THE PARAGRAPH PULPIT

Unitarian. REV. C. W. CASSON.

The Religion of a Smile. Happiness is the very seal and sequence of real religion. A long face is not the sure sign of a saved soul. A smile on the face is more conclusively evidence than scripture on the tongue. A smile is the sunshine of religion breaking through. The man who can see nothing to make him laugh is blind in the eyes of faith. The exuberance of a happy life is its best proof of being lived in accordance with God's law. Happiness is harmony. Sorrow is unfaith. Worry is wicked. Penetrate to the verities, and your faith can rise to the attitude of a smile.
