Told in Twilight

The Croquet Club, in the person of one of its members, has been immortalized by the camera. The club can now have the pleasure of sending to far-off friends a postal bearing upon it the perfect croquet lawn in our beautiful city park and some of the club's best members wielding their mallets, silhouetted against a background of trees, and a glimpse of Sir John's monument. It is a pretty picture and there are many who will treasure it for the sake of the portraits.

There are to be mysterious doings, this evening, at Queen's residence. It is to be a family affair, and none but the elect will be allowed access to the occult and weird within its walls. There are to be strange guises, and horror-stricken incantations, and the worst of it is the general public will never know the true inwardness of the affair, for there has been much swearing to secrecy.

Mrs. Octavius Yates has gone to Montreal. Mrs. Robert Meikle, Clergy street, is going to Montreal on Monday. Mrs. Edward Torrance is receiving with Mrs. John Mackie, at St. Andrew's manse, on Tuesdays. The many friends of Miss Lillian Birley, Queen street, will be pleased to hear she is expected home from her duties at St. Elizabeth's, Sask., on Wednesday, November 7th.

Mrs. George Cliff, who has removed to 63 West street, will receive on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month during the season.

Captain and Mrs. de Mowbray Bell will be chaperone a dinner party of young people to-night at the Country Club.

On Wednesday, Mrs. T. D. R. Hemming asked a few Miss Grace Hemming's friends to "Martello Place," to meet Miss Gwendoline Hall. The affair was very informal. The girls present were Miss Nora Gordon, Miss Elsie Pense, Miss Mildred Jones, Miss Lillian Kent, Miss Jessie Smith, Miss Dorothy Brownfield, Miss Frances Horn, Miss Madelon Carter, Miss Irene Swift, Miss Marie Garrett, Miss Phyllis Short, Miss Marie Carruthers, and Miss Kathleen Saunders.

Madame Georges Roy received at "Inglewood," 520 Princess street, yesterday, Captain Roy, who is among old friends in Kingston, being present to introduce the many visitors who came to his charming wife, Mrs. W. J. Gordon, who is the bride, and Miss Beatrice Tandy and Miss Frances Sullivan dispensed tea and cake.

There is to be a surprise party to-night on Johnson street, but it would hardly be logical to call it a surprise party and mention its scene. And there is to be something else, but what that "else" is we will leave some of you to find out, and we can promise you something really surprising.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Sands, who are giving up their house, will board at the Randolph hotel until the next year, when they will go into Mrs. Colin Macpherson's house on Earl street. Mr. and Mrs. Macpherson will go farther west, having taken the Browne residence, on University avenue and Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Gardiner, of Seelye's Bay, will set up house-keeping in Dr. Sands' house when the new year opens.

A few young people met at Mrs. Arthur Cunningham's, Beverly street, last night, and had a game of bridge.

A few of the girls had luncheon at the Country Club, yesterday.

Mrs. W. L. Haight, Parry Sound, gave a very smart reception, last Wednesday, in honor of the guests at her daughter's marriage to Dr. Herbert Tandy. The lovely wedding gifts were a great attraction.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Muir will settle in Grimsby, where Mr. Muir has been ordered by head office. Mrs. Muir and her baby have been paying Toronto a little visit.

Mrs. W. B. Carey and Master Travers have gone to Toronto. Mrs. J. P. Shine and her children, having arrived from England. Major Shine has taken Professor W. R. Butler's house in Barriefield for the winter. Mrs. Butler and Miss May having decided to spend the cold winter period in England.

Mrs. John Miller will spend a few weeks longer with her mother, Mrs. John Macdonald, University avenue. Dr. and Mrs. A. R. B. Williamson, Brock street, returned from Parry Sound on Thursday.

Mrs. William Tandy and Miss Elsie Tandy, Brock street, are home from Parry Sound.

Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Tandy and his bride will be in town for a few days next week, on their wedding trip. Mrs. Alan Palmer, who has been the guest of her parents, Colonel and Mrs. Irwin, in Ottawa, has returned to Kingston.

Miss Ella Fraser, of London, is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. O. J. Stevenson, Albert street.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Soby, Napier, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ethel, to Dr. Arthur H. Griswold, Hartford, Conn., the marriage to take place in December.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Mary Montague Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morvin Howard, of Brooklyn, N.Y., and Mr. Adolph de Blois Caron, only son of the late Sir Adolphe Caron, K.C.M.G., and of Lady Caron, which takes place on Tuesday, November 17th, in Brooklyn.

THE PARAGRAPH PULPIT

Unitarian. REV. C. W. CASSON.

The Greatest Realities. The greatest realities of life are those qualities that constitute a noble character. They are attained by a simple, natural process of development. There is nothing supernatural about them. They are the fruit of conscientious endeavor to reach the highest ideal of life, and not the products of any mystical religious formula. If your religion aids you in the acquisition of these qualities it may be accounted good and of good service, but if it tends to make you minimize the value of these qualities, it is distinctly and only an evil.
