Seven Reasons Why.

A heavy Kingston taxpayer writes as follows: I wish to give you seven reasons why we should re-elect Hon. William Hartly on Monday:

B. A. Hotel Arrivals.

R. J. Patterson, Montreal; J. V. Volm, Madrid, Spain; Charles R. Woodburn, John Smith, F. H. Bickley, A. Arthur, Montreal; G. A. Mill...

IT IS PROSPERING.

In conservative times, the Kingston Hosiery Mill, of which John Hewton is manager, had a fight to keep in existence.

Warning To Party Givers.

When the hostess at a children's party, on Friday night, went to get the ice cream she had put in the back of the house until the hour of refreshment, she found it had been stolen by boys who had broken through the fence.

Watch It.

Notwithstanding the hypocritical declarations of purity, it is known that the conservatives have gathered up a reptile fund and its use is expected.

To Inspect Contagious Quarters.

The board of health met at three o'clock this afternoon and went over Fort Henry to inspect the isolation hospital for infectious patients.

Police Court Brevities.

Ann Green, a familiar figure in police court circles, was again in the dock last night. The old charge of drunkenness was again the cause.

Largest System In World.

The Great North Western and the Western Union companies together have over one million miles of wire in Canada and the United States.

Fall Importations Of 1908.

Prevost, Brock street, has received all fall importations for order work in his tailoring department.

Tools Were Stolen.

Some workmen employed around the general hospital, making repairs, have reported the loss of some tools, which were stolen.

Dodged The Issue.

A week has almost gone by and A. J. Nickles has not replied to G. Birmingham's question as to the nominations. He has dodged the issue.
