What We Have, We'll Hold

You Must Carry the Wormwith By-Law to Keep the Wormwith Industry in Kingston.

Carry the By-Law and the cost to Kingston will be only an annual charge of $1,264 to pay principal and interest of the debenture, and this will be for ten years only.

Defeat the By-Law and the cost to Kingston will be an annual loss for all time of much more than this $1,264 a year in the loss of taxes payable by the members of this firm and by their employees.

Defeat the By-Law and throw away also a steadily increasing pay-roll, which was $51,422.03 in 1907, and should be kept for circulation in Kingston.

Defeat the By-Law and leave the rumed walls a monument to Kingston's apathy and neglect.

To carry the By-Law will cost the individual voter 15 cents a year for 10 years on each $1,000 of his assessment.

To defeat the By-Law will cost the individual all it costs the city, and the 15 cents will not be saved, for the tax-rate will rise more quickly as the city goes backward than it would if business improved.
