GROWING IN POPULARITY.

Another Large Audience Attend Grand on Tuesday Night.

A large audience nightly at the Grand Opera House, is evidence of the growing popularity of the Transatlantic Amusement company. As promised, a lengthy programme of moving pictures, songs, monologue and vaudeville sketches, was presented, and was highly creditable to all concerned. Little Miss Adelino Mulvaney, who is a general favorite with the audience, sang two of her pretty songs, "Baby Doll" and "A Big Time Tonight." Mr. Stewart, in highland costume, rendered a "Parody on Harry Lauder" and sang in fine voice, "Hieland Donald." His efforts were applauded. Miss Vera Simmonds again delighted the audience with her sweet singing. Her rendition of "Good Evening, Caroline" and "You're Just the Boy for Me," were much appreciated, and in response to a recall, gave a recitation and the skirt dance. She also sang in connection with the illustrated pictures. Mr. Stevenson also sang creditably, "True Heart." The vaudeville sketch, "When Do I Eat," by Stevenson and Stewart, kept the audience in laughter, and was thoroughly enjoyed. Many new pictures were presented, the principal ones being "The Zan in the Box," "The Emperor Nero on the Warpath," "The Bandit," and "The Magic Garden."

A HEAVY WINDFALL

AN HEIRESS TO GREAT FORTUNE AT 63.

Her Father An American Millionaire—The Extraordinary Romance of Mrs. Elizabeth Bird, a Poor Northampton Woman.

London, March 30.—An extraordinary romance, as the result of which a woman in poor circumstances finds herself the heiress to a great fortune, is revealed by investigation in connection with the following telegram from New York:

"The members of the family of the late Samuel H. Roebuck, the millionaire wire manufacturer, of New York, threaten to contest his will, which was filed for probate recently. Under this, Mrs. Elizabeth Bird, wife of Richard Bird, of Northampton, England, described as the testator's daughter, is the principal beneficiary. The disinterested relatives maintain that Mr. Roebuck never mentioned having any daughter in England."

Mrs. Bird, our Northampton correspondent states, is an aged woman in humble circumstances, living at 48 Green street, where her husband carries on a small bakery business. News of her unexpected fortune, which is stated to be over $2,500,000, had naturally thrown her into a state of intense excitement, mingled with fits of weeping. She is the natural daughter of the dead millionaire, who left her and her mother more than thirty years ago practically destitute.

Seven years ago, however, Mr. Roebuck communicated with his sister, Miss Roebuck, of Richmond Road, Leicester, asking her to find Mrs. Bird. She did so, and thereafter Mr. Roebuck paid her $5 a week. In a letter to Mrs. Bird a year ago, beginning: "My dear daughter," the millionaire said that he had been married four times, and added, "It was no fault of mine I did not marry your dear mother. After my first wife died I sent my brother, John, to England on business to bring her back, so that I could wed her, but he was stuck up, and would not consent to admit anyone into the family without schooling."

Mrs. Bird has had fifteen children. Ten are living, one of them being the champion swimmer of Northampton. When asked what she would do with her fortune, Mrs. Bird said: "I shall have a nice house, a pony and trap, and a woman in to do my housework. But I have not got the money yet, and until I do I shall not work. It has come rather too late for me really to enjoy it," she added, with a sob, "because I am now sixty-three, but, thank heaven, it will enable us to have a easier time, than we have ever had all our lives, for I've known what it was to go around with a truck selling bread."

Mrs. Bird is very popular in the poor neighborhood in which she resides for her readiness to help out of her humble means any in poorer circumstances. News of her good fortune brought crowds of poor neighbors to congratulate her. The other night she took a cab and drove to the offices of a local firm of solicitors, and then returned to her husband's shop to help in selling bread and faggots, for which there was an extra demand from curious persons in the neighborhood.

TEETOTAL BY ORDER. Gas Company's Curious Order to Employees. London, March 30.—Considerable discussion has been caused by the attempt of a great London corporation to interfere with the private affairs of its employees.

By the terms of an order which has just come into force, officers and workmen in the service of the Gas Light and Coke company, limited, of Horseferry Road, Westminster, are forbidden to enter any public house "in the immediate vicinity of the office" except on official business. The order, which was sent to the head of each of the company's ten offices, adds that any man found disregarding this instruction will render himself liable to instant dismissal from the service.

The order is meant to apply only to the working hours of the staff, and, therefore, to their meal hours. "It is not intended," said the manager to an interviewer, "to apply to their leisure time. No reflection on the sobriety of the staff is intended. Mr. W. Smith returned home on Sunday from Emporium, Pa., where he had been attending the funeral of his sister-in-law, the late Mrs. (Dr.) S. S. Smith. The many friends of Mrs. Henry Allport, who has been seriously ill the past few weeks, are anxious for her recovery. Mrs. W. Howie and daughter, Syracuse, are visiting at the home of her father, John Adsit. James Howie sold a fine horse last week. Overton and Victor Smith, after spending the winter with friends, here, returned to their home in Manitoba, on Tuesday.

Cultivated Leprosy Bacillus. Manila, March 31.—Dr. Moses Clegg, bacteriologist of the bureau of science at Manila, has succeeded in cultivating the leprosy bacillus. He has made five separate cultures of the bacillus, and carried all of them through five successive generations. Dr. Clegg used the organism both from living lepers and the bodies of victims of leprosy. He has been equally successful with his culture of the germs of amoebic dysentery, and noting a symbolic relationship between the germs of the two diseases.

The bureau of science has prepared a leprosy vaccine, and proposes to carry forward a series of experiments for the purpose of establishing a specific treatment for leprosy.

Wilbur Items. Wilbur, March 29.—Sugar-making is now begun and the farmers around here are tapping their trees. An auction sale was held at John Watts, on the 24th of March. Milch cows ranged from $35 to $40 each. Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Paul have left here for their home in Reston, Manitoba, accompanied by their brother, James Jackson. Miss Jennie Rollo is visiting at Mississippi and Clarendon. T. Richardson has left here for the Soo. Mrs. B. Rogers at T. Richardson's; James Moreau has gone to Pembroke.

In England women are paid fifty cents a dozen for making men's trousers.

That's enough to make a woman determined to wear 'em.

Of course there are women who think they have as much license to vote as some man who is lucky to be out of jail at election time.

The man who feels too sick to accompany his wife to church usually recovers sufficiently to eat a big Sunday dinner.

It takes a whole legislature to change a man's name, but one minister can change a woman's.

In the matter of fund soliciting the corner loafer displays wonderful nerve energy.

NO WOMAN

CAN BE STRONG AND HEALTHY UNLESS THE KIDNEYS ARE WELL.

When the kidneys are ill, the whole body is ill, for the poisons which the kidneys ought to filter out of the blood are left in the system. Then how important it must be to see to it that this system of sewerage be not clogged up. Those who have never been troubled with kidney trouble know not the misery and suffering which those afflicted undergo.

Doan's Kidney Pills are a specific for all kidney troubles. They begin by healing the delicate membrane of the kidneys and thus make their action regular and natural.

They help the kidneys to flush out the acid and poisonous impurities which have collected, thus clearing out the kidneys, bladder and all the urinary passages.

Doan's Kidney Pills are entirely vegetable, and may be safely taken by young and old.

Let Doan's Kidney Pills do for you what they have done for thousands of others, that is, cure you.

Mrs. M. Bryant, Spring Valley, P.E.I., writes: "I was troubled with my kidneys for two years. They were so bad at times I could not cross the floor for the pain. I tried a doctor but he did me no good at all. I sent to my nearest druggist and got four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, and I am glad to say that after taking them I have had no more trouble for nearly three years now."
