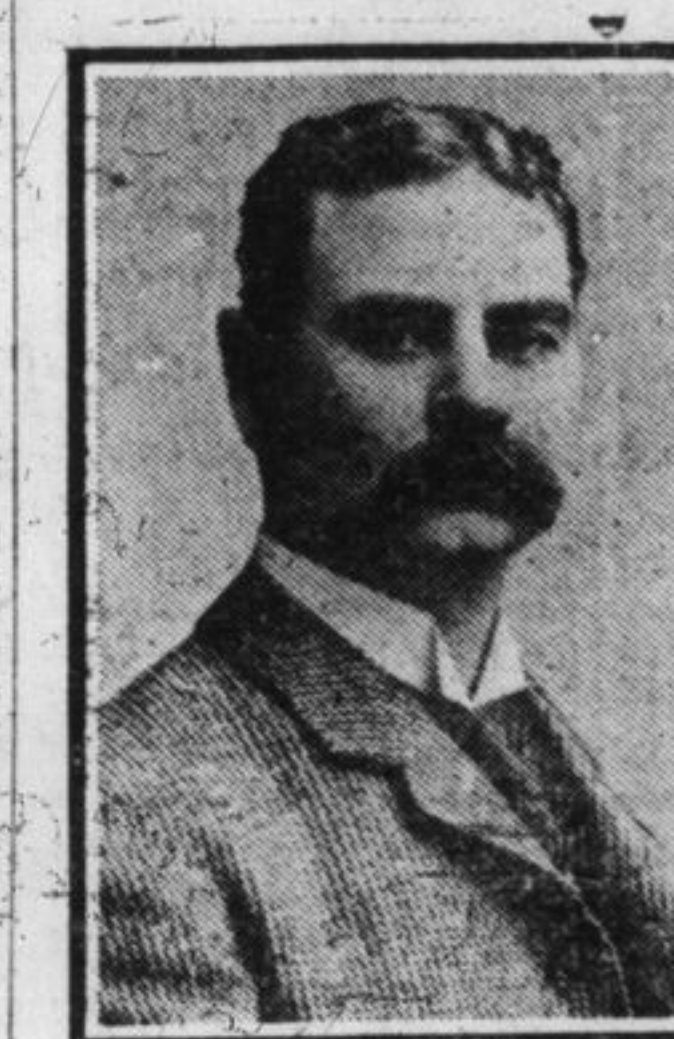

KIDNAPPED BOY FOUND.

Turned Adrift By Blackmailers—Demanded $10,000.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—After an absence of nearly four weeks, and given up as dead by his parents, Giuseppe Giunta, seven years old, was found by a policeman wandering about the Grand Central depot. He was taken to a police station, where he was later claimed by his father, Antonio Giunta, a retired grocer, and taken home. A week after the disappearance of the boy the father received a letter demanding a ransom of $10,000. The father tried to raise the money, but, not meeting with success, gave up the boy as dead.

Escape Disease.

The iron in your blood takes the oxygen from your lungs and with it destroys harmful waste matter, that otherwise will poison you. If your blood lacks iron some of these poisons remain in the system to cause disease. Escape disease and be strong and well by enriching your blood with iron. Use Wade's Iron Tonic Pills (Laxative). They are a great nerve strengthener and blood maker. In boxes, 25c., at Wade's drug store. Money back if not satisfactory.

J. R. MANN.

Hon. James R. Mann, of Chicago, is the man who is investigating the alleged bribery of a member of the Illinois legislature which is blamed for the enormous rise in prices of newspaper of all grades and classes. This evil, which has been felt indirectly by all members of society, will be again taken up when the U. S. Congress convenes and the report of Mr. Mann and his colleagues will have much influence on the national legislators.

TOOTH EXTRACTION FATAL.

Developed Lockjaw Day After Dental Operation.

Belvidere, N.J., Oct. 19.—Mrs. Arthur Walters died here from lockjaw. She had fourteen teeth extracted. The next day she became ill, and it was thought this condition was due to the anaesthetic administered by the dentist. Unmistakable signs of tetanus developed, and the woman suffered frightful agony. The disease advanced rapidly, and death released her. She was twenty-five years old.

WOMEN GO TO CONGRESS.

Will Make Washington a Centre of Suffrage Work.

Buffalo, N.Y., Oct. 19.—That an unusual effort will be made this year to obtain from congress some recognition of the cause of woman suffrage is certain. The advisability of this course has been pointed out by many of the prominent speakers at the convention of the National Association here.
