VICTORIA DAY EVENTS COMPLETE PROGRAMME IS GIVEN.

Military Review and Parade in the Morning—A Day of Splendid Entertainment Arranged For the Citizens.

The general committee meeting of the Victoria Day celebration was well attended on Friday evening and now all is complete except some minor details. The men in charge of the different departments have taken hold with the result that every one is remarkable well pleased and everything is running fine. The programme is practically completed but some small changes may be made in it. Mayor Couper presided at the meeting. The morning events were fixed as follows:

- 9:15—Automobile parade. 9:30—Motor boat races. 10:30—Lacrosse match, cricket field. 11:30—Military parade. 11—Marathon race.

The automobile parade is the first thing in the morning for numerous reasons. The cars will all meet at a point down town and go to the Orphans' Home, where they will take on the children. They will then go over the following course: Union street to Livingston avenue, to King, to Queen, to Brock, to Wellington, to University avenue, to the home. This will give the children a good long drive around the principal streets and will give them a fine chance to see anything that is going on around the city. Each child will be provided with flags and bunting by the automobile club.

The motor boat races commence at 9:30 o'clock from the Martello tower, in front of the city buildings. The races will be around a triangular course, from the tower to Garden Island, to Macdonald Park, to the tower. There will be four events and all will be interesting. Handsome cups have been given and many fast boats have entered.

At 10:30 o'clock the lacrosse match will begin at the cricket field between Brockville and Kingston. The military parade route is given elsewhere. The troops will assemble at Barrieffield, and after the review will return for the parade of the city, about eleven o'clock.

The Marathon race will start and finish at the Market Square. The start will be made at eleven o'clock sharp. The course will be from the Market Square to Princess street, straight out to the five-mile house, and return. The road has been carefully measured off and every mile is marked. So far there are twenty-five entries and nearly twice that number are expected before the pistol is fired. The following judges were appointed: Starter, W. F. Nickle; judges, John Morris, Ald. Hart, Ald. Robertson; medical examiner, Dr. Hanley; judges of the course, W. Beaunce and Con. Millan. Everything is arranged for this race.

Afternoon At Fair Grounds.

- 2—Baseball match. 2—Horse races. 2:30—Mounted military sports. 2:30—Auto sports.

The above programme was blocked out for the afternoon events and is a good one. At two o'clock the horse races will commence, there being four events to run off, the 2:14 class, 2:20 class, 2:35 class and named race. They will all likely fill.

The United States soldiers will be quartered at the hotels around the city and this will all be attended to before they arrive. The Fourteenth regiment will meet the Yankee troops on their arrival from Cape Vincent Sunday at one o'clock, after attending service in Sydenham street Methodist church. The civic celebration committee is composed of Mayor Couper, Ald. Kent, Carson, Ross, Hart and Nickle, W. C. Martin, United States Consul VanSant and W. R. Givens. The visitors will be royally entertained while in the Limestone city.

The above is the main programme of events as it stood after the committee meeting but some changes may be needed. Many items were fully discussed and everything was given the fairest consideration before it was adopted. Everything is being

DISTINCTIVE PAPERS USED BY MERCHANTS FOR THEIR PARCELS.

McKelvey & Birch Have the Most Unique of An Agate Type—What Several Other Business Houses Use.

Piled up in the Kingston & Pembroke station almost any Thursday afternoon may be seen a large collection of goods purchased by the excursionists who come in during that day from all points along the railway. It indicates that considerable business is done with the merchants but what strikes one most in looking at the collection is a distinctive colored paper which wraps up some of the goods purchased. It was a blue mottled paper, resembling agate ware, and on enquiry it was found that McKelvey & Birch owned the paper, and that they took this means of advertising. It certainly was most effective.
