

TOWN OF GANANOQUE SUPPLIES KINGSTON MAN WITH WIFE.

Marriage of Miss Florence McLennan at Alexandria—The New Year Was Received in a Noisy Fashion.

Gananoque, Jan. 1.—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Spence Cummings, Brock street, the marriage was solemnized of Miss Florence McLennan, daughter of John Eddy (nee Cummings), to John Eddy, of Kingston. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Tallman Pitcher. Mr. and Mrs. Eddy left for Kingston, where they will take up residence.

The intelligence has reached here of the death of William Quinsey, in Brockville, on Wednesday, December 30th, in the fifty-ninth year of his age, after an illness extending over several weeks. Deceased was for many years a highly respected resident of Gananoque. He leaves a widow to mourn his loss, also an old resident of the town, formerly Miss Maria Garrett. Deceased was a member of Gananoque Lodge, No. 114, I.O.O.F.

Word has reached here of the recent marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Tarlton (former residents of Gananoque) for some years past located at Alexandria, on Thursday, last, of Miss Florence McLennan to George Laughton, an old Gananoque boy, son of Mrs. Laughton, Stone street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Donald Stewart, pastor of the Alexandria Presbyterian church. Mr. and Mrs. Laughton left later to spend some time here with his mother.

Mrs. R. J. Webster, Brock street, who was quite seriously injured by a fall on the slippery pavement, on King street, a few days ago, has so far recovered as to be able to be around again.

Quite a large number attended the watchnight service in Grace church, last evening, and at its close the new year was ushered in by the clanging of the town bells and the tooting of steam whistles, which was kept up for upwards of an hour.

Among those are visiting in town, are: Miss Maggie Root, nurse-in-training at Brockville General hospital, and Mrs. James Root of Montreal, with Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Root, Brock street. Frank Britton, Montreal, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Britton, Brockville, and William Bryce, Montreal, with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bryce, Church street. Gordon Matthew, Montreal, with Mrs. W. G. Matthew, King street. R. B. Beaumont, Toronto, with his mother, Mrs. Beaumont, Church street. Robert Gordon, Buffalo, N.Y., with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Gordon, First street.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Elaherty, Charles street, entertained a number of their young friends at an old time cottage dance at their home, on New Year's eve. A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lloyd, River street, spent a very pleasant New Year's eve at their home at a social dance.

Christ church held their annual Christmas entertainment for the Sunday school, on Wednesday evening, in the parish house. George and William Bryce, Montreal, with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bryce, Church street, were the guests of honor. The first hockey game of the season was held at the new Maple Leaf rink on New Year's afternoon when the local Tigers were defeated by the speedy Deseronto aggregation by 10 to 3.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson, John street, was the scene of a very pretty and interesting house wedding on Wednesday evening last, it being the occasion of the marriage of Mrs. Weldon's sister, Miss Roberta Laura Bowen, of Napanee, to Charles M. Pierce, of Brockville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. Norington, pastor of the Free Methodist church, Verona.

Gananoque Canoe Club held their annual New Year's assembly in Turner's assembly hall, New Year's night. At a largely attended meeting of the Gananoque Ice Yacht Club three handsome souvenir cups were selected to be put up for competition during the winter. W. T. Sampson, the club's president, has donated a fourth cup. The club's fleet now numbers seven, and there may be more at the opening of the season.

The local gun club held another shoot at clay pigeons on New Year's afternoon, a large turnout of members being present.

Chief Inspector Gebbie, of the department of agriculture, Ottawa, was in town for some time this week engaged in completing the details for the prevention of horses, cattle, dogs, poultry, etc., from the United States entering into Canada while the embargo lasts.

The fallow is spent some time in town this week: Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, Kingston, with the latter's sister, Mrs. Herbert Moore, King street. Vernon Taylor, Montreal, and Rex Taylor, Cobalt, with Mrs. C. W. Taylor, Church street. Albert Muir, Kingston, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Muir, King street west. Miss M. M. Bennett, of the Toronto public schools, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bennett, Sydenham street. W. B. Fullerton, Toronto, with his wife and family, Main street. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Southworth, Toronto, with friends. Frederick Heaslip, of the government printing bureau at Ottawa, with his mother, Mrs. P. Heaslip, King street. Mr. and Mrs. M. Spence, Saginaw, Mich., with the latter's father, Navan, Acton, King street. The Misses Lottie and Maud Legge, former teachers in the local public schools, located for some time past in the Saskatchewan schools, made a short stop here on their return from participating in their professional European trip.

ATTACKS MINISTERS.

Parker Tells Premier What He Thinks of Cabinet.

London, Jan. 2.—One of your Canadians who, besides writing good selling novels is member of the house of commons, none other than Sir Gilbert Parker, has been delivering some heavy broadsides at the devoted heads of the members of the government. This is the way he talks to them. He started out by stating that the present government was probably the least straightforward that had conducted the affairs of the country during the last century. Its members called themselves progressive, but they were merely reactionary. They did not realize moral toleration as the underlying force of our time and they pushed forward sham reforms, which took away the property of the public and the brewer and the schools of the Churchman, insulting democracy at the same time by saying that they represented a movement towards a higher national life. Outside the area of a foreign policy, which was continuous and a naval policy which was only continuous because of the tremendous pressure of public opinion, we had had but little but flap doodle and sectional tyranny, and the ministers had lowered the whole tone of the administrative life of the country. They were paying the price of haste, opportunism, and gag. Nothing they had done had succeeded; no bribery they had offered had been sufficient; nobody believed in their social reform; their old age pension scheme was accepted without a grunt of satisfaction from any section of the community—except the possible recipients of the pension. Accumulated capital poured out of the country for investment in industrial enterprises which gave the foreigner work; railway income showed no progress; enterprise was hesitating or passive; unemployment represented the lowest depths we had reached, and all the while we were lowering the position of the unskilled worker. Social reform under a liberal government was a deep delusion and the country knew it. Nothing could save the liberal ship; she was plunging towards the reefs, and in the ear of the one flattered crew the bell-bow was ringing the notes of dissolution and doom. Soon the party of opportunism would give place to a party which had despised a deep delusion and the country would change which had gone on its 'British' national life produced by evolution, not by revolution.

IN OLD NEW YORK.

New Year is Ushered in With Great Pomp.

New York, Jan. 2.—Probably in no quarter of the globe is the New Year ushered in with so much pomp as in Old New York town. This year the New Year's eve festivities, which had been planned for months ahead, eclipsed all previous efforts to fittingly bid the old year adieu and greet with a rousing welcome the birth of the new.

INSANE ASYLUM PLOT.

One Conspirator Weakened—The Tragedy Was Averted.

Newburgh, N.Y., Jan. 2.—It has become known that, through the weakening of one of the men concerned, a plot in which six of the patients of one of the wards of the Matteawan State hospital for the Criminal Insane, were to escape from the institution on Tuesday night, had been frustrated. The hospital authorities are not at all regarding the matter, but it is learned that Superintendent Robert B. Lamb, of the institution, was able to foil the proposed escape from the account given him by Martin Weinholtz, sent to the prison from Buffalo, N.Y., three years ago. The means by which the patients, who were all in one of the south wards of the building, were to get clear from the hospital, was by aid furnished them by one of the asylum attendants.

TRUST THE PEOPLE.

"My motto has always been, in matters great or small, 'Trust the people,' and, wherever possible, consult them with reference to their own affairs. I am a man of the people myself. I have had to fight my way from boyhood, and I think I am in touch with the great body of my fellow citizens. I know their struggles, and their difficulties, and I think I know their wishes." (Ald. Cooper to the People).

More Soap War Damages.

London, Jan. 2.—At Liverpool Awards, Messrs. Lever Bros. were awarded £500 damages and costs for libel arising out of the "Soap war" against Messrs. Baines & Co., Ltd., proprietors of the Leeds Mercury. The action was commenced before Lord Coleridge and a special jury. Defendants admitted that the words were defamatory and actionable; the only question for the jury was the amount of damages. Sir Edward Carson, for the plaintiffs, said the chief allegations of the libel were that plaintiffs deceived the public by giving short weight of soap.

Double Tragedy in Train.

London, Jan. 2.—A startling discovery was made by the station staff at Newport, on the arrival, at 9.30, on Thursday night, of the Portsmouth express. In one of the carriages were found the bodies of a man and woman, both dressed, who had been shot. Shots had been heard by the occupants of the other carriages when passing through the Severn tunnel. It is presumably a case of murder and suicide.

Stomach and Bowel Poisons.

The fermentation of food produces poisons. Chronic indigestion slowly poisons the whole system. Stop the poisoning and restore normal energy and health to the entire system by the use of Day's Dyspepsia Cure. It cures indigestion and dyspepsia and the benefit is seen at once. Each bottle contains sixteen days' treatment. For sale only at Wade's drug store.

Price Of Devil.

Brockville, Jan. 2.—Charles McCready, a young resident of this town is $50,000 richer than he was a few months ago. In company with four other young men he located the Devil claim, near Elk Lake, in August, half of which has just been sold to a party of Montreal and Toronto capitalists for $250,000.

Two Years For Stabbing.

St. John, N.B., Jan. 2.—Francisco Dorati, charged with stabbing a fellow-Indian named Cardamoni at Chipman, on the G.T.P., some weeks ago, was sentenced to two years in Dorchester penitentiary. Cardamoni, who has been in hospital, has recovered.

THE KAISER AND KAISERIAN LEAVING THE RAILWAY STATION AT POSTSDAM—OFFICERS SALUTING THEIR CHIEF.

This picture is from a photograph taken by a staff officer of the German army and is the only one in existence. It was taken shortly after the famous interview published in the London Telegraph, which placed the Emperor in the limelight of the world and made him the subject of much diplomatic as well as newspaper discussion.

COMING TO NEW YORK.

Irish Giant Conspicuous on the Strand.

London, Jan. 2.—Among those who embarked for New York is an Irish giant who has been a conspicuous figure on the Strand for a year. His name is Peter McCullough, and he goes to New York to stand in front of the new Maxine Elliott Theatre and open carriage doors. He is six feet ten inches tall, he is only twenty-nine years, old, and weighs 270 pounds. He is quite big enough to open a carriage door.

HARD ON SHOWS.

New York's Mayor Strict on Sunday Theatres.

New York, Jan. 2.—On account of the mayor's recent order for strict enforcement of the Sunday laws in all theatres business fell off about fifty per cent. in most of the vaudeville houses and the proprietors had a perplexing task keeping their shows going and keeping out of police stations at the same time.

Your Pet Corns.

Some people cling to corns as though they were prize possessions. Anybody that cares to get rid of corns can do it every time with Peck's Corn Salve. In big boxes, 15c, at Wade's drug store.

Change For Good.

Composers announce that he will discontinue publishing his blacklist "for a while." That is well. Cut it out for good. The blacklist and the boycott has no place among free peoples. It would be an evil day for the workman were it admitted to be a legal institution.

THE REBELLION OF 1837-38.

Some Reminiscences Given By M. H. Grass.

Collins Bay, Dec. 28.—(To the Editor): In regard to the item in your paper of the 24th inst., taken from the Watertown Times, N.Y., quoting the death of George Kimball, a patriot, who with many others, foolishly attempted to free Canada, under Van Shure, from British rule, I would like to say that after Van Schult, Lieut. Johnson, and several others were taken prisoners, Van Scultz, whom John A. McDonald afterwards, Right Hon. Sir John, made his initial debut at pleading at the bar in defending him. He was hanged at the gallows near where the custom house now is, and buried in St. Mary's cemetery. Johnson and eleven others were hanged at Fort Henry. They had a great many sympathizers here in Canada. Some of them, the most prominent, had to leave their homes so soon after the execution, that I just now am unable to repeat.

If I were to name some of those rebels who have well-to-do descendants, now glad to be in British dominion, it would be all probability, to lose their feelings. My Father, Daniel Everett Grass, still living, now ninety-four years of age, was captain in the U.C.M., twenty-one years, and his father, Peter Grass, captain after his father Michael Grass, and I know from being told where I now speak, and there are many incidents that I just now am unable to repeat.

The steamer Traveller or William Fourth, that had four smoke stacks, ran from Kings Town to Little York, now Toronto, nearly all the winter of 1838, principally with militiamen and supplies, but toward spring the ice became so firm that the boat had to forego running for a time and supplies must needs be transferred and had to be taken over land on sleds. Lord Bonnycastle and Sir William Westbrooke were ordered with a detachment of mounted militiamen to transfer the supplies in good order to Little York.

Shortly after the start from Fort Henry, they arrived at Slab City, now Westbrooke, where they halted in front of William Marshall's brewery (part of which still stands to this day). Sir William Westbrooke being from same part of England as Brewer Marshall, he the brewer, rolled out a barrel of beer to the men.

In 1860 at the building of the Methodist church upon Mr. Marshall's farm, he was chosen to give the village a more appropriate name, and I quite well remember the choice he made, after his old friend, and among a large number of the church people at my father's house.—M. H. GRASS.

WOLFE ISLAND NEWS.

Presentation to Rev. Mr. Cox, of Trinity Church.

Wolfe Island, Dec. 28.—At the home of Mr. W. Bullis, on Wednesday night last, the members of Trinity church welcomed their new rector, Rev. Mr. Cox, and wife, and also presented them with a set of fur robes for their cutter. The rector thanked the ladies for their kindness. The members will hold their first meeting on the first Wednesday in January at the home of Mrs. W. Watts.

On Tuesday night Misses Berry and Pike, the two teachers in the village public school, held their concert, which was a grand success. John Mackay and William Watkinson, spent Christmas at Mr. Green's. Robert Bolton is moving from George Rattray's farm, at the foot, to Mr. O'Brien's farm, on the eighth concession. William Willis, wife and daughter, spent Christmas with Mrs. Herbert Mackay. William Allison has returned from Chicago, where he was visiting friends.

Mr. Horne, custom officer at the point, has been appointed by the Canadian government to a position for five months, at a fine salary, to keep any horses or cattle from coming into Canada and spreading that dreaded foot and mouth disease.

Mrs. Joseph McDonald held a sale on Tuesday last of her household furniture and will leave for Chicago shortly to join her husband, who has a good job on the trolley line in the above city. John and Joseph Murphy, two young and prosperous farmers in the centre of the island, had a most successful day moving the school house and the McDonald house at the corner down to the river by the farm they recently purchased. They did the work in one day by the aid of nine teams of horses. Miss Mabel Allison is home from teaching John LaFleur, of Chicago, is visiting his parents. Ernest Crawford is able to be around again, after nursing a sprained ankle. Alice Yott is home from Toronto. Mrs. P. Brice and two sons are spending the holidays in the city at Mr. O'Reilly's. J. J. Spoor has moved from Toronto to spend his holidays with his wife and children. Frederick Whitmarsh is home from Arden. P. Gillespie and wife and two children are here from the west at George Gillespie's. Joseph

CAUSE OF FALLING HAIR.
Dandruff, which is a Germ Disease—Kill the Germ.
Falling hair is caused by dandruff, which is a germ disease. The germ in dandruff enters the root of the hair, where it destroys the vitality of the hair, causing the hair to fall out. You can't stop the falling hair without curing the dandruff, and you can't cure the dandruff without killing the dandruff germ. Destroy the cause, you remove the effect. Newbro's Herpicide is the only hair preparation that kills the dandruff germ. Herpicide is also a delightful hair dressing. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes, 50c. and $1. G. W. Mahood, special agent.
