For more than a year, Mr. John Herman, 513 James St. Hamilton, was a puzzle to the best physicians in that city.

little when he was tossing about the bed in dreadful something over four years ago, I was taken down with what the doctors called inflammation of the bladder, intense pains about the bed in dreadful agony. They succeeded in easing the pain and getting him up and about, but as soon as he went to work, there was another cruel attack of pain, worse than before.

did for Mr. Herman what all the doctors in the big city of Hamilton could not dothey cured him.

The National Drug & Chemical Company (who prepare GIN PILLS) have known about this cure of Mr. Herman for three years. But they wanted to be sure that Mr. Herman's cure was permanent before placing the facts before the public.

Some days ago, a representative of the company called at Mr. Herman's house, 513 James Street, North. He was informed by Mrs. Herman that her husband (who is a brass pol-husband who is a brass pol-
