The people have sustained the government, but with the understanding that the civil service is to be purified, and the work can only be done at the cost of a few heads.

TAFT AND HUGHES WIN.

The landslide which was predicted in favour of the democratic party did not take place on the 3rd, and so Mr. Taft was elected to succeed Mr. Roosevelt in the presidency of the United States.

The late Mr. Greenway did not suffer anything at the hands of the liberal party. He was presented by the conservatives, however, and drawn out of their party when he first entered parliament...

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The council does things occasionally. How does yesterday's election suit you?

The vaccination question is looming up large in the public estimation.

The way to find out how many scholars have complied with the law is not to enquire how many have been vaccinated.

Canada was not an issue in the election. Bond alleged that his opponents were intriguing to bring confederation about, but Morris replied that he would resign his seat in the assembly rather than be a party to the union.

Like the parties in Canada and the United States both sides in Newfoundland were confident of success, but it did look as if Bond had the more reason to expect it.

The whole world one city, said the speaker. A Latin poet described it under the Roman Empire in the fifth century after Christ.
