CANNON FOUND IN RIVER Dredgers Recover Old Engine

Ogdensburg, N.Y., Oct. 31.-A dredge GANANOQUE MAN ESCAPED of the Daly & Hannan fleet, dug a cannon up from the bottom of the harbor here. It was four feet, six inches in length, with two-inch bore and weighed 350 pounds. It bore the date of 1809 and also the figures 104, with a large letter P under the cipher. There was no other inscription and there is much speculation among the marine men who viewed it, as to its history.
