WHAT WHIG CORRESPONDENTS TELL US.

The Tidings from Various Points in Eastern Ontario—What People Are Doing And What They Are Saying.

Charleston Echoes.
Charleston, Nov. 2.—Miss Minnie Mattona has returned home after a pleasant visit with friends at Seely's Bay. Mrs. E. Wilson has been enjoying a visit from her sister, Miss Jessie Follard. Miss Celia Kennedy, Phillipsville, is the guest of Mrs. R. Foster Cedar Park hotel, closed last week for the season. Messrs. Wilson and Hickey gave a party on Wednesday evening to a number of friends. Despite the unfavorable weather quite a crowd gathered and a few pleasant hours were spent. Mr. and Mrs. J. Kavanagh and Charles Slack furnished sweet music for the occasion.

Kepler Personal.
Kepler, Oct. 31.—Sherman Powley leaves for his new home at Trafalgar near Toronto, in the near future. Stannard Guess' beautiful residence is nearly completed. Mrs. Herbert Johnson and little Margery are visiting Mrs. William Hobbs, Sydenham. Ross Kavenier is at home after spending the summer at Collins Bay. Mrs. A. F. Smith and children, Miss Elsie Tompkins, Lattimer, Mrs. W. C. Smith and son Joseph, Odessa, at a Townsend's. Mrs. Amy Ann Powley is visiting at Mrs. Caldwell's, Sydenham. Mrs. James Powley, Sunnyside, and Miss Martin, Hartington, are at S. Powley's. Edith Lawson, wife and son, visited at Bath recently.

Reports from Morven.
Morven, Nov. 2.—Farmers are busy ploughing since the rain. E. M. Smith has returned home from Boston where he was visiting. The man was very much needed in this vicinity as farmers had to draw water on account of their wells being dry. Quarterly service was held in the brick church Nov. 1st. H. Young is quite well again after his long illness. J. S. Brattek is able to be around again after his recent accident whereby he smashed his foot. D. Valleau has moved into Mr. Gibson's house, vacated by J. Hall and family. J. Hall and family have taken possession of the property that they recently purchased from W. W. Davis, on Broadway.

Maberly Tidings.
Maberly, Nov. 2.—A number of deer hunters have gone north in search of big game. James Buchanan arrived home to spend a few days hunting. Mrs. John Parks returned home from Kingston General Hospital, much improved. William Charlton is on the sick list. A young daughter has arrived at Lawrence Moore's, and a baby boy at Robert Corley's. H. Buchanan attended the teachers' convention at Smith's Falls on Thursday and Friday. Frank Carl, of Yarker, made a business trip through here last week. He sold his farm, the purchaser being W. C. Greer. The Bishop of Ottawa will visit the parish on Sunday, November 15th, to administer confirmation. Miss Bowes arrived last week and is spending a few weeks in Maberly. Mrs. M. Jackson is on the sick list.

Tidings from Bloomfield.
Bloomfield, Nov. 2.—Several carloads of canned goods are being shipped from each of the canning factories daily. Levi Stone and Herman Hagaman, who have been in the North-West during harvest, returned home last week. Allan Knapp, who is driving home one night last week, was a runaway, but escaped with a few bruises and the breaking of his buggy. The young people of this place, to the number of about twenty, have started a literary club for the winter. W. A. Johnson has sold his blacksmith shop house and lot, together with his business, to H. S. Stark, who takes possession November 15th. Allan McDonald and wife went to Toronto last week. Isaac Snider, a former resident of this place, was here in connection with the sale of the property. B. B. Taylor's farm for $8,000. Charles H. Burr, Sherman Saylor and Walter Young have gone north hunting deer.

Budget from Sharpston.
Sharpston, Oct. 31.—The splendid land sold enough to plough easy. Avery and Edwards were a tie at Sharpston poll. D. Karin was appointed by telegram of the death of his sister, Mrs. P. Garvin, Belleville, N. Y., which occurred on October 31st. The Messrs. Paterson have finished a job for the council, ditching and putting gravel on the road. The sensation of the day is how taxes have gone up. They took a big jump this year and are higher than ever was known before. Taking it all in all this is not an extra good year for the farmer. A good many had very poor crops of grain. Flogging is now being rapidly pushed. A feature of the season so far is the absence of heavy frost. The total vote polled here was seventy-five, one ballot spoiled. The whole vote would be 112. Miss Knowles, of Brownville, N.Y., is visiting at W. Hanley's.

Bears At Cross Lake.
Cross Lake, Nov. 2.—The rain of last Sunday and Monday did an immense amount of good in this section putting out the fires which were raging. The hunting season is here again, but it hasn't frightened the bears in the least for one bravely showed himself at W. Baker's last Sunday. Miss Leah Wood was badly scared on her way from school last week by an animal which was feeding near the road. Percy Gaylor, Dead Creek, had a bear last Friday raising its harm. A few of the residents of this section were present. Charles Parker expects to move away from here sometime this week. Jerome Vealey, Dead Creek, had the good luck to shoot a bear near here this week. A couple of Arden Friends were back through here on Friday last. Mr. and Mrs. W. Wood spent a pleasant Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. Peterson, Dead Creek. Old Mr. Thompson is living in F. Scott's house, which formerly belonged to C. Vaness. Election went off very quietly around here but some people are very much delighted over the success of Mr. Avery. Mrs. E. Mouck went away for a short time last week and Mr. Mouck returned home feeling quite happy. W. Newton has recovered from a slight attack of quinsy. Messrs. A. and R. Parker spent Sunday at W. Newton's. W. Newton spent an evening among friends on this side of the lake.

THE PARAGRAPH PULPIT

Unitarian. REV. C. W. CASSON. Dealing With Facts.

It is the function of religion to deal with facts commonly perceived and universally acknowledged. It has nothing to do with any special theological theory about God, or any mystic inference regarding creation or eternity. It deals with the things that are known. It has to do with the charitable act and the helpful deed. Where you are confronted with the fact of poverty and distress, there is no mystery or doubt of your duty. It is the part of true religion to impel you to give, to help, to share your goods with others, to make the world better by your kindly deed. It is most forceful and most real when it thus deals with facts.

Address, Rev. C. W. Casson, at 25 Beacon street, Boston, Mass., for the literature.
