

THE EGYPTIANS' SECRET.

The Egyptians of Pharaoh's time were a wonderful people. The pyramids, for instance, put our modern buildings to shame.

The Egyptians were skilled physicians, too. We know that they used fruit juices in treating many diseases.

Whether "Fruit-a-tives" (these combined fruit juices in tablet form) are a re-discovery of the prescriptions of the ancient Egyptians, will probably never be known.

Certainly, the ancients never had a more effective remedy than "Fruit-a-tives" for all Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bowel Troubles.

Poetical Selections

A Lover's Envy.

Henry VanDyke in the Century. I envy every flower that blows Besides the pathway where she goes.

I envy every poet's rhyme That moves her heart at even time.

I envy every Southern night That paves her path with moonbeams white.

I envy none whose love requires Of her a gift, a task that tires.

The Way To Wait.

Isabel Ecclestone Mackay, in Harper's Magazine. O, whether by the lonesome road that lies along the sea,

No fear is hidden in my heart to make my face less fair.

For should he come not by the road, And come not by the far sea-way,

My heart is light with singing (though they pity me my fate)

Counsel.

By M. E. M. Davis. If thou shouldst bid thy friend farewell, But for one night though that farewell should be

Fate or caprice may lead his feet. Ere that to-morrow come? Men have been

To months, and months to lagging years Before they looked in loving eyes

Therefore, lest sudden death should come between, Or time or distance, clasp with pressure true

Yes, find then always time to say Some earnest word betwixt the idle talk.

Smoke.

New York Sun. I've been praised in all tongues and re-siled beyond measure;

I can fill all the sky, yet no crevice so I hide not creep through; I can hide in the wall.

I am white, I am black, I am brown, I am yellow;

And though of destruction and waste I'm the sign, I am used to preserve what few christians decline.

The Beehive Hat.

It may be my artistic sense is undeveloped, I'll admit.

In some things I'm very dense. And maybe I am dull of wit.

Do not misunderstand me, now. You tell me it's the latest style;

I'll have no argument to-day. You may deride my lack of taste,

I know how you will sneer at me And scorn the judgment of a man;

Send A Letter Home. In a lonely country cottage dwell a couple, old and grey.

It has been a strenuous battle, they have nobly won the day.

Still, they are far from happy, in their hearts there is a grief;

Years ago, when hale and hearty, how they tell me all to know

But the old home seemed too lonely in the hills amidst the snow.

Of when winter winds are sighing, how they weary, few can guess.

So I'd ask you send a letter to the ones who love you best—

You, who have neglected doing so day by day.

Your conscience will plead "Guilty" when they are laid at rest.

Ah! surely you must know for it they crave! Would you so forget those dear ones,

Yet how often do we notice parents who are left in grief?

Oh! 'tis hard to be forgotten when they live just for your sake!

Try and make your parents happy, may you never forget to send a letter home.

DAVID WARFIELD. In a recent interview he expressed the opinion that fidelity to detail does much towards the creation of stage reputations.

THE SPORT REVIEW.

Interesting News From the Various Sporting Fields.

In the past three years Natties, of Buffalo, has scored 254 runs, more than any other player in the Eastern League.

In explaining why he came to purchase Phil Poland from Providence, Jack Dunn says that the speedy outfielder has never been with a team lower than third place.

Hessler, the new right fielder, secured by Buffalo from the Ronsons club, led the Virginia league in base running, with 68 steals to his credit.

So Canada is not to be represented in the English Marathon, Windsor to Shepherd's Bush, Wall, at least that's something for which to be thankful.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Cricket association was held in Ottawa, the report for last season showing the season to have been one of the best on record and arrangements being made for the coming season which promises to be a great one for cricket in Canada.

Toronto has another one-legged athlete. He is J. Ryan, and long fast on the sticks he has been playing at the Polo Grounds, and Tom says that by that time he would have a chance to get acclimated after his sojourn in Canada.

"Do you think Johnson would have a chance with Jim Jeffries if the latter were in condition?" asked the Perth Daily News Burns chuckled audibly.

It is known to be the champion. While Jim Jeffries created considerable furor in the big Manhattan bugh.

Jack Johnson required no less than 200 cops at the railway depot to keep the crowd from getting too close a look at the way Johnson is creating a precedent for a champion, posting real money for the smaller fellows to cover when the reverse is the general fighting order.

Perhaps when the big dingie thinks it over he has some doubts about his title.

It is reported that the C.A.U. has reinstated Harvey Purford as an amateur. It will be remembered that Purford refused to play with the Ottawa hockey club, this season, although strenuous efforts were made to induce the big defence player to don a local uniform.

Lois Cure, of Paris, won Monday night's game from George F. Slosson, in the professional world's championship 18.2 billiard tourney at New York.

The French expert outplayed the local man from the third inning until the finish, the final score being 800 to 385.

Cr. C. Morningstar, who is from Rochester, Indiana, now leads the field of seven players, having won three straight games, while Slosson and Sutton are tied for second place, each having won two games and lost one.

Though the annual meeting thereof is still nine months away, there is heresy and talk of mutiny around the Eastern League circuit and the fair form of P. T. Powers is in danger of having a javelin hurled at it as he turns any corner.

Moreover, there is talk of setting another king upon the throne. And all because of the schedule that Powers drew up and which the delegates of their own accord accepted, allowing the first and best draft of the schedule to go by the board.

Now they are out for the present incumbent in office and threaten all manner of things.

That Tommy Burns' surprising popularity with the Australian people has not been affected in the smallest degree by his defeat at the hands of Johnson, the enormous Ethiopian, his reception in Perth singularly demonstrated, says the Sunday Times, of that city. Every night last week there was a great crowd at the Palace Gardens. Every night the crowd cheered itself hoarse as he methodically smacked the punching ball and brushed flies off the classic countenances of his sparring partners.

The ex-champion's appearance in the street for his afternoon's constitutional, continues the Times, was the signal for the gathering of a swarm of admiring spectators, anxious to get a sight of the mighty arm that knocked Phil Squires and Gunner Moir into slumber.
