

Told in Twilight

The at home to the graduates, at Queen's, given last night, by Rev. Dr. and Mrs. B. M. Gordon, at the principal's residence, was a very pleasant affair, of course. Mrs. Adam Shortt looked very much at home, presiding over the coffee urn, as she often has in days past; Mrs. Alexander Kirkpatrick poured the cocoa, and Mrs. J. C. Connell cut the ices. Among the girls from town who were there were Miss Mona and Miss Phyllis Knight, the Misses Fairlie, Miss Kathleen Richardson, Miss Kathleen Saunders, Miss Eleanor and Miss May Macdonnell, Miss Frances Sullivan and Miss Marion Rodden, Miss Elsie Pense, Miss Alice and Miss Muriel King, Miss Bessie and Miss Eva Richardson, and Miss Kate Smellie.

Mrs. Walter Macnee gave one of the pleasantest of luncheon parties, on Monday, over at the Country Club. The guests of honor were Mrs. R. T. Walkem and Mrs. C. W. Drury, the other members of the party making up the fourteen being Mrs. E. T. Taylor, Mrs. T. D. R. Hemming, Mrs. Iva Martin, Mrs. John Bell Carruthers, Mrs. Frederick Brownfield, Mrs. James Gildersleeve, Mrs. James Cappon, Mrs. Hiram Calvin, Miss Lois Saunders, Miss Eleanor Macdonnell and Miss Lily Norton-Taylor. Some of the party dined at a game of bridge, three tables being in play, and luckily and happily the prizes went to the two guests of honor and to Mrs. Drury's hostess, Miss Macdonnell.

The wind and the rain and the "weather" turned out yesterday, failed to keep people from going out to see Mrs. James Farrand Pringle in all her dignity of matronhood. The bride wore a pretty gown of pale blue, on princess, with a border woven in the material, and she had a warm greeting for all her old friends. In the dining-room, Mrs. R. W. Rayson made tea and Mrs. Herbert Horsey poured the coffee. A number of girls helped in dispensing refreshments, several being pressed into service owing to the number of visitors there were.

Mrs. Hiram Calvin, King street, gave a tea on Saturday, with Mrs. Adam Shortt as the reason for the tea, which was dispensed in the drawing room. Miss Lois Saunders and Miss Anna Leslie assisting her. Among the guests were Mrs. Norton-Taylor, Mrs. P. Brownfield, Mrs. R. T. Walkem, Mrs. B. Waldron, Mrs. Thomas Tandy, Mrs. H. Tandy, Mrs. J. Herbert Saunders, Mrs. John Waddell, Mrs. J. S. Turner, Miss Fanny Ferguson, and Miss Helen Fraser.

Mrs. James Weir, Alfred street, gave one of her pleasant at homes on Friday afternoon of last week. The guests numbering about thirty. They were seated at quartette tables and refreshments were served by Miss Samuela, Miss Cox, Miss Balfour and Miss Weir, daughter of the hostess. The room was profusely decorated with beautiful flowers, and the afternoon was very enjoyable.

The senior bridge club met at Mrs. Norman Leslie's, Bagot street, last night, the "outsiders" invited being Mrs. R. T. Walkem, Mrs. C. W. Drury, Mrs. J. James Gildersleeve, Miss Eleanor Macdonnell, Miss Bessie Gordon, Mr. Angus Macdonnell, and Mr. C. Cobbitt.

Miss Lillian Birley and Miss Mabel Marshall left, on Monday, for Greenville, Sask. A number of their friends were at the station to wish them good-bye.

Mrs. James Cappon, Barrie street, will entertain at tea, to-morrow, in honor of Mrs. Adam Shortt, Mrs. Walkem and Mrs. Drury.

WHERE RECENT MASSACRES OCCURRED.

Beirut, April 28.—The Armenian population of Antioch and the vicinity has been practically wiped out in the massacres of the last few days by fanatical Moslems. There are thousands of destitute Armenian widows and orphans still in the district, unable to get away. There is no security anywhere in the vicinity of Antioch. The situation at Alexandretta continues critical. Beilan is still holding out against the tribesmen that surround it. Beirut is quiet as yet, but there is great tension between the Christian and the Moslem populations. Troops are arriving here and the authorities are taking energetic measures for the preservation of order. Many people are leaving Beirut for the Lebanon. The British cruiser Diana came into port today.

STARVING IN A CAR

LOCKED UP WITHOUT FOOD OR WATER.

Was on Way to Kingston—Climbed in at Chicago and Fell Asleep—Was Taken Out Half Dead at Elmira, N.Y.

Elmira, N.Y., April 28.—Locked in a box car filled with barley for four days and nights, without any food or water, Charles Connors, a Canadian, looked like a ghost when he was helped from a Lackawanna train in the local yards, yesterday afternoon, by Lackawanna Detective Gorman and Police Patrolman McCarthy.

Connors had been working in Chicago as a laborer. On Saturday night he had something to eat in Chicago about six o'clock. He went to the railroad yards and climbed into a box car partially filled with barley. He intended going as far as Kingston, Ont., where he has relatives. He fell asleep for a short time and when he found the car had been locked and sealed.

In the meantime the car was taken to Buffalo and started on its final trip to New York. At Bath the brakeman heard hammering and shouting inside the car and reported it to the conductor. When the car door was opened the victim of four days' hardships had to be helped out of the car.

WEDDED IN MORNING.

A Happy Event at Home of Ald. McCartney.

At 10:30 o'clock, on Wednesday morning, one of Kingston's fairest daughters was united in marriage, when Miss Ethel N. McCartney, eldest daughter of Ald. and Mrs. William McCartney, Earl street, was married to Elwin Ira Mooney, of the local Bell Telephone company.

Rev. Charles A. Sykes, pastor of Sydenham street church, officiated. The ceremony was performed in the spacious drawing room, beautifully decorated with white carnations, smilax and potted flowers. The bride and groom stood under a floral canopy, from which was suspended a large bell of flowers.

The young bride looked charming in her director's gown of crepe de Paris, over silk. Her bridal veil, an heirloom, was of real Brussels net, hand embroidered, and was caught in her hair with a wreath of orange blossoms. The bride carried a bouquet of bridal roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Edith McCartney, sister of the bride, wore a handsome director's gown of eolienne over silk. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a handsome gold chain and anytast heart.

John McCartney, brother of the bride, was best man, and dainty little Vixen S. McCartney, sister of the bride, dressed in a simple frock of white embroidered mull, was flower girl. She carried a basket of sweet peas.

Mrs. McCartney, mother of the bride, wore a handsome gown of black tulle over heliotrope taffeta. After the ceremony the guests sat down to the wedding breakfast. The bride wore a handsome brown traveling dress with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Mooney left on the noon train on an extended trip to Montreal, Boston and other cities, followed by the best wishes of all their friends.

Upon their return they will take up residence at 159 Alfred street.

Mrs. J. Smallridge, grandmother of the bride, aged eighty-six years, was present at the wedding. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Adam McKeljohn, Ottawa, and Miss Elizabeth Bridge, Haileybury.

Many beautiful presents were received by the bride, including an handsome cabinet of silver from her two brothers, and a substantial cheque from her father.

ANNUAL MEETING

Of Sunday School Board of Queen Street Church.

The Sunday school board of Queen Street Methodist church met on Tuesday night for the purpose of receiving reports from the various departments and electing officers for the ensuing church year.

Before considering business the workers sat down together and enjoyed a friendly chat at the supper table, over the good things provided by the lady teachers, under the direction of Mrs. W. H. Asseltine.

After supper the superintendent referred to the fact that the school was about to lose the services of Mrs. H. Squire, who for twenty-two years had been associated with the school as a teacher, particularly with the young men's class, now organized as the Young Men's Club. The opportunity was taken to make Mrs. Squire a presentation of books. Hopes were expressed that before long she would be welcomed back. After the presentation the gathering sang "Blest Be The Tie That Binds," with feeling.

The report of the superintendent, treasurer, secretary, librarian and kindergarten departments were read and adopted, showing a year of successful work all round.

It was noted that the library is now one of the best in the city, consisting of 1,134 volumes, for all classes of readers, and in many branches of literature, including also a valuable teacher's reference library. The issue per week averages sixty-five volumes, frequently reaching 100.

On the election of officers for the year, the former workers were all reinstated, Mr. Bateman being added to the number of assistant superintendents. W. H. Warren was elected to the position left vacant by the regretted removal of W. Manhard from the city. The list of officers now remains Superintendent, E. W. Skinner, honorary assistant superintendent, J. A. Gardner; assistant superintendents, Messrs. Joseph Clarke and G. A. Bateman; treasurer, Dr. R. E. Sparks; secretary, W. H. Warren; assistant secretary, W. S. Gordon.

Miss L. Lambert, librarian, Capt. R. C. Bateman, superintendent primary department, Miss M. Meek; superintendent kindergarten department, Miss M. Day.

Before the conclusion of the business, a resolution of appreciation of the splendid service rendered to the church by W. H. Sparling during his pastoral term, was moved by G. A. Bateman, seconded by the superintendent, regret being expressed that this would be the last occasion on which Mr. Sparling would preside over the Sunday school board as pastor. The resolution was carried with enthusiasm, and the meeting closed with the benediction.
