

TALK BRYAN

Says He Will Carry New York State.

CHAIRMAN MACK

FIGURES OUT THE NEBRASKAN AS A WINNER.

Bryan Says That the Republican Party is Getting Ready to Purchase Its Return to Power—The Great Test Comes on November 3rd.

New York, Oct. 21.—Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Democratic National committee, in an interview stated that as the result of a postal card poll taken in Indianapolis, Buffalo and Columbus there was a change of twenty-five to forty per cent. of votes from Roosevelt to Bryan in Indiana, New York and Ohio.

In Buffalo the poll showed the full forty per cent. in Columbus from twenty-five to twenty-eight per cent. and in Indianapolis forty per cent. In Buffalo, for example, Mr. Mack said, in one district of 300 the returns showed 176 for Mr. Bryan and 124 for Mr. Chandler.

Ohio, he is confident, will vote for Bryan because, he says, the German and labor vote is overwhelmingly in favor of the democratic ticket. Asked as to what states Mr. Bryan could positively carry Mr. Mack said: "I am confident that New Jersey, New York, Maryland, West Virginia, Indiana, Rhode Island, Ohio, Nebraska, California, Colorado and Montana will be in the democratic column. Illinois is a doubtful state. I hope, however, that because of the large labor vote in that state Mr. Bryan will be able to carry it."

Asked as to what Mr. Bryan would carry New York state by Mr. Mack said: "If my theory holds good and if the information I have received is correct I am positive that Mr. Bryan will carry New York state by 50,000."

Bryan Visits Native State.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—The feature of William J. Bryan's journey through his native state of Illinois was the accusation, repeatedly made, that the republican party was now preparing to purchase the election.

The democrats, he said, were asking for only a hundred thousand dollars, with which to finish the work of the campaign, while the republicans were asking for a million.

"What do they need the money for now?" he inquired, and answering his own question, he declared that it was for use on election day, "as they have used it year after year."

Great Test Coming Nov. 3rd.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Elections will be held in the various states and in the territories of Arizona and New Mexico November 3rd. Three states, Oregon, Maine and Vermont, have held their state elections, and have

WAS HELD UP

General Arrested by Austro-Hungarian Officials.

A TIME AT AGRAM

ALL HIS EFFECTS TAKEN FROM HIM.

The People Greatly Excited Over the Episode—A Deep Impression Created at Vienna—Germany Was the Least Interested of Them All.

Belgrade, Oct. 21.—Gen. Vukotich, an official of the Montenegro government, who left Cetinje three days ago, for this city, on a special mission to the Serbian government, arrived here, yesterday, after an extraordinary experience at Agram, where he was arrested by Austro-Hungarian officials. The general said: "On my arrival at Agram, gendarmes entered my car, dragged me out, and took me to the prefecture of police. I was then searched and my purse, papers, in fact everything I had, was taken from me. I gave the gendarmes officer my name and explained my status as a special envoy to King Peter. I showed them the passport and safe conduct given me by the Austrian-Hungarian embassy at Cetinje, but all to no avail. Ultimately I was permitted to send a telegram to Count Von Heintz Austrian-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs, complaining of the treatment accorded me. After considerable delay, an order arrived from Vienna instructing the police to release me and this was done. My journey was delayed altogether fourteen hours."

Will Inflamm People.

Vienna, Oct. 21.—The arrest of Montenegro's special envoy has made a deep impression here. It is foreseen that the incident will further inflame Montenegrin anger.

Less Interested.

Berlin, Oct. 21.—The Prussian parliament was opened by Emperor William, yesterday. Alluding to the Balkans, the emperor said Germany was less interested there than the other powers, but that the country worked with the others for a peaceful and satisfactory settlement of the present difficulty.

Disqualified At Start?

Ottawa, Oct. 21.—Three conservative candidates in Quebec are disqualified at the start if lawyers here express the reading of the elections act. After the general election of 1904 it was found that E. N. Lewis, M.P., for West Huron, was surety for the contractor who carried the mail from Quebec to the post office, a distance of about half a mile. Mr. Lewis could not take his seat without being liable to heavy penalties. He was therefore disqualified from taking his seat, but the government passed an act of indemnity indemnifying him and he was returned from the penalties provided by the general act.

CAUGHT BY OVERSEER

PUTTING OUT SOME DECOYS FOR SUCKS.

The Yankees Made Pay a License—Bush Fires Again Raging and Gananoque Limits in Danger.

Gananoque, Oct. 21.—George Toner, overseer of the fish and game department in this section, has been a law breaker again this week. While in his launch, passing near Horse Block Point, he found a party setting out decoys for ducks. On nearer investigation they were found to be a party of three United-States, from LaRue's Island. No shot had been fired and the three were quite satisfied to avoid trouble by each taking the requisite license to permit them to operate in this section. Quite an amount of illegal shooting has been done by Yankee parties this season. Having fast launches they can get back across the lines without their identity being known.

Bush fires have been causing considerable anxiety in this section during the past few days, and it was reported, on Monday evening, that the fire was raging between Chesboro and the northern limits of the town, gradually coming closer. The barns of S. Latimer were in considerable danger for some time, near the corporation limits, but prompt and energetic efforts on the part of the residents of that neighborhood were successful in checking the flames before any buildings or other valuable property was destroyed. Careful watch is being kept nightly throughout this section.

The Gananoque-Clayton ferry steamer, where Now made her final trip for the season on Tuesday afternoon.

The local Conservative Association and Young Conservative Association held a meeting in the town hall, last evening. Considerable enthusiasm was manifested, and several speeches were made by local enthusiasts, who are at present allowing Mr. Taylor a majority in Gananoque, on Monday, 26th, of from 250 to 300 votes. However, the local liberals have it figured down finer than that.

W. J. Bellie, King street, is spending a couple of weeks at Fort Colborne, in quest of the antlered monarch of the woods; from there he will join a party from here for a short time in the big game section of Northern Ontario.

Visiting in town: G. Compton, Brockville; J. McLean, Brockville; Misses L. McCann, Stone street, N. Wright, Sydenham street, and H. Lloyd, King street, spent a short time with Kingston friends during the past week.

EXCLUDES CONSUMPTIVES.

Boston Minister Refuses to Marry Them.

Boston, Oct. 21.—Rev. Herbert S. Johnson, pastor of the Warren Avenue Baptist church, announces that he never again will marry a consumptive, and that he will at the next district meeting ask the church authorities to prohibit a marriage where one of the parties was a consumptive. "I am taking that step," he said, "because I do not want to stand before my God as a murderer. The marriage of an uninfected person with one suffering from the great white plague means that both inevitably will have the disease."

Dr. Johnson said that he had given the matter great thought and that he considered it time for the church to take a stand for life and mortality under such conditions. "Laws and legal devices admittedly are unable to cope with this condition; therefore, the church must meet it and conquer it," he said.

Mr. Johnson also said he would not marry any man whose income is less than $12 a week.

MADE HIM HUSTLE

A WHISKERED SNAKE GIVES A MAN CHASE.

John Walters, of Bloomfield, N.J., Says Reptile Pursued Him and His Dog to the Main Street.

New York, Oct. 21.—John Walters, of Bloomfield, N.J., a man of sobriety and veracity, was pursued by a fat snake with whiskers all the way through the old Morris Bend Swamp; near that place and he says he might have been running yet had not the reptile showed a reluctance to emerge upon the main street, where the beauty and chivalry of Bloomfield were on parade.

He declares that it was more than six feet long and as big around as an automobile tire. He will make an affidavit as to the whiskers, which, he says, were gray, indicating that the snake was well along in years, and wore like a fringe around his chin, after the fashion affected by Irish comedians.

Mr. Walters went into the swamp to scare up game and was in the heart of it when he heard a noise like a campaign orator. Knowing that there were no steam pipes in the wood, he penetrated a thicket and came upon the snake rearing itself in the air with a rabbit in its mouth.

The rabbit was struggling to escape but in a moment or two the snake swallowed it. Then, evidently annoyed at being interrupted at dinner, it turned on Mr. Walters and his dog.

Both were frightened badly, and the dog was rooted to the spot. Walters recovered himself first, and, taking the dog in his arms, turned and fled. He says he ran as fast as his legs could carry him, but the snake was almost as good a sprinter and kept close behind him. It was not until they reached the head of the swamp that the reptile, unwilling to go out in the open and risk the dangers from trolley cars, gave a snort of disgust and turned back.

Mr. Walters hurried to the nearest drug store for a restorative, and is convinced that his hair is a shade grayer than it was in the morning. Other persons living in the Brookdale section of the town say the snake has been in the swamp for the last ten years. It feeds on chickens, which it steals from farmers, and a reward has been offered for its apprehension.

Richard Croker has sent $1,000 from Ireland for Bryan's campaign fund and $500 for Chanler's aid.

YOUNG MAN DEAD

THE APPLE SHIPMENTS ARE QUITE SHORT.

Wholesalers Not Ordering Heavy Stocks of Canned Goods—Riding Was Enjoyed in the West.

Pictou, Oct. 21.—A sad death occurred Monday night, at Northport, in the passing away of a well-known young farmer, George Kimmerly. He was aged thirty-five, and unmarried. Besides his aged father and mother he leaves six sisters, Mesdames Robinson, Wessels, Armstrong, Griffith, bottle and Burston all of whom reside in Belleville.

Not quite as many apples or canned goods being shipped this fall, as well as a slight falling off in the shipment of cheese. This is what is gathered by a visit to the wharves where the boats are loading for Montreal. The decrease in the apple shipment is due to a shortage in the crop, so it is said. As for the shortage in the canned goods, it is as was stated last week, because dealers are still stocked from last year and are not ordering. The long continued dry weather is responsible for a smaller output in the make of cheese, and if there isn't cheese it cannot be shipped.

Miss Olive Morrison, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Morrison, has returned home after several months spent at L'Anse-au-Loup, Sask., a town some fourteen miles north of Moosejaw. She is most enthusiastic over her summer spent on the prairies, whose wonderful range of flat country is so well adapted for wheat growing. Where she was there were estimated to be living about seventy-five people, all told, but she says her really nearest acquaintances were eight miles away. Riding was the principle pastime. After the crops were harvested riding was easy, as one was practically monarch of all surveyed, being at liberty to take a free course over any farm—there are by the way no fences in fields, save where a little meadow is kept for grazing. "If you ever go west you will want to go back again," says Miss Morrison in her enthusiasm.

A spirit of optimism was prevalent at the annual meeting of the guild of St. Mary Magdalene's church, yesterday afternoon, when there was a very large attendance. Through the efforts of the loyal working members, $650 now stands to the credit of the bank, this is a nest egg for the proposed new church. The officers elected for the coming year were: President, Mrs. H. Carson; vice-presidents, Mrs. E. Foshat and Mrs. Hough; secretary, Mrs. Hunt; treasurer, Miss Kinney.
