Montreal; Dec. 2.—One of the most famous old characters in the city, Rev. Robert Brown, or "Parson" Brown as he is known to friends and Money's strangers alike, to-day is celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of his connection with the Desrivier Street Mission. This mission is a little colored church, the only one of its kind in the city. The congregation as well as the pastor are all colored people. "Parson" Brown up to a few years ago used to divide his time between doing an expert culinary act and TO PREVENT AN OUTBREAK preaching the gospel.
