OH, IT WAS A SHAME!

THE WAY QUEEN'S TROUNCED OLD M'GILL.

The Score Was 27 to 4—Big "Hughie" Macdonnell Was a Goliath of Whom the Montreal Philistines Were Afraid.

Queen's senior rugby team added another victory to its long list on Saturday afternoon when it defeated McGill, 27 to 4, at the university athletic grounds. About eight hundred people turned out to see the game, not nearly as large a crowd as witnessed the Queen's-Varsity game two weeks ago. The weather was good for football, clear and quite bright, and just cold enough to put some snap in the players and keep the spectators on the jump. Quite a heavy wind was blowing from the north-west. The rains during the early part of the week had put the ground in good condition, making it softer than before. The teams were both changed from the game in Montreal, where they played a little better game. There were three changes in Queen's. Crawford was off at centre half, his place being taken by Leckie, an intermediate player, from Hamilton, and he certainly made good. Cormack replaced Elliott at outside wing, and although he played a fine game, Elliott was missed many times. Buck was back in the game again, at middle wing. Hastings, who played full-back in Montreal was off the McGill line. Powers going back from the half line to that position. "Dan" Gilmore was put back on the half, his place at outside wing being taken by Hughes.

Queen's proved, beyond a doubt, that it was the best team. In the last half it fairly ran through the red and white line, making twenty-three points in this period while McGill failed to score. Every man on Queen's team played a good game. Williams' punts put the McGill men up in the air, completely. He is certainly the best punter in the Intercollegiate League, and runs even with Flett, of Toronto, for dominion honors. Turner, Macdonnell and Leckie made a strong half-back division, all playing a star game. The wing line had very little trouble in holding the McGill men, and succeeded in giving their backs every protection. In the first half McGill went in strong, and after about fifteen minutes' play led by two points, but before half time was called the score was evened up, ending 4 to 4. McGill played an aggressive game the first half, taking advantage of every move of Queen's, and taking long chances to score. Queen's held the ball in the red and white territory most of the game, but McGill sometimes succeeded in getting out of the tight corners by a narrow margin. Gilmore and Powiss helped them by their kicking, but neither could hold a candle to Williams. The wing lines worked well the first half, and more than once Queen's was forced back by the fierce onslaught of McGill. In the second half Queen's went in to win, and for the first time in the game commenced to play championship ball. The line went at it like demons and the back division worked steadily to gain ground. Williams gained six points by punting over, and Turner gained one before the first touch was made. When Queen's went at the game properly, McGill certainly had it put all over them. The play was kept in their territory and all attempts to rush the Presbyterians failed.

The first touch went to Turner on a short end run over McGill's line. Williams failed to convert. About five minutes after Macdonnell got away for a twenty-yard run through the McGill team and went over for another, and six minutes before time was called Leckie kicked a criss-cross run, passing to Macdonnell who, after a fifteen-yard run again went over. Turner converted the last touch. The teams lined up as follows:

Queen's (27)—Williams, full back; Turner, Leckie, Macdonnell, halves; Moran, quarter; Bruce, Brewer, Gilson, scrum; Gallagher, Lawson, inside wings; Buck, Thompson, middle wings; Murphy, Cormack, outside wings.

McGill (4)—Powis, full back; D. Gilmore, Raphael, Reid, halves; Forbes, quarter; Turnbull, Cornell, Aiken, scrum; Wallace, Mathewson, middle wings; Cassils, Hughes, outside wings.

Referee—O. Lafleur, Ottawa; umpire, R. Marshall, Ottawa.

The Play in Detail.

McGill won the toss and kicked with the wind. On the first kick-off Macdonnell carried the ball about twenty yards and put it at the third down. Williams punted over for one point. This was scored before the game had been going a minute. Two minutes after another followed from the same source. Queen's, 2; McGill, 0.

McGill then rushed things, got the play on Queen's ten-yard line. On the third down Gilmore punted over for one. Queen's, 2; McGill, 1.

On the third down after the kick-off, Gilmore scored a nice drop between the posts, from about fifteen yards out. McGill, 4; Queen's, 2.

This gave the McGill bunch a chance to yell and they certainly used it. Queen's immediately went in to work, but found it not a very easy matter to run, because as they wanted to. The ball travelled up and down the field, and neither team could force it over. In a mix-up Galbraith was given a bad poke in the head that put him out. He was taken to the room and replaced by Sullivan. After play was resumed Williams got away for a good run, and from the scrummage

ARRANGING FOR STUDENT'S PARADE.

Officers of the Hockey Club Elected—Committee Appointed by Alma Mater to Arrange For Theatre Night.

Another victory for Queen's, and yet another! Once more we are proud of our athletes who added two more victories on Saturday. The soccer team did not play as good football in the last half as they did in Montreal or the score would have been much larger. The game was clean throughout, however, and Prof. Matheson referred in a most efficient manner. After the game, coffee and refreshments were served to the contestants in the new arts' building. The very best of feeling exists between the McGill and Queen's soccer teams.

About ninety students were present at the Alma Mater Society meeting, Saturday night, and much enthusiasm was displayed throughout the meeting. Among the communications read was one from R. J. Macdonald, in which he resigned as committeeman on the debate committee. His resignation was accepted. Mr. Macdonald feels his work pressing upon him very heavily as he is taking final year work in theology as well as some tutor work with extra-mural honor English.

D. A. MacArthur, B.A., brought in the following recommendations from the executive meeting: That the society approve of the parade being held on Saturday evening, November 7th after A.M.S. meeting; that the order of procession be: faculty of science, faculty of medicine, faculty of arts, faculty of theology, and faculty of education; that the procession proceed from the college to Union, to Barrie, to Clergy, to Princess, to King, to Stuart to college grounds; that the marshal of procession be P. T. H. key. A parade committee, composed of representatives from each of the faculties was appointed to arrange details of parade, etc. The 14th Regiment will furnish music for the procession. All these recommendations were approved by the society.

The following committee was appointed to arrange for the theatre night: Messrs. T. N. Malloch, from science; H. W. McKel, from arts; and J. H. Stoad, from medicine.

As the annual fall convocation will be held next Thursday at 8 p.m., a committee was appointed to look after the students part of this function. The gentlemen to whom these duties were entrusted are: R. J. Macdonald, M.A., convener; W. F. Hyde, D. Ellis, M. R. Bow. The principal requests the presence of every student at this important function.

The annual meeting of the hockey club was held on Saturday evening. The following are the officers who will look after this part of Queen's athletics: Honorary president, Dr. J. J. Hart; president, R. E. MacLachlan; vice-president, R. W. Crawford; secretary-treasurer, E. Pennock; assistant secretary-treasurer, J. Bonahue; captain of first team, W. Dobson.

W. H. Craig was appointed assistant secretary-treasurer of the track club. Mr. Craig will look after the long distance runners of the university.

Say, changes are sometimes beneficial. We want all the change we can get to run our business, so when you think of making a change come to us. We will try to serve you as well as we will be delighted.

Association Football Match.

The C. L. C. association football team played a drawn game on Saturday with the R.C.H.A., at two goals each. The game was one of the best seen on the Cricket field this season. At the interval the C. L. C.'s were leading by two goals to one, and although having the better of the game in the second half, the soldiers broke away and equalized. The C. L. C.'s have gone through the season without a defeat, having won eight games and drawn three.

Sporting Notes.

Stratford will be represented in the O.H.A. with senior and junior teams. Australians favor Tommy Burns to win from Jack Johnson when they meet in four weeks' time.

The reason Montreal is playing in Hamilton on Thanksgiving Day is because of the Easterners' desire for another game, but because both clubs can pick up some easy money.

Toronto Star: Perhaps the victor's career of the Queen's rugby team is due in a measure to the dazzling brilliance of their multi-colored sweaters.

Rugby on Saturday: Ottawa, 22; Montreal, 5; Hamilton, 28; Argonauts, 9; Toronto, A.A.C., 7; Peterboro, 6; Varsity, 14; Ottawa College, 9; Hamilton, 25; Dundas, 12.

Abe Attell and Ad. Wolgast may meet in a twenty-five round fight at Los Angeles on November 10th, while arrangements are also being made for a fight between McGillicuddy and Welch at Lexington, Ky., the noted pugilist Cesario, whose get are always in demand on account of the early speed they show, was sold to J. E. Sagram, of Waterloo, Ont., for $3,000.

"Jim" McCann, middle wing for Queen's is able to be around again, after being in the house for a few days from injuries received to his ankle. He says he will be in the game again this year.

It is proposed to have the Indian and Shrub run in Toronto on Thanksgiving day, November 9th, but the time is very short, and it is doubtful whether things could be brought to a head in time.

Ottawa Citizen: It may be necessary to drive it in with a sledge hammer, but the sporting editors of Toronto and Hamilton are two years behind the times in referring to the Ottawa and the Rough Riders.

Gananogue were badly defeated in Brockville, on Saturday, and this puts them out of the running. If the yacht club team can win out all their remaining games, they will have a chance to go west in the first round of the semi-finals.

Toronto Telegram: What are the chances of the Dominion championship? Well, Hamilton ought to win hands down, barring accident. Unless Queen's is a whole lot better than Varsity, Ottawa College, and McGill, will have small chance against Tigers going right. The T.A.A.C. would be utterly outclassed.

An Exciting Race.

Kingston, Nov. 1.—(To the Editor): We do not often hear of a race of any description commencing at midnight, which of course would make a race all the more interesting, especially when it is a very dark and hazy night. These are the conditions under which the tugs Emerson and Bronson of the Montreal Transportation Company, and the tug Florence of the Hackett line, left Coteau about midnight for Cornwall, the Emerson having one loaded and two light barges, of no small dimensions, the Bronson with two big light barges, and the Florence with one good-sized barge half loaded. The Florence got about a mile and a half the start of the M. T. company's tugs, which started about even, and well it's plain to be seen that the Florence is not in the same class with the Emerson or Bronson, or in fact any of the M. T. company's tubs of any size, for as we all know, the M. T. company has the most powerful fleet of tugs on fresh water. However, the Florence had a' a ghost of a show even from the start, and the funny part of it was that some member of the Florence's crew asked when pulling out of Coteau if the Bronson and Emerson were going to follow them up the lake, but their heads were hung when they reached Cornwall, like the cow's tail. Now their motto is, "If you cannot be the bell cow, just fall in behind."—MARINER.
