BOTH SENT TO JAIL FOR THIRTY DAYS FOR BIGAMY.

The Woman Was Deserted By Her First Husband—She Said Her Present Husband Gave Her a Good Home and Good Treatment.

Toronto, April 8.—In the police court, this morning, Sarah Genoux and John Tilley were sentenced to thirty days and three months' imprisonment respectively for bigamy. The woman pleaded guilty and the man not guilty, afterwards, however, changing his plea. The woman said that she had been deserted by her former husband, who left her with two children to support, and that Tilley had given her a good home and proper treatment since she had married him.

Fine Vaudeville Presented.

Wonderland theatre, under its new management, is doing a fine business, playing to packed houses at every performance. The new proprietors are paying more attention to vaudeville than the theatre did before and excellent bills are being presented. Brevitt and Merrill, in their hypnotic aerial act, are really fine. They present one of the best acts in that line ever seen here. Their work is thrilling, but is not in the least outside the pale of polite vaudeville. Their act mystifies and pleases all who have seen it.

"Little Prince," an English juggler, is also a top liner. He presents many new tricks that keep the audience interested every minute he is on the stage. Miss Whittier is still singing the illustrated songs in her usual pleasing manner. Two fine films were presented on Wednesday, "The Guilty Guardian," a drama, and "The Man Monkey," a comedy.

ROMANTIC YOUTH SUICIDED.

Love Stories and Theatres Turned His Head.

New York, April 8.—Separation from his parents, whom he had not seen in four years, and constant reading of love letters, are supposed to be the causes that led Francis Lucas, sixteen years old, to commit suicide, yesterday, in his room, at 513 Fifty-third street, Bay Ridge, Brooklyn.

Young Lucas, after coming from a theatre, apparently made an attempt to hang himself to a bed post, as the rope with a noose in it was found hanging there when his body was discovered, yesterday. He had made a second and successful effort to kill himself by turning on the gas in his room and was dead when found by his landlady. Until a few days ago the boy had been employed by his uncle, Frederick Heilbrunn, in a dry goods store at Fifty-third street and Fifth avenue, Brooklyn, but, following a dispute with one of the men over him, young Lucas secured a position elsewhere. The boy was well developed and good-looking. He spent most of his time when not working at the theatres or reading in his room. On the bureau in his room was found to be an actress, whom, however, he did not know, and on it, copied in the photograph of a young woman, said boy's handwriting, was the following passage: "He was a typical young American. Handsome, clever, with straightforward manners and well used to society. She (here followed the name of an actress) was beautiful."

After Lucas left the employ of his uncle he took a room at No. 513 Fifth avenue, Brooklyn, and, according to the landlady, Mrs. Parry, appeared to be very melancholy. She detected the odor of gas on arising, yesterday, and traced it to the room occupied by her new lodger.

Policeman Thompson, who was summoned, forced the door and applied first aid, but the boy refused to respond to treatment. His uncle was notified and will take charge of the body.

The boy's parents live in Germany, and since he left them, four years ago, to come to this country to work for his uncle, he had been despondent over the fact that he could not report greater progress to his parents.

Special to the Whig.

Still Confident At Deseronto.

Deseronto, April 8.—"Longboat can beat that Frenchman" is all that is heard among the Indians here. People around Deseronto are going mad with excitement. Hundreds gathered in town on Saturday to hear the bulletins of the derby, which were received over a special wire. Longboat's friends backed him to their last cent, most of them taking the Indian against the field at even money, but owing to the short period of time he had to train in after his long rest some of his admirers were a little afraid he would not be in good shape. Nevertheless, it was a sad blow to most of them, when the news of his fall was received here. Many of the Indians' followers are willing to wager a large amount that Longboat in good form can defeat the little Frenchman.

THE REPORT IS FALSE.

THAT A BIG MARINE STRIKE IS ORDERED.

William R. Yates Terms the Report is "All Bunk"—How Can There Be a Strike When There Are No Boats in Commission?

Buffalo, N.Y., April 8.—A despatch from Chicago, stating that 10,000 marine engineers, firemen, oilers, water-tenders and deckhands went on strike there, this morning, as the result of a vote taken last night, is laughed at by William F. Yates, president of the Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association.

"How could there be any strike when the boats are all tied up and ice-bound?" queried Mr. Yates. "That story is all bunk."

"The despatch intimates the strike was the result of a conference held here in Buffalo," Mr. Yates said. "More bunk; nothing to it," was his emphatic reply.

SEVEN PERSONS POISONED.

Drank Tainted Milk—In a Critical Condition.

New York, April 8.—Seven persons were taken from No. 42 Johnson avenue, Brooklyn, to the Williamsburg hospital in a critical condition, yesterday, suffering from ptomaine poisoning. The ambulance made two rush trips to get the patients to the hospital in time to save their lives, the police of the Stagg street station began a hunt in the neighborhood where the stricken ones lived to find a grocer who is said to have sold tainted milk to the neighbors.

Mrs. Sarah Herschek, three of her sons, and three nieces were the persons affected. The sons are Herman, Louis and Benjamin, aged twenty-one, seventeen and ten years respectively.

The nieces are Sadie, Minnie and Tillie Schek, ranging in age from nineteen to thirteen years. The only members of the family who escaped were the husband of Mrs. Herschek and an elder son.

As the police learned from the members of the family, milk was purchased from a grocer in the neighborhood on Monday evening. During the night all the members of the household became ill except the two who did not partake of the milk. The family physician was called in, and he diagnosed the ailment as ptomaine poisoning. He prescribed the usual remedies and departed.

Some of the neighbors dropped in, found the sufferers in an alarming state, and notified the police, who sent a hurry call to the Williamsburg hospital. Two surgeons responded and hustled one lot off to the hospital while they worked over the others.

At the hospital it was said later that all seven were in a critical condition, and that nothing could be said at the time as to the result of the poisoning.

Live And Learn.

Among the words given out for analysis recently by a district school teacher in Pennsylvania was the word "bank-note." The instructor's astonishment may be imagined when one male pupil turned in the following unique paper: "Bank-note is a compound, primitive word, composed of 'bank' and 'note.' 'Bank' is a simple word, meaning the side of a stream; 'note,' to set down. 'Bank-note,' to set down by the side of a stream."

THE WIND AT BELLEVILLE.

Big Smoke Stack Fell Upon Army Barracks.

Belleville, Ont., April 8.—The heaviest wind storm in the memory of the residents of this city raged, yesterday. Trees and fences were blown down; also many old buildings and barns. Trees fell across the wires of the Trenton Electric company, and as a result, the power was off for some hours, seriously interfering with industrial concerns. The schooner George Saffell, which wintered near the Grand Junction docks, broke loose from her moorings and drifted down the bay. The schooner Freeman broke loose and fetched up on a bar. She is in no danger. The big smoketack of the Belleville Hardware company was blown down and fell on the Salvation Army barracks, doing some damage. Only one man is reported injured. He was struck by a piece of brick blown off a building.

The fishing tugs saw the storm coming and made for shelter, arriving in port safely, but lost thousands of dollars worth of fish nets.

Not Serious At Montreal.

Montreal, April 8.—The terrific wind storm which swept over Ontario, yesterday, was felt here but, so far, no serious damage has been reported. One Man Lost Life.

Hamilton, Ont., April 8.—One man is believed to have lost his life as the result of yesterday's storm. John Jamieson, well known amateur wrestler and football player, started out in a small boat, last evening, when the storm was at height, to recover another man's hat. Nothing more was seen of him and, this morning, a boat, believed to be Jamieson's, was found near the canal, battered to pieces. Jamieson was twenty-two years of age. The storm continued until early this morning and as a result of its severity the roads leading into the city are, to-day, almost impassable from uprooted trees, telegraph and telephone poles and fences.

Damage At Island.

Toronto, April 8.—Only a fair wind is blowing in the city, to-day, and stock is, therefore, being taken of the damage done by the gale of yesterday. The greatest damage was at the island, where, on the ferry service being resumed this morning, it was found that many summer cottages, some of them built at considerable expense, had been blown down, as well as all the new portion of the Island Oval grand stand. The latter loss will be a little over $5,000, this amount having been paid for the erection and material last summer.

Cushehdall, April 7.—On Monday evening, March 29th, a large gathering of friends and neighbors assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Redfearn to say farewell to him, his esteemed wife and family, on the eve of their departure from Cushehdall. In the early part of the evening a complimentary address was read. After the address, Mrs. J. Gordon and Mrs. S. Woods, on behalf of their many friends, presented them with two beautiful wicker chairs and several articles of china. Mr. Redfearn, on behalf of his wife and family, very feelingly thanked the donors for their kindly words and the tangible proof of their regard, and expressed deep sorrow at leaving so many kind friends. The remaining hours of the evening were passed very pleasantly in listening to speeches interspersed with songs and instrumental music. James Martin filled the position of master of ceremonies.
