THE 5 P.M. EDITION ONE YEAR IN PRISON

SENTENCE FOR MOTORIST WHO KILLED SCHOOLBOY.

Lord Newborough's Servant—May Be Expelled From Great Britain When He Comes Out of Jail.

London, Dec. 2.—A sentence of twelve months imprisonment with hard labor, was passed at Guildford assizes, on Max Dallose, a chauffeur, for manslaughter in the death of a school boy, while driving a motor belonging to Lord Newborough. The owner was not in the car at the time, and was completely dissociated from the case.

Dallose, in the witness box, denied any knowledge of the accident. Judge Tarnes told the jury that they must not be influenced by any general prejudice against motor cars, but on passing sentence after a verdict of guilty had been returned, he said the case would be reported to the home secretary, so that if he thought necessary Dallose might be expelled from the country after his term of imprisonment.

APPOINTED AFTER ALL.

Colecock to Be Ontario's Emigration Agent. Toronto, Dec. 2.—N. B. Colecock, it is announced, has been placed in charge of the Ontario emigration office in London. In accordance with a suggestion by Hon. Neilson Monteith, no change will be made in the staff at present. As soon as Mr. Colecock assumes charge in London the Liverpool office will be closed and all emigration business will be done in the metropolis. There are two other men in England besides the London staff. An office has been taken in London in the Hamburg American building close to the other colonial offices and to the headquarters of the Grand Trunk and C.P. railways.

Funeral Of The Late Mrs. R. Lee.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Ross Lee was held Sunday afternoon at St. Mary's cathedral, at a service attended. Tributes of sympathy were many, including a cross from the employees of the tender shop of the Canadian Locomotive company; a spray of lilies from Mrs. A. Bennett; a bouquet of white carnations from Miss M. Cooper; a spray of carnations and lilies from Mrs. Bellandau; a bouquet of pink roses from Miss P. Shawcross; a bouquet of roses and carnations from Mrs. J. T. White; a spray of lilies and carnations from Mrs. E. Damply; a bouquet of white carnations, Miss M. Callahan; a wreath of white carnations, and roses from Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Rescola; a bouquet of carnations and lilies, Miss L. Bowman; a spray of carnations and lilies, Mrs. Bird. The deceased was beloved by all who knew her. She was the second daughter of Mrs. J. Wilson. She leaves a husband and infant son, aged four months. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved husband, who only a few months ago lost his little daughter, Marion.

Sciatic Pains Quickly Cured.

Slight attacks are severe enough, but a bad one is torture that the human body can't stand. Rub Neryline along the sciatic nerve. What a glow it gives, what comfort it brings. Every twinge and ache disappears under the penetrating, pain-subduing power of Neryline. Cure is almost certain because Neryline searches through the tissues and finally applies its soothing properties in the sciatic nerve itself—in this way the source of the pain is reached and cured. About five times stronger than ordinary liniments, nothing equals a 25c. bottle of Neryline for destroying aches and pains. Try it yourself.

Story Of Old Kingston.

Just published, "The Story of Old Kingston" by Agnes Maule MacLachlan. A handsome illustrated edition. A work that will be of great and lasting interest to every Kingston family. The old Limestone City in particular has a story of which she may well be proud and which all her citizens should know. Miss MacLachlan has certainly made another valuable contribution to Canadian historical literature. For sale by R. Uglow Company, at $1.50 per copy.

Added To The Club.

There was a meeting this morning of the Ladies' Curling Club, and four new playing members were elected: Mrs. Vera Hooper, Mrs. Herbert Horsey, Mrs. de Mowbray Bell, and Miss Anna Fairlie, and two associate members, Miss Constance Cooke and Miss Minnie Crothers. Arrangements were made for the bonspiel which will take place on January 19th and following days.

Fair for the cheapest, and most attractive form of policy issued. Some citizens carry as much as $30,000 on single life. See Bibby's 50c. golf caps. Full of good things in the December (Christmas) number of "Red and Gun," published at Woodstock, Ont. A specially written and finely illustrated account of the trip taken in the woods by the premier and surveyor-general of New Brunswick, at the invitation of the organized guides of the province, opens an exceptionally good number, the high standard of which is maintained throughout.

Died At Brooklyn.

On its trip up to Kingston, yesterday, the steamer Wanderer carried the remains of the late Michael Graham (Christie) Baster, of Kingston, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. T. Trausch, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Deceased was an ex-alderman of Belleville, and the remains were sent to the latter place last night. He was known to a good many Kingstonsians. He was one of the oldest native-born Bellevillians, having been born in that city nearly eighty-three years ago. He is survived by two sons and five daughters. Deceased was a staunch liberal. The funeral will take place in Belleville, on Thursday morning.

A Puzzle To Him.

J. C. Swain, Glouville, a Kingston taxpayer, writes to the Whig about a puzzling thing to him. It is that the medical health officer can handle infectious patients, have them removed and then quarantine the houses. What does he do himself? Disinfects himself and moves about the city as usual. If he can do this, then, enquires Mr. Swain, why as a matter of economy and to relieve the burden on the afflicted family, cannot he disinfect those he quarantines, fumigate the house, and let the folks do just as he does?

Coal Men Happy.

The coal men are wearing the smile that will not come off. The cold snap of last night made a rush of hurry-up orders this morning, and the coal dealers had no time to talk to any person, today, and their staffs were kept on the jump all day long. "Hurry up, there, don't let your horses' feet touch the ground," one dealer was heard to remark to his teamster. "The rush is on, get busy." It is certainly an ill wind that blows no person good.

Hockey At The Y.M.C.A.

A meeting will be held at the Y.M.C.A., on Monday evening, for the purpose of organizing a hockey team, for the new league which has been proposed for the city. The association has some fine material, and like all the other sports the association goes in for, is bound to make a fine showing.

Portsmouth Council.

The Portsmouth council holds final meeting of the year on the 15th. It is said that the question of submitting a referendum to the people on the question of local option will be discussed, although it is understood the council is unfavorable to the village losing its drinking houses.

The Vital Statistics.

During November, there were registered with the city clerk, 20 births, 13 marriages and 32 deaths. How is Kingston's population going to increase, when the deaths in a month outnumber the births? It's time the city buildings' bachelors were getting married, isn't it?

HE WAS IN A TRANCE PLEA OF MAN ACCUSED OF SHOOTING.

Morris Schwartz Must Go Before Grand Jury on Charge of Shooting the Two Sisters of His Fiancee.

New York, Dec. 2.—Morris Schwartz, twenty-two years of age, of No. 516 North Second street, Philadelphia, was held in $5,000 bail by a police magistrate to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of having shot Rose and Annie Samowitch, elder sisters of his fiancee, Yetta, in this city on November 14th, then shooting himself. Schwartz told the magistrate that he was in a trance when he did the shooting, and a physician from Bellevue hospital testified that the prisoner appeared to be irrational when he was taken to that institution after the shooting. Yetta Samowitch also appeared in Schwartz's behalf, and told the magistrate she still loved him and wants to marry him. The magistrate decided, however, that Schwartz must answer to the grand jury for his act, and held him in $5,000 bail. He was taken to jail.

LICENSE REDUCTION

Will a Referendum Be Submitted to the People?

Formal application has to be made to the city council for a reduction of liquor licenses before March 1st. Two cars ago a referendum was put to the people to this effect: "Are you in favor of a reduction of licenses?" The answer was strongly in the affirmative. At that time the temperance people wanted a reduction of eleven. This time they ask for eight. There are only two more regular meetings of the city council this year, on the 7th and 21st, so that if another referendum is to be submitted to the people action will have to be taken next Monday. The council of 1906 refused to submit to the people the question of reducing the licenses by any specific number on the ground that the council itself should decide that question after the people had expressed themselves on the general subject. A referendum at this time would be interesting.

"The Riverman."

This work, the most important piece of fiction that Mr. White has undertaken since the publication of his greatest success "The Blazed Trail" is the logical successor to that work. After the cutting and the felling of the lumber in the great forests, comes the floating down the rivers of the logs and their delivery at the mills to their owners. Like the woodsman, the riverman is a distinct type, rough and rude, but simple, loyal, and honest, with a splendid physique, trained to quickness and alertness by the peculiar requirements of his dangerous craft. The story which the author has constructed out of such material and placed against the background of natural beauty and grandeur to which he responds like a poet, is most simple and yet most effective. "The Riverman," issued in beautiful illustrated edition, only $1.25. Now on sale at R. Uglow & Co.'s, 141 Princess street.

Travelled About Nicely.

An aged lady, about ninety-five years of age, came from Tweed yesterday, and left on the Cape Vincent boat to-day for Oneida, N.Y. She travelled alone and attracted great attention by her smartness in getting about.
