WORK AT THE Y.M.C.A.

MUCH PROGRESS NOTED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING.

When Reports For the Year Were Presented By the Officers-The Members Elected on the Board of Management.

The annual meeting of the Y.W.C.A. was held, Thursday night, in the rooms, on Johnson street. Rev. Dr. McGilivray occupied the chair, and conducted the devotional exercises.

Reports of the different departments of work were given by Mrs. H. W. Snelling and Miss M. Dutton showing good work had been done during year. Over two hundred young women have been reached and helped by the association. The educational classes have been well attended, and especially the gymnasium, where about one hundred members have been enrolled.

The statement was as follows: Receipts, $3,119.64; expenditures, $3, 113.26; balance on hand, $63.38; cost of building, $9,000; amount paid on same, $1,500; leaving a balance on mortgage, $7,500; interest on same, $405.47; total, $7,905.47; furnishing and repairs on present building, $590. 60; balance of account on removal from Princess street, $463.91; total, $1,053.91.

This floating debt of $1,053.91 the board is collecting for and aiming to wipe out.

E. J. B. Pense was the speaker of the evening. He gave a brief outline of the work done by the Y.W.C.A. in Canada, mentioning the fact that the association formed a chain from Halifax to Vancouver. He also spoke of the large amount of money the Hamilton association had raised, some $33,000. In speaking of the work of the Kingston association he spoke in a hopeful and encouraging manner. He complimented the ladies on the procuring of the present building, as no other available property was so suitable. He urged the ladies to ask the public for larger things, in order to remove the present debt and put the association on a good working basis.

Mr. Pense was particularly pleased with the attempt being made to interest the children, in beautifying the grounds, and felt that it was setting an example in the right direction. The convenor of the nominating committee presented the names of the following ladies for election and the new board of management. These were unanimously elected:

The following were elected members for one year: Mrs. Leslie McLoxick, Mrs. Sutherland, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Stephenson, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. McClelland, Mrs. McCallum, Miss Clark, Miss Machar, Miss Massie, Miss Cochrane.

PATRIOTIC CHILDREN

HOLD HEARTY EMPIRE DAY CELEBRATIONS.

The Note of Loyalty and Patriotism Sounded in the Schools-The Children Were Addressed By Leading Citizens.

Empire day in the city schools was fittingly observed to-day. Flags floated from all the school flagpoles, while the interiors were decorated as befitting the occasion. The following reports tell what was done by the various schools:

Frontenac School. In the matter of patriotism, Frontenac school will not take a second place. The doings there to-day were of a very hearty and inspiring nature—a fitting climax to weeks of preparation, during which the routine of school life was broken by the intermingling of patriotic songs and recitations. Patriotism has been in the air, reaching even to the kindergarten, where the little tots were getting their first lessons in love of country and loyalty to the king.

To-day the ordinary school lessons, as far as possible, were treated of citizen ship, Canada, the empire, and the king. In most of the rooms, the afternoon began with a programme consisting of exercises appropriate to the day. Then at 2.45 o'clock, the school assembled in the lower hall, where they were addressed by Messrs. T. F. Harrison and R. B. Nelles. The pupils added their share to this more public celebration, and thus about three-quarters of an hour was spent, pleasantly as well as profitably.

At Depot School. The pupils of the Depot school showed their loyalty in their songs, recitations and general appearance. J. R. Donaldson, chairman of the school, gave an interesting address on "Empire Day," from which the pupils derived pleasure as well as knowledge. The pupils sang heartily, several patriotic songs; solos were given by Clara Harrison, Della Hutchison and Irene Jarvis; recitations by Carson, J. Harmer, Florence Abbott, Rena Cartwright, Rita Wolfe and Lillian Elliott, followed by the national anthem.

In Louise School. Promptly at nine o'clock, the pupils massed in the yard and loyally saluted the flag as it was raised over the building. They were then dismissed to their classrooms, where instruction about the British empire, its size, extent, importance, trade relations, etc., was given by their teachers.

In the afternoon, all again assembled in the principal's room, where a programme, consisting of songs, recitations and musical selections were given. Prof. A. Laird of the Royal Military College, presided, and gave a stirring address on "The Spirit of Imperialism."

The following pupils took part: Recitations by Murray Sykes, Helen Duff, Ruth Henderson, Hylda Laird, Gordon Cornett, Phyllis Coates, James Elmer; songs by Evelyn McCartney, Bertha White, Anita Sutherland, Mary Strange, Lily Gould, Albert Milner, Violet Woodrow; orchestra, by Fred Wilmot, Walter McIlquham, Albert Milner.

In Rideau School. All the classes met in the principal's room. The chairman of the school being confined to his home through illness, Dr. Richardson, a member of the committee, kindly consented to take his place. Mayor Couper gave an address and by special request a patriotic song. The following programme was given in addition to the usual exercises: Recitation, "Canada Forever," Marjorie Gunn; recitation, "The Flag Above the Schoolhouse Door," Jean Waller, Helen Gunn and Florence Goodman; recitation, "The Flag," John McEwen; recitation, "The Bird's Song," Helen Davy; recitation, "The Colors of The Flag," Kenneth Dunlop, Helmer, Mrs. Lear and Ronald Metcalfe; recitation, "Kipling's Recessional," third class; recitation, "Empire First," Gladys Hunter; song, "Dear Little Violets," Gladys Saunders; song, "The National Flag," Evelyn Freeman; song, "The Blue Birds," Anna Saunders; song, "The Children's Song," by Kipling.

Cataragui School. In Cataragui school at nine o'clock this morning, all the classes gathered on the school grounds, where they saluted the flag as it was raised to float over the building for the day. At two o'clock in the afternoon they again assembled, this time in the principal's room, where the pupils had the pleasure of hearing Miss Machar talk to them for a few minutes. The chairman of the school, F. R. Anglin, also gave a short address. The school gave the following programme of choicest and recitations:

"Chorus, 'The Maple Leaf' recitation, 'Canada,' Grace Poole; recitation, 'In Future Time,' Joseph Beswick; chorus, 'Rule Britannia,' recitation, 'England,' Willie Steers; recitation, 'Made In Canada,' Boulab Meggs; chorus, 'The Flag Of Britain,' recitations, 'The Englishman,' Frederick Dymall; 'The Scotchman,' Sophia Baine; 'The Irishman,' Edith Dunlop; chorus, 'The Native Born,' recitation, 'Canada,' Robert Todd, Charles Gray, Cecil Whitmore and Howard Byron; recitation, 'Colors Of The Flag,' George Clarke, James Childs, Harold Kennedy, Frank Vankoughnet; recitation, 'Canada Over All,' Frederick Bryan, James Perlin, John Orr; chorus, 'Red, White and Blue,' recitation, 'A Royally Kept Promise,' M. Bingham.

At Central School. Empire day was duly observed by pupils of the kindergarten. Under the direction of Miss E. Norris the children had an interesting conversation about "Our country and its people." The drills, games and songs chosen for the forenoon were also very appropriate and were thoroughly enjoyed.

In the primary classes the teachers gave interesting talks about Canada and Great Britain, using pictures to illustrate many objects of interest. The senior classes had formed lessons upon the history and geography of

FRONTENAC TEACHERS

MEET IN CONVENTION AT COURT HOUSE.

Dr. Spankie Points Out the Need of More Libraries in the County Schools—Officers Elected—Other Addresses Given.

The first meeting of the Frontenac teachers' convention was held at the court house, on Thursday afternoon, at 1.30 o'clock. There was a good attendance, about seventy-five members being present. Dr. Spankie presided. After roll call, Dr. Spankie delivered an interesting and instructive address to the teachers. He laid stress on the decorations of the schools, both inside and outside, saying that flowers and hedges should be planted around the school grounds.

After this address, Prof. John Marshall, of Queen's, delivered an interesting discourse on the teaching of literature that was full of good points for the young teachers. He read numerous pieces to illustrate his lecture.

At four o'clock, a business meeting was held, when the following officers were elected: President, J. Barnett; vice-president, Miss L. Barclay; secretary-treasurer, J. C. Davidson; delegate to O.E.A., M. Shurtleff; committee, J. McAllister, Miss Berry, Miss C. Wood and Miss Pyke; auditors, Miss Hughes and C. Cosgrove.

In the evening the teachers met in Queen's biological building, where Dr. Sinclair, of McDonald College, Montreal, gave an address on color study, which was nicely illustrated.

This morning, after roll call, the members listened to an interesting address from Dr. S. B. Sinclair, on "The Teaching of Arithmetic." The lecture was interesting and instructive, as much ground was covered by the speaker, and many good points brought out. Dr. Sinclair is a fine speaker, and has a way of bringing his points forcibly home to his hearers. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered him for his kindness.

After this address the teachers went to Queen's Medical College, where they listened to another interesting address by Dr. James Third, on "Some Nervous Diseases of Children." Dr. Third told of many forms and developments of nervous trouble, and how they could be avoided and treated. His address had many facts that will be of great use to his hearers and of benefit to the scholars who come under their care. The teachers were indeed fortunate in hearing such an able address from Dr. Third.

This afternoon, two lectures were given, one on "New Psychology and New Education," by Dr. S. B. Sinclair, and one on "Penmanship," by T. M. Stockdale.

Canada, the vast extent and resources of the dominion, its industries, the struggles of the early inhabitants, the prosperity of the present, our government, our duties and privileges as citizens, and our relation to the empire to which we belong.

In the afternoon the exercises were varied by the introduction of several solos, recitations and choruses. It had been intended to have all the classes of this school unite and give an interesting programme of solos, drills, recitations and choruses in the city hall, but this plan had later to be abandoned and the programme changed accordingly.

Orphans' Home School. The Empire day celebration took place in the school-room, gay with bunting, and flags. Every boy and girl had his and her own Union Jack. They were full of patriotism. The school rang with national songs, "Chant National," "A Song of Canada," "Rule Britannia," and "The Maple Leaf" were the choruses. Seven boys sang "The Flag We Love," with flags and actions. Recitations were given by the following boys and girls: Freda Johnston, "Made in Canada"; John Geake, "The Colors of the Flag"; Eddie Mullen, "The Men of the Northern Zone"; Arthur Neilson, "My Canada."

Robert Meak was chairman and Rev. Mr. Savary, Rev. Mr. Shaver, Archdeacon MacMorine were present, and their addresses to the boys and girls lifted their young hearts to higher and purer ideals of national aims. The celebration closed with singing the flag and cheering for our king and country.

At Sydenham School. The exercises at this school consisted of the following: Opening address, Eldred Lane; recitation, "Forward," Russell Franklyn; chorus, "Red, White and Blue," school; recitation, "Here's to the Land," Gerald Muirhead; French recitation, Roland Le Claire; solo, "Lest We Forget," Winthrop Sears; chorus, "Canada First and Forever," school; recitation, "Ye Mariners of England," Gordon Young; diet, Norma Tegmann and Marjorie Minnes; recitation, "The Union Jack," Winthrop Sears; chorus, "Raise the Flag," school; recitation, Howard Scrutton; flag drill, eight children of Junior Part I; recitation, "Canada Over All," Alan Hamilton; chorus, "Rule, Britannia," school; recitation, "Empire Children," second class; violin solo, Norma Tegmann; recitation, "Canada's Proud Position," Courtland Elliott; recitation, "The Flag Above the School House Door," Edna Chown; chorus, "Hail to the Land," school; recitation, "Kingston Volunteers," school; recitation, Flora Maclean; chorus, "Men of the North," boys; recitation, "Children of the Empire," Winthrop Sears; recitation, "The Colors of the Flag," Stuart Toland; solo, "Japanese Love Song," Eldred Lane; recitation, "Boys of Our Empire," Alma Stafford; recitation, "When I Grow Up," George Kirkpatrick; chorus, "The Maple Leaf," school; saluting the flag, school; "God Save the King," school.

Trustee James Henderson also gave an address.

"Puzzle Mad" is a lovely comedy. There are two vocalists, Alfred Davis and Daisy Bruton.

To Have A Picnic. A meeting of the Retail Grocers' Association was held in the Board of Trade rooms, on Thursday evening, with only a fair attendance.
