WRECKED GANAN-OQUE BUILDING.

Horse Drowned Near Dark Island-South Leeds County Orange Lodge to Celebrate July 12th in Ottawa

Gananoque, Feb . S .- The eastern wall of the ruined Grand Opera House building fell shortly before noon Saturday, doing considerable damage. Considering it dangerous forts were made to pull it down that it would fall towards the west but a high westerly wind toppled it toward the east and it crashed through the small building adjoining, occupied as a meat market by . W. G. Rogers, and wrecked the place; THE also the kitchen in the rear of the J. L. Rogers block, occupied as restourant by E. T. Latimer, crashing through it, smashing sideboard, stove and other furniture, but fortunately, edthough Mr. Latimer's family was in that part of the building, no was injured. The western wall of the building was also tadly daraged, the roof also injured. The damage buildings will amount upwards of $1,000.
