ALGONQUIN PARK.

Its Beauties Set Forth By Grand Trunk Pamphlet.

In preparation for their summer campaign, the Grand Trunk has just, issued a handsome folder, illustrating the beauties of the Algonquin Park country as a resort for holiday makers and sportsmen generally. The folder illustrates the advantages of a route through the famous park, starting from the headquarters at Algonthrough a number of lakes until it connects with the main line of the Grand Trunk on the North Bay line, via Dorset and the Lake of Bays, with a visit to the new Wa-Wa hotel on that lake. This route is one of the best that a lover of fishing could desire, embracing canoe trips through Little Island, Wolf and Crown Lakes, with side trips to other smaller lakes, all of which teem with fish. While in several of the lakes nothing but big speckled trout can be found, others, "Beef Iron and wine" taken after such as Wolfe and Little Island, offer lakes there is so much sport that parmore than they can eat, which does camp is broken, while the nights are "Buy the genuine" Blaud's Iron ofton rendered melodious with the seeking either health or sport.
