WATERTOWN, N.Y., COUPLE WERE HONORED.

House Filled With Unexpected Guests on the Golden Anniversary of the Marriage of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Shannon.

Watertown, N.Y., May 14.—Surprised by a number of friends and neighbors, who dropped in to offer their congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Shannon, living at No. 373 Flower Avenue East, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, on Tuesday night, with more elaborateness than was thought of during the earlier hours of the day. Though there had been no definite arrangements toward a gathering at the Shannon home, it so happened that the very few minutes some neighbor or friend would drop in and before long the elderly couple were receiving the best wishes of a room full of friends. During the evening a purse of gold was presented, along with several other gifts, as tokens of the love and esteem with which they are regarded.

A half century ago Mr. Shannon, a successful merchant, journeyed to Napam, Ont., and there married Miss M. J. Crystle. The young couple came directly to Watertown as a part of their honeymoon, settling upon the same street where they have lived continuously for fifty years. Mr. Shannon's life has been a busy one. For many years he was connected as a contractor with the firm of Moffett, Haskins & Clark, and planned many prominent jobs, which at this day show how well the work was done. Two children were born to them, Dr. G. H. Shannon, of Cambridge, who, with Mrs. Shannon, was present last night, and Mrs. Frederick Wilson, who, with her husband, resides with her parents.

THE WHIG'S JUMBLE

Tells About a Lot of Things in General.

Bibby's $15 suits are swell. Better a stove in the house that smokes than a peevish man. Best $2 hat in the city. Livingston's special.

Repairing and upholstering attended to at James Reid's. It's easier for a rich man to know his enemies than his friends. "Buy Abby salt" at Gibson's Red Cross drug store. It's fresh there. Don't leave slander lying around where it will twist the tongue of gossip.

Progress Brand clothes. Livingston's. A man may know his wife like a book, but he can't shut her up like one. New spring hosiery. Livingston's. Buy spring tonic and blood purifier at Gibson's Red Cross drug store. Fresh there. Bibby's $15 suits are special.

A man doesn't always go in the right direction when he follows his inclination. Brussels and tapestries carpet squares, at James Reid's. We're determined to have the best $15 suits in Canada and we've got them. The H. D. Bibby Co. Just because a man is no better than he ought to be is no sign that he isn't worse.

"Fresh on Friday," McConkey's high class sweets at Gibson's Red Cross drug store. Phone 230. New green hats, Livingston's. Others may make you happy, but you make the most of your unhappy ones.

Bibby's $15 suits are elegant. The man who makes up his mind to do nothing soon discovers that there's a awful lot to do. Phone 147 and have your furniture repaired at James Reid's. You can always flatter a woman by asking her opinion of something she knows nothing about.

Bibby's suits fit perfectly. About the only way to give a man to keep out of debt is to give his wife all the money she needs. "Cedar camphor" will protect your furs. Buy it at Gibson's Red Cross drug store. The strong kind is sold there. See Bibby's special $15 suits. Anyway, the chap who thinks he knows it all doesn't know a lot that is said of him behind his back. Don't gloves. Livingston's. The man who marries a garrulous woman for her money soon begins to realize the fact that money talks. See Bibby's $15 blue suits. Don't boast because you have never been in jail. Possibly the officers of the law were not on to their job. See Livingston's 50c neckwear. Twenty-five new books for the Tabard Inn library received on Friday at Gibson's Red Cross drug store. During the month of May life membership for $1.

The World Needs You. By D. Still. The world needs leaders, but it also needs you. For on this old globe there's a part for each one to play. And though humble your station, it counts just the same. Holding a balance of power in the world's great day. Don't grumble or fret because you have not wealth. Because you're not listed with those of world fame. Be content with the work God allotted you to do. For there's riches beyond measure in the work of His name. Do cheerfully the little things, they are the sunshine of life. Kind words and kind acts toward fellow-man. The world may not praise you, but God will approve. In the end you will be winner, doing best that you can.

Blind Will Teach The Blind. Mary Adams, a blind girl, eighteen years old, living with her sister at 542 Jackson street, is one of the orphans under guardianship of the county court who has "shown" Judge Carpenter that she possesses real musical talent, and has been granted an allowance from her father's estate to pursue her musical studies. "Her rendition was excellent," said Judge Carpenter, "and I was glad to grant the petition and allow her to pursue her studies." It is Mary's ambition to become a teacher of music for the blind.
