oman's Death Leads to Arrest of Her Two Daughters. Ashbury Park, N.J., Jan. 12 .-Four arrests were made in connection with the death of Mrs. Sarah Custerlin, fifty-seven years old, whose body burned about the face and breast, was found in the kitchen of her home at Neptune City. The burns were not sufficient to have caused death, but a close examination is said to have shown that the woman's skull was fractured. The persons arrested were the dead woman's two daughters, Rose V. Layton, twenty-six years old, and Mame Gunston, thirty-seven years old, and two young men, James Lay-ton and Ervin Hoffman. When arraigned in court the four prisoners declared they were not aware Mrs. Custerlin had died until Layton, on a arising, found the body of the wo-
