DRIFTED OFF

But Later Married His Former Nurse.

SHE REMAINED TRUE

EASILY PERSUADED TO BECOME HIS WIFE.

Turning Back to the Object of His Youthful Affection—She Had Nursed Him Through An Illness—Everyone is Happy Now.

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 28.—This is one of those rare stories of a woman's heart remaining true to her first love, and of the thoughts of a widow, wealthy, but lonely, turning back to the object of his youthful affection. The result was the marriage of Miss Mary Oswalt, of Chicago, and L. A. Brockway, of Rosalia, Wash., at the home of the groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. N. Smith, of the Congregational church.

Brockway was learning the furniture business at Vicksburg, Miss., late in the '80s, when he met Miss Oswalt, a graduate nurse, fresh from a northern hospital, who was in the south to minister to the sick following the yellow fever epidemic. She had occasion to nurse young Brockway, who was suffering from another ailment, and he brought her successfully through the illness, and he asked her to marry him. She accepted. Brockway soon after became acquainted with the western fever and came to Spokane, going home to Rosalia, south of here, where he opened a store. Gradually he and the nurse drifted apart, and a few years later he gave another woman his name. Mrs. Brockway died two years ago, leaving her husband and a four-year-old child.

Through friends at Vicksburg, Brockway learned that Miss Oswalt was still single, and after obtaining her address, he opened correspondence. The old attachment, begun twenty years before, reasserted itself, and Brockway did not have much difficulty in persuading Miss Oswalt, then living in Chicago, to come west, and the wedding followed.

PUSHED STEAMER OFF

And No Harm Came to the Royal Party.

Barcelona, Oct. 28.—While King Alfonso and Queen Victoria, accompanied by Prime Minister Maura and others, were proceeding in a small launch to the cruiser Catalonia, a small passenger steamer ran into the launch with a violent shock. Owing, however, to the alertness of the crew of the launch, who fended the steamer off dexterously, practically no damage was done. The steamer was trying to cross the launch's bow.

Emigrants To Canada.

London, Oct. 28.—The board of emigration's trade returns for the year 1907, just issued, show that to Canada went 17,525 British and Irish emigrants; 290 were rejected by the Canadian authorities, as follows: Paupers, or likely to become public charges, 153; diseased, 24; idiocy or insanity, 89; convicts, 4; returned with rejected emigrants, 9; immoral, 10; not stat-ed, 1.

A Mighty Dredge.

Liverpool, Oct. 28.—The Leviathan, the largest dredge in the world, was launched on the Mersey, yesterday. It hits 10,000 tons in fifty minutes.

1847—Rev. Joseph Thomas Duhamel, second Roman Catholic bishop of Ottawa, was consecrated.

1891—The provincial act abolishing separate schools in Manitoba was declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of Canada.

1897—The Legislature opened at Regina.

1900—At Montreal, G. S. Lyon of Toronto, won the Canadian golf championship.

1902—About 1,600 Doukhobors marched into Yarrowton, Northwest Territory, demanding food.

SUING FOR BEQUEST

Made to Him By His Deceased Uncle.

Hamilton, Ont., Oct. 28.—The will of the late Nathaniel Dymont, the well-known horseman who won the king's plate, is to be read before the courts. W. J. S. Knowles has issued a writ against Albert E. Dymont and Joseph Heighington, executors of the estate, claiming $5,000 from the estate. The claim is that Mr. Dymont's will made a bequest of $5,000 to his nephew, John Dymont, the horse trainer. It is claimed that the bequest was paid to the legatee's son, whose name also is John Dymont. The nephew is, therefore, suing for the bequest which was made to him in his uncle's will.

Respondent at being retired at seventy years of age M. Barlow, formerly of Grand Trunk baggage master, at Quebec, attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat. His recovery is doubtful.

The king is taking practical steps to settle the unemployed question in so far as lies within his power by arranging extensive improvements, necessitating the employment of a considerable number of men at Ball-moral.

HONEST JOHN MILLER DEAD

Refused $200,000 to Let Lottery Operate.

Duluth, Minn., Oct. 28.—The death of ex-Governor John Miller, of North Dakota, here, yesterday, recalls the famous fight against the Louisiana lottery in North Dakota.

Mr. Miller led the fight against the lottery, and the story is told that a representative of the lottery came into Mr. Miller's office, and laid down a suit case containing $200,000.

"That is yours if you will permit the lottery to enter North Dakota," he said.

"My price is higher than that," said Mr. Miller, and he threw him out of the office. They called him "Honest John" Miller in North Dakota. His fight against the lottery was redoubled after that.

SOLD WIFE FOR $25.

Transaction Comes Out in English Court.

London, Oct. 28.—Dunmow is a small town in Essex famous for the custom annually observed there of presenting a flitch of bacon to a married couple who have not exchanged a cross word for a twelvemonth. Last week Dunmow came into prominence for another sort of matrimonial relation. A cottager seventy years of age was on trial on a charge of ill-treating his children. A much younger woman, who was generally supposed to be his wife testified she was the legal spouse of another man, who had sold her for a five-pound note twenty-two years ago to the prisoner, to whom she had in that period borne three children.

DYING OF CANCER.

Dr. Bull's Chance is Considered Hopeless.

New York, Oct. 28.—Dr. William T. Bull's chances for recovery are so remote that the physicians only seek to alleviate his suffering, and have no hope whatsoever of checking the course of the cancer with which he is afflicted. When the tumor, which is located in his neck, was first discovered, the surgeon decided the close proximity of the cancer to the main artery made it necessary to operate. Dr. Bull, however, preferred to resort to X-ray treatment. Apparently it was installed in the doctor's apartments, and for the last two weeks he has daily submitted to this treatment.

WORK FAILED

The Campaign of Slander and Secret Work.

GRAHAM SURPRISED

AT THE RESULT OF THE FEDERAL ELECTIONS.

Laurier's Tour Did It—People Resented Whitney's Interference—Liberal Press Did Valuable Service.

Brockville, Ont., Oct. 28.—Hon. G. P. Graham makes the following statement: "The result is not surprising to me. The attacks on that great national undertaking, the G.T.P., were resented, and the general campaign of slander failed to appeal to the intelligence of the people. The circulation of appeals to prejudice which took place in almost every Ontario constituency, I am pleased to know had little effect, although this branch of the conservative campaign was handled in a most audacious way."

The interference of the provincial government was not relished by the electors.

"So far as Ontario is concerned, the tour of Sir Wilfrid was the great factor in the result, while the liberal press put up a convincing campaign every day of the fight."

To Have A Protest.

Hamilton, Oct. 28.—It is not improbable that the election of Mayor Stewart, conservative member, in West Hamilton, will be protested.

Greenway Beaten.

Lisgar, Man., Oct. 28.—Sharpe, the conservative, succeeded in beating Greenway, the son of the former premier of Manitoba, by about 50 votes.

Western Majorities.

Vancouver, Oct. 28.—Cowan (Cons.), 1,549; McInnes, (Lib.), 3,016; Martin, (Lab.), 2,054; Kingsley (Stoc.), 1,182; Victoria, Oct. 28—Barbard (Cons.), 2,171; Templeton (Lib.), 2,166.

New Westminster, Oct. 28—Taylor (Con.), defeated Jardin (Lib.), by 818.

Nanaimo, Oct. 28—Smith (Lib.), 100 plurality over Hawthorne (Stoc.) and Shepard (Con.).

ARRESTED ON BELIEF.

Hatfield Accused Officers of Torturing Him.

San Jose, Cal., Oct. 28.—Suspected of being Charles Dunham and the murderer of half a dozen persons, William Hatfield, who was brought to this city from Sherman, Texas, faced a long ordeal of attempted identification. In this country there are probably several hundred people who were twenty years sufficiently well acquainted with Dunham to make their opinions of value.

Such an experience was also undergone by James Crill, a man whose resemblance to Dunham is still the subject of comment in this city. Crill was brought here from the middle west and was detained in jail a week while scores of intimate acquaintances of Dunham and of his six victims came to view and were divided in opinion upon the subject of his identity.

Hatfield claims that he was tortured by the officers at Sherman with heavy manacles, insufficiently clothed and detained in custody after the officers had been clearly convinced that their prisoner was not the murderer of the McClainey family and their employees.

St. Petersburgh, Oct. 28.—The government apparently fearing complications with Austria has decided to check manifestations of sympathy with the Balkan Slavs. Premier Stolypin, through the Servian legation, yesterday, asked the Servian colony to refrain from giving a demonstration of welcome to Prince George of Servia and, last night, it sent the police to close a meeting held to express sympathy with the southern Slavs. The government having sanctioned this meeting, there was great surprise when the police arrived and ordered it to disperse.

DETAINING WAR MATERIALS.

Belgrade, Oct. 28.—Austrian's seizure or detention of Servian war material has led the government to protest strongly and threaten to withdraw its custom from Austrian arms factories. The complaint mainly deals with Austria's refusal to allow the Steyr rifle factory, in Upper Austria, to deliver 80,000 rifles ordered some time ago. It is stated that the Hungarian government has confiscated, at Semlin, 40,000 rifles and 10,000 revolvers consigned to Belgrade.

A Note To Bulgaria.

Sofia, Oct. 28.—Great Britain, France and Russia have presented to the government an identical note advising Bulgaria to send an envoy to Constantinople to arrange for the payment of equitable compensation to Turkey for her loss of the Roumanian tribute, and also asking Bulgaria, at Turkey's request, to refrain from military mobilization. Germany and Italy have notified the government that they approve of the foregoing. It is believed Bulgaria will comply.

DISPLAY OF FORCE.

Constantinople, Oct. 28.—Unless the threatened reactionary measures materialize, with the change in religious restrictions of the Ramadan feast to the comparative license of the Bairam festival, the government, yesterday, made a big display of military force.

The newly arrived regiments, brought here to strengthen the constitution, marched to various points, their bands playing, and posted strong pickets. They then marched on displaying their preparedness for contingencies. The day passed without disorders.

LOCKED JAILER IN.

Denny Hazel, Under Death Sentence Made Escape.

Vroka, Cal., Oct. 28.—Denny Hazel, who was to have been sentenced on Thursday for the murder of Joseph Silva, last night, effected his escape from the county jail, leaving E. J. Dudley, the jailer, locked in his cell. For half an hour Dudley attempted to make known his plight, and in the meantime the convicted murderer was fast making his way into the hills.

Hazel was standing behind the cell door in the darkness when Dudley burst out and turned the key in the lock.

A posse of twenty men is in pursuit of the fugitive.

No More Cases.

No more small-pox has developed in the city, and there are four cases. These were to be removed to the isolation quarters at Fort Henry today but may not be till tomorrow.

At present Chairman Corbett, of the Board of Health, is out of the city. Dr. Hodgetts, the provincial health officer, has not yet come here from Toronto to view the cases.

BIGAMISTS SENTENCED.

Belleville, Ont., Oct. 28.—In the county court, before Judge Deroche, James Hewley, Bancroft, was sentenced to three months in jail on a charge of bigamy, and three months for perjury in swearing to an affidavit that the woman he married was single. Mrs. Pearl Lott, whom he married, was sentenced to three months and five days.

Mixed Nuts For Hallowe'en.
