THE CAMPAIGN

In Connection With the Laymen's Movement.

MISSIONARY ZEAL

IN THE PURPOSE OF THE PRESENT MEETINGS.

Stirring Addresses Were Given in Sydenham Street Church on Wednesday Night—Other Meetings to Be Held.

The Laymen's campaign in Kingston has commenced. The first of a series of meetings, was held on Wednesday night, in Sydenham street church, when the edifice was well filled, in spite of the inclement weather. Stirring addresses were delivered, on behalf of the Laymen's Movement, and the opening shot of the campaign was indeed well fired. Addresses were delivered by His Lordship Bishop Mills, Rev. James Allen, and Rev. W. T. Gunn, Toronto, and E. J. B. Pense, on the Laymen's work, and a strong appeal was made for the carrying on of this noble work—work which has stirred the laymen of the west, and which is now being impressed upon the laymen of the east, with the request that it be taken up at once. The audience was also favored with a brief address from Rev. Mr. Eblina, a missionary on furlough, from Japan.

The Opening Address.

In his address, Bishop Mills refers to the origin of the movement in New York two years ago. The idea of the movement was not for the sending out of missionaries, but for the purpose of getting the men interested in the great cause of missions, so the whole world might be evangelized. There was a great work to be carried out, and that was to carry the word of God to the ends of the world. The progress along missionary lines had been wonderful, but there were still many opportunities for the advancement of this grand and noble work. Only a short time ago, it meant certain death for anyone to proclaim Christ in Japan. Now, missionaries were not only preaching Christ in these far-off lands, but the teaching was now asked for. It was not only desired that the doors be opened for the work, but that the hearts of the people also be opened. The means, towards the advancement of the work, the work already undertaken had been inspired and strengthened by God. Good work had been done in Toronto, Ottawa, Winnipeg, Halifax and other cities. The speaker expressed the hope that the work which had just been inaugurated in Kingston, would have the same power bestowed upon it by God.

A great many would say that they were already giving much, and that they could give no more. The people should realize the fact that they were stewards for God, and that what they possessed they were simply keeping in trust for Christ. God Himself never remained a debtor to any person. The speaker hoped that the hearts of the good people of Kingston would receive His blessing in the work.

E. J. B. Pense's Address.

E. J. B. Pense was then called upon by the chairman. The campaign, he said, had started in cities in the west, and was now rolling eastward. All the cities in Canada were being touched. The movement he characterized as being a very modest one.

Employed As Laborer When He Received the Good News—Will Leave at Once For Italy to Claim Inheritance.

Hampton, N.J., Oct. 29.—With at least $100,000 coming to him and prospect of becoming rich, a man who had been employed as a laborer in a brick yard, was notified that he was heir to a large fortune and that he should return at once to the sunny land of his birth. Crusty sniffed at the letter. It was a hoax, he felt sure, for he remembered that his mother, stricken by poverty at the death of his father years ago, had placed him in a foundling asylum. Crusty is thirty years old. When he was an infant, his widowed mother secured a position as housekeeper for a wealthy bachelor, and placed the child in a foundling institute. In time, the mother became the wife of the bachelor. Crusty married and brought his bride to this country, leaving here. The mother lost all trace of him and when her husband died she inherited all his fortune—an estate that ran into the millions. Then came the sire to find her boy. First one country and then another was canvassed, until finally her letters reached him here. She has set aside $100,000 for him. Crusty takes his sudden riches very calmly.

NO SALES THIS YEAR.

Indian Girls Not Sold—Stopping Polygamy. Ottawa, Oct. 29.—This year, for the first time, at the great potlatch in the North-West, no Indian girls were sold as slaves. On previous occasions they were bought and sold like cattle. The Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist church has asked the attorney-general to enforce the law relating to polygamy, with especial reference to the Chinese. One woman, a fourth wife, was bought for $250. She was fifteen years of age, her purchaser sixty. An officer at Hong Kong signs papers allowing Chinamen to represent themselves as parents or guardians of these girls. In one case a Chinese country, often to a civilized Christian country, often to a civilized Christian country, often to a civilized Christian country, often to a civilized Christian country.

A Bomb Outrage.

Dublin, Oct. 29.—The agrarian agitation, in County Tipperary, culminated, on Monday night, in a dynamite bomb outrage, of which the result was two well-to-do land owners, brothers named O'Mullane, at Templemore, was the scene. The bomb was placed on a window sill and exploded, demolishing the window. Two old servants, women, had a miraculous escape from death.

SPLENDID ATTEMPT

AN ENGINEER'S HEROIC EFFORTS FAILED.

Climbed to Cowcatcher a Moment Too Late to Snatch Woman From Tracks.

New York, Oct. 29.—James Freeman, a Pennsylvania railroad engineer, made a splendid attempt to save a woman's life at the Market street station in Newark, yesterday. Freeman sprang through the window of his cab, climbed along the running board of the flying engine and, leaning far out over the cowcatcher, sought to pluck from the rails the woman, whose terror held her motionless. The engineer was a moment too late; the woman was ground to death.

SWINDLER IN TOILS.

Toronto Was Among the Cities He "Worked." Buffalo, N.Y., Oct. 29.—Robert B. Otis, son of the president of the Atlas Manufacturing company of New Haven, Conn., according to his story, was arrested here, yesterday, for securing money under false pretences. He admits that he has made at least $50 a week for a year "working" cities in this country and Canada. He declares that in Toronto he found plenty of easy money. His game has been to call upon prominent families, learning first some of their family connections in other cities and during the conversation state that his pay check had gone to another city, and he would like to obtain the loan of ten dollars for transportation. He represented himself to be an auditor in the bureau of pensions.

War Dance Expected.

Montreal Herald. There ought to be a war dance at Ottawa before the house opens. Mr. Currier will be there with Mr. Fowler's scalp; Mr. Ames with Mr. Burrows' scalp; Mr. Fisher with Mr. Pope's scalp; a stranger will be around somewhere with Mr. Leturgey's; Mr. Aylesworth, himself without a scalp, will have Mr. Bennett's hanging to his belt. And Mr. Foster will be still in grateful possession of his own.

Pastor Accused of Killing His Predecessor.

Suffolk Va., Oct. 29.—The Rev. Ernest Lyons was arrested at Reid's Ferry, Va., on a charge of murdering his predecessor, Rev. James L. Smith who has been missing since August. Smith was an exponent of a "Sanctified or Free Love" band, and was mentioned in connection with a woman in whose reputation Lyons was interested. They had a quarrel before Smith's disappearance.

A TERRIBLE CHARGE.

Hon. Mr. Broderick intends remaining in Ottawa until such time as he has completely re-organized the marine department. Sweet apple cider, 30c. a gallon, at Gilbert's.

MADE ATTACK

UPON A MAID AT THE BARRACKS.

JEALOUS INSANITY

SAID TO HAVE TROUBLED THE CORPORAL.

The Young Woman Was Wounded From a Bayonet in Hands of a Soldier—He Had Written a Letter Which Proved He Pre-meditated Deed.

Waterstown, N.Y., Oct. 29.—Jealous insanity, it is said, on the part of Corp. W. W. Cunningham, of "C" company, 24th Infantry, resulted in a murderous assault on Edna McMullin, a colored servant girl, about twenty-four years old, and employed in the household of Capt. T. T. Frizzell and Pte. Jones, of "B" company. The alleged assault occurred on the government reservation at Madison Barracks, Sackets Harbor. The case will first be taken care of by the military authorities before it is passed into the hands of the civil authorities.

Cunningham, who it is claimed by his friends is insane, has for some time been afflicted with a religious mania and would walk around muttering religious sentiments. For some reason he was insanely jealous of the girl, who it is said is almost white, and is very beautiful and to whom Pte. Jones has been paying some attention.

It is a crime, was premeditated, is suspected from the fact that an open letter addressed to the members of his company was afterward found upon his person, stating that he had killed the girl for reasons of his own. It is thought that he intended committing suicide afterward and for that reason left the letter. After his arrest he admitted, so it is said, that he went to the barracks and procured the bayonet.

Meeting the girl by the side of the walk, it is alleged that he established her in the abdomen, but was prevented from doing her further injury by Pte. Jones, who was at once attracted to the scene and who, in the struggle, received an ugly wound under his left shoulder blade. Jones and the girl are now in the barracks hospital and Cunningham is in the guardhouse awaiting an examination as to his sanity.

WARD SURE OF STATE. Gives 100,000 to Taft—Hughes 65,000 to 75,000.

New York, Oct. 29.—Taft by 100,000; Hughes by 65,000 to 75,000. This is the tentative estimate on New York by William L. Ward, republican national committee man, after getting reports from all over the state. Mr. Ward says that it is likely that Governor Hughes, on account of the rapid gains he is making, will pull up to about even terms with Governor Taft. Lucius N. Littauer, former congressman, who has been assisting in the canvass, said last night, that Governor Hughes, up the state, would run even with Taft.

All the people at national headquarters are greatly pleased at the result of Mr. Ward's canvass. Three weeks ago the managers figured on about 60,000 to 70,000 for Taft and half that for Hughes. In the last week the result was a reversal of the figures, and indicate a larger plurality for the national and state tickets.

GUARDED MASTER. Portsmouth, N.H., Oct. 29.—Nathaniel H. Frothingham, a prominent Boston attorney, was found dead of heart-disease in the woods at Rye Beach, where his summer home is located. Mr. Frothingham had been out gunning Saturday and when he did not return in the evening a search was made for him. His body was found sitting in an upright position in the woods with his dog keeping guard.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR. Another Voice in Favor of Aid-Couper As Mayor.

Kingston, Oct. 29.—(To the Editor: I beg to second the nomination of Ald. Daniel Couper for the mayoralty next year. The letter of a "Citizen" suggesting Ald. Couper, was timely, and I hope that steps will be taken to get Ald. Couper to run. If he does, he can depend upon it that he will win against all comers, for he has certainly taken a creditable stand upon all civic questions. His city council record shows that. By all means let us have Mr. Couper as mayor of Kingston for 1909.—CATARQUI WARD.

Cheap Market Rates. This morning the former cheap market rates over the K. & P. railway were resumed, and a big crowd of people came to the city from rural points. The merchants are delighted.

Quite a number of young people from the city left, this afternoon, to drive to Seeley's Bay, to attend a large dance there this evening, in the Masonic hall. Crosby and O'Connor's orchestra will supply the music.

SHE LIVES IN STYLE BUT IS LOATH TO PAY.

Woman Hotel "Beat" Draws Amount of Bill From Stocking When Arrest is Suggested.

New York, Oct. 29.—With light baggage that included principally a hand-bag, in which rattled a tooth brush and a powder puff, a young woman spent ten days rather comfortably at the Martha Washington hotel. This pleasant sojourn came to an end, yesterday, when the visitor, whose name was refused, at the office, was obliged to pay her bill.

The woman "beat" is rare in hotel circles, but that she exists was asserted by Frederick S. McLaughlin, the assistant manager.

As could not say positively that the woman came here with the idea of escaping her board bill, but she was well dressed and we had no hesitancy in extending the customary credit," he said. "When the bill was presented she frankly said she had no money, and did not see how we were going to collect. From that I came to the conclusion that she was hoping to beat her way, and I obtained a warrant. In the meantime she consulted a policeman. Of course, there was no baggage worth holding.

As a result, when pressed for money in the name of the law, the young woman turned her back and drew the full amount, including long distance telephone charges, from her stocking.
