

KEMP SPEAKS

In Regard to Carman-Jackson Matter.

A LAYMEN'S VIEWS

THINKS DR. CARMAN HAS MADE GRAVE MISTAKE.

Under Pressure Clerics Show Weaknesses Found in the Ordinary Man—Has Much Confidence in Rev. Mr. Jackson.

Toronto, Feb. 27.—A. E. Kemp, a member of the trustee board of Sherbourne street Methodist church, was interviewed on the Carman-Jackson case (the beginning of which is on page four) and made the following statement:

"The thought which strikes one is that when we recollect what has been charged about the methods employed in the recent election of a bishop in this city, and now when we see Dr. Carman, the head of the Methodist church in Canada, putting himself in the undignified position of deliberately attempting to misrepresent Mr. Jackson and mislead the public, surely we are justified in concluding, even as much as we regret to admit it, that when these men of high calling, sent to exemplify as well as to preach charity, are put under pressure, they show weaknesses which are occasionally found in the ordinary individual."

"In my opinion, Dr. Carman has made a grave mistake in reflecting upon the Rev. Mr. Jackson in the way he has and incidentally upon the Sherbourne Street Methodist church. His main idea seems to be, either intentionally or not, to lead people to suppose, as he puts it, that Mr. Jackson is a 'free lance,' not being accountable to the Canadian conference, whilst he ought to know, and doubtless does know that the congregation of Sherbourne street secured his services from the British Wesleyan conference for a term, in order to avail itself of his marked ability, recognized throughout Great Britain and in many parts of the United States, as well as in Canada. Mr. Jackson came to Toronto only upon the urgent solicitation of the congregation of Sherbourne Street Methodist church."

"Dr. Carman appears to be under the impression that a man who may be considered theologically sound to the British Wesleyan conference may not be acceptable to the Canadian conference. I imagine that the British conference is just as careful on this point as we are in Canada. The people of Sherbourne Street church have every confidence in Mr. Jackson, and my own opinion is that it is not necessary for a man to be a Methodist and at the same time take as literally true, in the most superficial way, every word in Genesis. I am glad to listen to a man like Mr. Jackson, who can throw a little light on these matters, and also in my opinion, the day has gone by when it is necessary for Dr. Carman to try and shove down the throats of everyone the literal interpretation of everything contained in the book of Genesis."

TAFT'S CABINET.

All Doubt Regarding Appointments Removed.

New York, Feb. 27.—All qualifications of uncertainty in the prediction that Franklin McVeagh of Chicago has been selected by Mr. Taft as his secretary of the treasury, are hereby removed.

Mr. McVeagh accepted the place and thereby the Taft cabinet was made complete.

Secretary of State—Philander C. Knox of Pennsylvania.

Secretary of the Treasury—Franklin McVeagh of Illinois.

Secretary of War—Jacob M. Dickinson of Tennessee.

Attorney-General—George M. Wickes of New York.

Postmaster-General—Frank H. Hitchcock of Massachusetts.

Secretary of the Navy—George Von L. Meyer of Massachusetts.

Secretary of the Interior—Richard A. Ballinger of Washington.

Secretary of Agriculture—James Wilson of Iowa.

Secretary of Commerce and Labor—Charles Gage of Missouri.

No official or unofficial declaration of Mr. McVeagh's appointment is to be made by Mr. Taft until he promulgates his entire cabinet. But in this case, as in other notices of appointments, the facts are known to be correct.

DARING BOGUS MARRIAGE.

Performed in Outer Office in City Hall.

Windsor, Ont., Feb. 27.—A young woman, whose name could not be learned, called on Police Magistrate Leggett, and swore that she was married in the magistrate's outer office last Tuesday afternoon, by a tall dark man, who said he was a minister. The magistrate was in his office the entire afternoon. The young girl, who says her home is in Grosse Pointe, Mich., further states that the minister handed the marriage certificate to her husband, who promptly tore it up. The supposed husband denied the marriage and later fled.

It is undoubtedly a false marriage, but the nerve of performing it in the city hall, especially in the outer office of the police magistrate in order to give the marriage some color, is one of the boldest and most extraordinary jobs on record in this city.

Immorality Among Foreigners.

Fort William, Ont., Feb. 27.—A startling state of affairs amongst the foreigners living in the coal dock section of this city was disclosed at the coroner's inquest on the death of an infant. The infant died a few hours after birth, at which no doctor was present. From the time the infant was attended to by a woman who was called in until next morning it was neither looked at nor attended to until the following morning when it was found dead.

Gross immorality was found to have been practised. One or two women would be living in a house with perhaps as many as seventy men, ostensibly keeping house for them. The jury recommended an investigation.

Killed At Carleton Place.

Carleton Place, Ont., Feb. 27.—William Scott, an employee of the C.P.R., was accidentally killed here. He was in the act of taking a lorry across the track, when he fell backwards, striking his head on the rail. He expired almost immediately thereafter.

FLUTTERED TO FLOOR

BOUQUET WITH $500 FOR COOK.

Grateful Employer Rewards New York Servant in His Family For Twenty Years.

New York, Feb. 27.—Mary Campbell caught a glimpse of her face in the mirror as she passed through the hall of Henry Rudolph Kunhardt's residence, at No. 124 West Seventy-fourth street, and decided that twenty years had dwelt lightly with her, thanks to her contented lot.

"Mary, please come in," Mr. Kunhardt called from the library. He is a rich commission merchant. "This is your twentieth anniversary with us," he said. "We have not forgotten it or ceased to be grateful. Here is a bouquet from your own native Scotland, where, I am sure, are raised the best cooks in the world. We want to thank you for your faithfulness, and may you never leave your home."

Mary took the jardiniere in which was growing a beautiful plant of forget-me-nots and ran to her room. She did not notice until she dropped into a chair that an envelope was tucked in the foliage. She opened it and $500 in currency fluttered to the floor like the petals of a huge flower. Mary Campbell came to this country twenty years ago to visit her brother, who is now a well-to-do resident of Yonkers. She was nineteen then. A friend employed by the Kunhardts, who occupied the same residence they do to-day, got a place there for Mary. She was placed in charge of Henry Rudolph Kunhardt, then an infant. She later married George S. and Kingdon Kunhardt, and ten years ago was promoted to cook.

USE OF FRANK

The Matter Was Up For Consideration.

WILL REMEDY ABUSE

THIS IS DECLARATION OF POSTMASTER-GENERAL.

The Tories Had Much to Shout About the Alleged Use of the Franking Privilege—The Solicitor-General Nothing to Apologize For.

From Our Own Correspondent. Ottawa, Feb. 27.—The house went into committee on supply on the estimates for the post office department twenty minutes after the speaker took the chair, yesterday. It was expected that Hon. W. S. Fielding would explain his amendments to the insurance act, but the bill did not appear on the order paper. The feature of the sitting was a lively debate on the alleged abuse of the franking privilege by ministers of the crown during the parliamentary recess. It was declared that a large quantity of liberal literature was franked in October last, when the house was not in session. There was a postcard sent to R. J. Borden, in Halifax, mailed on the train in Nova Scotia, which went through without a frank at all, and a new member of the house had been using his frank to distribute advertising matter for a Grosvenor mine.

The postmaster-general was unable to identify a frank, but demurred to the idea that it was that of a minister of the crown. As to anyone else exercising the right so long after parliamentary adjournment, he referred to parliamentary conductors who were blocked with campaign literature sent by both sides, which was not all sent by propaganda.

G. H. Perley asked if he meant to suggest that the franked matter under discussion had remained over to October from the close of the session in July. Mr. Lemieux said, "No." Mr. Lemieux expressed an opinion that in franking a weekly letter, Mr. Bureau, solicitor-general, had not abused his privilege. It was partly work, he said, but not exaggerated work. Mr. Bureau, who had just come into the chamber, declared he had no apology to make. Mr. Lemieux said he would frame a resolution to meet the abuse which he admitted to exist.

NO NEW UNDERTAKINGS.

This is Declaration of Hon. G. P. Graham.

Ottawa, Feb. 27.—Under the guidance of Hon. Mr. Graham the house spent a considerable part of a session in a survey of the railway system, the estimates for which were under consideration. An effort was made by the opposition to obtain from the minister of railways a statement as to his policy regarding canals, but Mr. Graham declined to draw. The house and country, however, knew his attitude on the whole question of transportation, and he would reserve any additional statement he had to make until the intercolonial budget came to be considered. This year the policy of the government was not to launch out on new undertakings. Those under construction would be proceeded with and pushed to completion, but no new works would be taken up this year. While Canada's waterways were the best in the world they were still capable of development, and he hoped development would not be long in coming.

CONVICTED OF USURY.

Neil H. McKinnon Out on Suspended Sentence.

Ottawa, Feb. 27.—Probably the last case in the anti-usury campaign was heard before Magistrate O'Keefe, when Neil H. McKinnon was convicted on a charge of lending money at a usurious rate of interest. Mr. McKinnon had previously been acquitted on a similar charge. Like the other convicted usurers he was allowed to go on suspended sentence under bonds of $1,000. According to the borrower the loan was one of $75, for which nine notes, maturing one each month, were given for $10 each, or $90 in all. An actuary testified that this represented 45.8 per cent. McKinnon claimed he had given the borrower $86, in which event, according to the actuary, the interest would have amounted to but 10.88 per cent. This was denied by the borrower and the court accepted his version and convicted McKinnon.

Spaniard Duped Of Swindler.

Madrid, Feb. 27.—A daring swindle was registered here yesterday. An Englishman, who said he was Henry Willmont, stopping at one of the best hotels, made the acquaintance of a Spaniard named Pastor, of the Madrid municipality. He offered the latter a London firm's agency here on condition that he deposit $1,000 at the British embassy.

Senior Pastor went to meet the Englishman at his hotel, bringing the money. Both were proceeding toward the embassy. He offered the Englishman offered Senior Pastor a cup of coffee in a cafe. The latter fell asleep and did not recover consciousness until six hours later, when he was moved to his home. A waiter declared he saw the Englishman slip narcotic drops in the cup. The Englishman fled and is still at large.

Henry Sheard has refused to act as license commissioner for Toronto.

THE YOUNG LADY INJURED.

Dodging a Kiss She Ran Under An Auto.

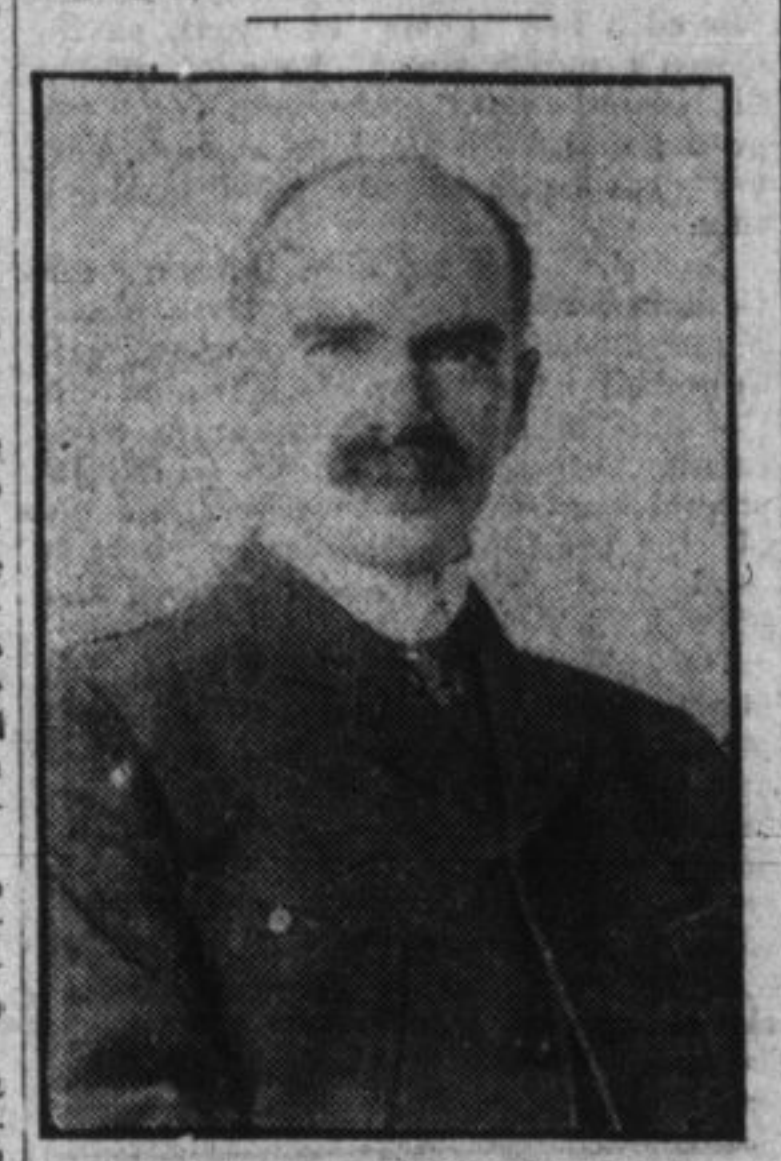

Camden, N.J., Feb. 26.—Rather than permit her fiancé to kiss her in the presence of his guests, Miss Andrea Meyerhoff ran out of the house yesterday pursued by him and a number of friends and was crushed beneath a trolley car. The girl is at the Homeopathic Hospital and is not expected to live. The wedding, which was to have taken place last evening, is indefinitely postponed.

To celebrate the arrival of his bride who reached Philadelphia aboard the steamship Merion on Monday, Carl Francis Roland gave a dinner for a number of his friends at his home, No. 1401 Haddon avenue. The feast was almost over, when Roland attempted to kiss her. She dashed from the room and failed to see the approaching car.

URGES FREE ENTRY.

Says It Will Then Revolutionize Medical Science.

Baltimore, Feb. 27.—Dr. Howard A. Kelly of the Medical Faculty of the Johns Hopkins University and Hospital declared, yesterday, that the high tariff on radium in this country was a blood tax. Radium, he said, would revolutionize medicine just as soon as medical men could buy it with the tariff off. All medical men were interested in it, but hundreds were unable to use it because of the exorbitant price.

CLAIMS YOTT IS INNOCENT.

William Riley Says He Stole the Horses.

Chatham, Ont., Feb. 27.—A letter was received here, dated New York, signed by William Riley, stating that George Yott, convicted over a year ago of stealing the horses of Dr. MacFarlane, Dover, now serving a seven-year sentence at Kingston penitentiary, was innocent. Riley being the actual thief. Riley claims he hired Yott to drive the horses to Detroit for him, Yott not knowing they were stolen. The letter has been handed to the authorities, who incline to the belief that it is a bluff.

LOVE OF THE CHASE

"SPORTING DUCHESS" ACCUSED OF CRUELTY.

French Society to Protect Animals Threatens to Expel the Dowager d'Uzes.

Paris, Feb. 27.—The Dowager Duchess d'Uzes, who is well called "the sporting duchess of France," was the centre of a stormy meeting of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, a society in which she takes an active interest and a prominent part. At the meeting a faction headed by Maitre Pierre Bouche, an advocate at the court of appeals, demanded that the duchess, a queen among sportswomen, be expelled from the organization, because of her widely celebrated love of the chase.

On her vast estate near Rambouillet the duchess holds stag hunts in truly royal style, hunts in such fashion as did the chieftains whose ancestors served. She resents such an attack, and is up in arms against her enemies in the society. She refused to consider it possible that she would be expelled by the society which will vote on the question March 15th.

Baroness To Live In Berlin.

Leipzig, Feb. 27.—Baroness Von Sternburg, widow of the late German ambassador at Washington, is at present in Leipzig settling her husband's estate. She intends to go to Berlin at the end of the week and engage a permanent residence, after which she will join her sister in the south of France for a month.

Appetizing, Isn't It?

New York, Feb. 27.—The Canadian Camp, of this city, banquets each year on some strange meat. This year the menu will include desiccated bone constrictor and monkeys a la mode.

Churches To Pay Taxes.

Vancouver, B.C., Feb. 27.—The city council decided that churches must pay taxes on twenty-five per cent. of assessment. In recent years churches have been exempt.

DOCTOR SUES QUEEN LIL.

Washington Physician Says She Broke Her Contract.

Washington, D.C., Feb. 27.—Queen Liliuokalani, of Hawaii, is being sued for $11,600 by Dr. Charles H. English. The former queen is referred to in the suit as Lydia Dominis, otherwise known as Liliuokalani, former queen of the Hawaiian Islands. Dr. English says in his declaration that he gave up his practice here at the queen's request and agreed to become her physician in Hawaii. He went to Hawaii and was her physician for two months, and was willing to continue at the price agreed on, $300 per month, because of her widely celebrated love of the chase. An increase of one cent a package for those consumed in this country, as well as those exported, would mean an additional tax of $55,000,000 on the cigarette smokers.

WILL PAY $55,000,000.

If Prices of Cigarettes is Increased By Cent a Package.

New York, Feb. 27.—The proposed increase in the price of cigarettes, announced yesterday, will not be more than a cent or two per package. While this may sound like a small affair, it will actually mean millions of dollars per year to the cigarette smokers of the country.

According to official government figures, 55,402,330,113 cigarettes were manufactured in the United States last year. In round numbers this means 5,500,000,000 packages, ten cigarettes to a package. An increase of one cent a package for those consumed in this country, as well as those exported, would mean an additional tax of $55,000,000 on the cigarette smokers.

Soon To Be Uniform.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The parcel post service to foreign countries practically will be uniform after March 1st, with a postage rate of twelve cents a pound and a weight limit of eleven pounds. ONLY IDLE RUMORS

That Quarantined Places Are Not Guarded.

Medical Health Officer Bell, when asked if it were true that two quarantined houses were not guarded, replied that it was not. Both houses had been guarded from 6 a.m. till midnight. Guards were not kept on after midnight, as it was not necessary. The chairman of the board of health, he said, gave orders that guards need not be kept on between midnight and 6 a.m.

In regard to the rumor that the fort hospital was also unguarded, Dr. Bell said this was false. Let anyone try to get into the fort, and he will see how difficult it is. Sergt. McIntosh is in charge of the fort as caretaker, and no one can get through the outside iron gate without an order from the health officer. The gate is always locked, and Sergt. McIntosh alone has the key. Dr. Bell says that the same idle rumors of last fall are again going round. If any one wants information, he invites them to call on him and he'll give the facts.

One of the houses under quarantine was released, this morning, no cases having developed. There are still just four cases in the fort hospital, no new case having developed in ten days.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Mayor Couper Fighting the Battles of the People.

Kingston, Feb. 26.—(To the Editor): Things will be flourishing at the police court next week. The Board of Health are determined that the police magistrate shall earn his salary. When municipalities encroach upon our liberties (as they are trying to do) we will soon have to ask permission of them before selecting our daily food, and breath our supply of ethereal blue from a tank of sterilized air, specially prepared by the medical profession. The Kingston people may thank their "lucky stars" for having an able man like Mayor Couper to fight their battles. It is the case of "the right man in the right place." SUES HIS NEIGHBOR

CLAIMING THAT HE HAS BEEN PERSECUTING HIM.

Watertown, N.Y., Feb. 27.—Daniel H. Smith, of Woodville, has started a suit for $10,000 against George Wood of the same place, alleging in the complaint that the defendant was guilty of persecution in having him arrested for arson.

The action is the outcome of trouble between the Smith and Wood families. It started about the time that Smith gave the deeds of two farms to his children and then, as alleged, went in to bankruptcy. At that time Wood was made a trustee, and later he brought an action on the grounds that Smith was endeavoring to defraud his creditors. The jury sustained him, and now there is an order for the sale of the property for the benefit of the creditors.

Last fall the Smith barn burned to the ground. On December 26th Smith was arrested, charged with arson. He was not indicted. Smith advised that Wood complained to the district attorney that he had set fire to the barn.
