MEN'S ASSOCIATION

FORMED AT BANQUET AT SYDENHAM ST. CHURCH.

Hon. D. F. Wilber and Rev. W. T. G. Brown Delivered Inspiring Addresses at a Large Gathering—Ladies' Provided Fine Banquet—The Officers Elected.

The Bible school hall of Sydenham Street Methodist church, was the scene of a great gathering last night, when upwards of 250 men, both old and young, met at a banquet, provided by the members of the ladies' auxiliary.

The ladies provided a splendid banquet, and well deserved the praise bestowed upon them. The boys who sat at the tables gave an excellent performance.

During the evening there was a short programme of music, consisting of selections by the male quartette of the church, composed of Messrs. Harlow, and Harvey Angrove, Sergeant, Harto and William Eyn, also solos by the latter.

Dr. W. G. Anglin presided during the evening, and before calling upon the speakers, proposed the toast to the king, which was honored by the singing of the national anthem. The chairman then spoke briefly, referring to the fifty-seventh anniversary of the church, which has just been celebrated, also referring to the main object of the banquet, stating that he felt sure that everyone present would respond to the call.

The pastor, Rev. C. A. Sykes was then called upon by Dr. Anglin, and in his opening remarks, congratulated the ladies of the auxiliary, for providing the banquet, and for the way in which they looked after all the arrangements. On behalf of the gathering, he extended to the ladies, sincere thanks for their work. Continuing, he said that something was needed, to bring the men of the congregation together, and he referred to the purpose of the organization. Men of today were hearing the call of Christ, in a new way, and if they were not engaged in the ministry, they could be found at their posts, standing up for good citizenship, assisting in the spread of God's gospel. Co-operation among the men was needed in this work.

Mr. Brown followed, dealing with the relation of men to the Christian church and work. He also touched upon the progress of missionary work, which was the best to be engaged in. The best work, was always in the work of the elevation of men. It was true that we were not all born equal, some could do better in certain lines of business, than others, but there was something we could be equal in, and that was in our work in taking hold of truth and righteousness. For the work to be good, it must be a work of love. We should endeavor to bear one another's burdens. Many were the opportunities for greatness, but the greatest work of all, was in saving waste humanity. The best work most of necessity, is a divine work.

"And this great work needs you all," added the speaker. "It will require men trained in all lines. Pour all your vitality into the work, and make the church worthy. Help train the boys and girls in the Sunday schools, and when they have been taught there, help them to continue on the right path. Are you doing this? Christianity calls for the best, and refuses to take anything but the best. You cannot give as much to the church, as the church gives to you." Hon. D. F. Wilber will be one of the speakers at the big convention to be held by the Laymen's Missionary Movement, at Toronto, the latter part of this week, and in his address, he referred to this movement. He told the story of the organization, in New York, and said that it was one of power and progress. There was a great spiritual wave passing over this part of the country, backed up by God, and it was bound to succeed. Reference was made to the work carried on in India, by the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States. During the first thirty years, the church had a membership of 200,000 people. In the jubilee year, celebrated recently 200,000 more had been added, and of this number, 73,000 had been added within the last four years. "I believe missions are the best investment a man can make, whether it be from a philanthropic, commercial or religious point of view," said the speaker. Joseph Clark had once stated, that he would rather save a million lives, than a million dollars. And yet, some people would say that missionaries were no good, that they accomplished nothing, and lived in luxury. In reference to this claim he said:

READY FOR THE SEASON

VICTORIA BASEBALL CLUB IS NOW IN LINE.

Officers Were Elected at a Meeting Held on Tuesday Night—Should Place Team in St. Lawrence River League.

The Victoria baseball club was re-organized for the season at a meeting last night, in the Y.M.C.A. There was a large turnout of the members, and everything points to a most successful season with this popular club. These officers were elected:

Hon. president, Col. Van Sant; hon. vice-president, J. McD. Mowat; president, W. McEldridge; first vice-president, W. Cusick; second vice-president, H. V. Price; third vice-president, D. Dick; secretary, W. MacTavish; treasurer, J. J. Thomson; manager, S. E. Trotter.

The election of a captain was left over until the next meeting, to be held on Thursday evening. Nearly all the baseball teams are beginning to get busy for the season in earnest now. Many places around the city are free from snow and dry, and a chance to get out and do something. A league will be formed again this year and should be as well controlled as last season's, and it could not be improved upon.

Many teams have already organized and elected their officers, while others are waiting to see what each day brings forth. After the city league is formed a city team should be formed from all the teams in the league, and with the consent of the executive to play in another series, should go into the St. Lawrence River Baseball league with Nanaimo, Deseronto and Gananoque. A first-class city team could be picked up here, and one that could make the best of them go some. This would boom first-class baseball here again, and would be a step towards putting it back where it was some years ago when people turned out in hundreds to see the locals play.

It is getting nearer Victoria Day and yet no meeting has been called, and much work has to be done after the first meeting before much is accomplished. The celebration of this year should be better and grander than ever, and its success just rests on one thing, the way the citizens take it and how they turn out to help the committee when they are called on for aid and no citizen should refuse help to such an occasion.

The Y.M.C.A.'s Took It. The city basketball championship was decided at the Y.M.C.A. on Tuesday evening, when the Y.M.C.A. seniors played St. James' holders of the handsome McEldridge trophy. The game was quite one-sided—the Y.M.C.A. five having the best of the game all through. At full time the score stood 76 shots to 12 for the association. The teams lined up: Y.M.C.A. (76)—Pound, Bearance, deJeney, Jefferys, centre; Bewis, Moxley, King, forwards. King played the first half and Moxley the second. St. James' (12)—Atkins, Dunnet, deJeney; Rutherford, centre; Saunders, Parkhill, forwards.

Referee—James Bewis. The combination of the winners had the Saints baffled all through, and their shooting was superb. After the game the intermediate class put on a few athletic events that were greatly enjoyed by the large crowd present. These events will continue for some time, and the one securing the most points will be declared the winner.

When this was over an oyster supper was tendered the young athletes of the association, and for two hours the old building rang with the songs and laughter of the banqueters. William McEldridge was present and, needless to say, kept the boys in a merry mood.

THE LATE MRS. J. BIRCH. Died at San Francisco—Funeral at Upland.

Mrs. Anne Marshall Birch died on Friday, March 19th, at the Morton hospital, San Francisco. How great a sufferer this lady had been can never be known on earth. She was born in Port Hope, Ont., in 1860, was living in Kingston in 1883, when she was married to James Birch, then a resident of Idaho. The couple came directly to Etiwanda, Cal. Three years later Mr. and Mrs. Birch moved to Ontario, near Upland, where they have since continued to reside, and during their stay here, the deceased lady was always an active worker in the church, and was for years leader of the church choir. She will be mourned by a large circle of friends.

On October 26th, 1908, she went on a visit to San Francisco; three days later she was taken to the Morton hospital; this was the beginning of a long period of suffering, during which she underwent several surgical operations and from which she never recovered. She leaves, besides her husband and son, Russell, four brothers, a nephew and four nieces, one of whom, Miss Gertrude, and one of her brothers together with her husband, were in attendance upon her up to the last moment.

The remains were brought to Ontario, and the funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church, Upland, on Monday, Rev. Mr. Lane, of the Presbyterian, and Rev. Mr. Welch, of the Methodist church, officiating. The remains were interred in Bellevue cemetery.

Mrs. Birch lived for years in Kingston with her uncle, the late William Marshall, Colborne street. She was a member of Queen Street Methodist church choir and highly regarded as a vocalist, and a lady. Several times since her marriage she revisited Kingston. Her deceased husband is a brother of Mrs. Webb Robinson, Charles street; Mrs. Henry Wilton, and Samuel Birch, Bagot street.
