TO CENTRAL PRISON FOR NINE MONTHS FOR TRYING TO SELL

Goods Stolen From the Locomotive Works—Howard Gray Sentenced—Daniel O'Connell Also Before the Court.

At the police court Wednesday morning two cases were up for consideration. The first case called was that of Howard Gray, charged with stealing thirteen copper bars from the Canadian Locomotive company on November 29th, 1907. J. McD. Mowat appeared for the defendant and Crown Attorney Whiting for the prosecution. No evidence was taken in the case. Mr. Mowat said that the goods were not stolen by Gray, but he pleaded guilty to his trying to sell them. In reply, Mr. Whiting said that the goods were stolen, he did not know by whom, and Gray was caught in the act of trying to sell them.

In passing sentence the magistrate said the prisoner was very careless, and he could not see how a man who was innocent would clear out when he saw a policeman. "Nine months in Central prison," said his worship.

Daniel O'Connell was charged with assault on Charles Henry Stevens and pleaded guilty. Stevens, a young English chap, was sworn, and said he was night porter at the Brunswick hotel, and on Tuesday afternoon was chased by O'Connell and hit over the head with a club, inflicting a nasty gash.

O'Connell said he pleaded guilty to being drunk but not to assault, and was fined $1 and costs. The magistrate told O'Connell the best thing he could do was to get out of town.

Rural Mail For Moscow.

Moscow, May 26.—The stage to Kingston was loaded with pleasure-seekers on the 24th. Miss Ruth Lamplins visited Mr. and Mrs. C. Bogart, Napane, a couple of days this week. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Aselstine spent Sunday in Sydenham. Contractors have commenced work on J. Kerr's new house. Mail boxes for five rural deliveries are being erected between here and Bellrock. F. P. Johnson has added to the efficiency of his store by the installation of a cold storage plant. A number of men here attended the funeral of the late Mrs. C. D. Wagar at Enterprise last week.

Would Not Prosecute Tolstos.

St. Petersburg, May 26.—Nicolai Selden has been sentenced to six months in the fortress on the charge of having published Count Leo Tolstoy's "Thou Shalt Not Kill," and other political pamphlets. The magistrates refused to prosecute Count Tolstoy, who wrote a letter declaring that Selden was a passive offender, and invited the prosecution of himself.

Two Killed In Auto Accident.

Stockton, Cal., May 26.—Mrs. Warren Jones, wife of a wealthy farmer, and the three-year-old son of her sister, Mrs. Isaac Robinson, lost their lives in an automobile accident yesterday. They were drowned when the automobile overturned in two feet of water. Mrs. Robinson was saved from drowning by her daughter, a child of eight who held her head above water until she was rescued.

Dominion Annuities Fund.

Ottawa, May 26.—The income of the dominion annuities fund has now reached $113,000. Purchasers of annuities are from points all over the dominion, and it is remarkable that very many of them are from distant places, such as Dawson and the Yukon generally. Applications in hand will double that revenue.

THE SOFT WAY A YOUTH COUGHED UP.

In Detroit Looking For Something to Invest In—Said, He Had Made a Good Shot and Won Money—Had to Show a Similar Amount.

Detroit, May 26.—Earle Young, a youth from Lexington, Ont., is short $520 as a result of too much confidence in newly-made acquaintances. Young became heir just two days ago, having received five hundred dollars as a share of his deceased father's property. He came to Detroit, yesterday, in search of something in which to invest the money. On the street he met a man who led him to a pool room, on Hastings street, where they induced him to play. He was told he had won five hundred and twenty dollars by a shot he made, but must show a similar amount before he could get his winnings. He put the money in the hands of one of the gang, all of whom immediately disappeared.

Queer Pronunciations.

Manchester Guardian.

The note on the mispronunciation of the names of the places in England that puzzle the stranger. Habbisburg, in Norfolk, for instance, is pronounced Hazeboro, Abergevany simply drops a syllable and becomes Abervenny, and it is alleged that St. Nepts sounds like Snots. Anything else, Cirencester seems to vary from Sister to Sizer. In Suffolk Waldringfield in Wunnerful and Chelmondiston Chimston, while in the adjoining county of Norfolk Hunstanton is Hupston, and in the west county Badgeworthy is Badger. In the Greenwood Huntingdonshire claims the purest English, but they call Papworth Parpor. And not far away is another village of beauty. The motorist turned upon a rough road and asked the intelligent laborer where it would take him. "That road," said the honest countryman, winning his brow, "will take you to 'Ell, sir." The courageous motorist went on, and found Elsworth, which is pronounced Elser.

An Embarrassing Position.

Chicago News.

A young fellow in Bloomington, Ill., who has been devoting himself for some years to a young woman of that town, recently found himself in a most embarrassing situation, just as he had taken his courage in both hands and was "going to ask the girl."

"Harriet," said he, as he shifted his feet uneasily and swallowed the lump in his throat, "I'm anxious to have you—"

"Yes, Mr. Hummer," gently interposed the young woman, by way of encouragement.

"Well—er—Harriet," he again began, with increasing nervousness, "I'm anxious to have you—"

Just then both parents of the young lady entered the room where the lovers sat.

"Oh, Mr. Hummer," said the desperate girl, "what was it you were just telling me?"

The Week At Wilton.

Wilton, May 25.—The public school pupils held a public picnic in Miller's grove, Victoria day, when an enjoyable afternoon was spent. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Smith and two children the Misses M. and K. Smith, Napane, spent the 24th with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Neilson. Miss Rose Babcock is visiting her brother, J. W. Babcock, Miss F. Caton, Odessa, visited friends in Wilton last week. Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius, Kingston, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon, Mississippi, and Hugh McKinnon, Perth, drove out to M. G. Storms, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. M. G. Storms went to Kingston to-day, for a few days. Miss Sarah Lake spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Erwell Miller.

Lutherans Secede.

Toronto, May 26.—The members of the Lutheran church in Central Canada, who have up till the present time formed part of the western conference, which include the state of New York, consider that they are now able to stand alone and the first Evangelical Lutheran synod of Central Canada will be held here to-morrow.

BUDGET FROM CONWAY.

Lively Interest Over Erection of a School Building.

Conway, May 25.—Farmers are nearly through plowing and road work is the order of the day. A stone crusher passed through this vicinity from Kingston, and is operating on No. 11 Road. Service in the Methodist church on Sunday evening was conducted by Rev. Fraser Bell. A large congregation was present. Miss Pearl Moon and Mr. Miller sang a beautiful alto and tenor duet, while Mrs. J. W. Spearling presided at the organ. Mrs. Edward Morrow is very low, with no hopes of recovery. The Ladies' Aid met at Mrs. Frank Van Dyck's, on Thursday afternoon. They intend giving a ice cream social. George Switzer made a bee on Saturday to pull down his barn. He intends rebuilding upon a cement wall. Rumor says there are to be new cement steps in front of the church.

Great excitement has been created over the erection of a new cement block school house; finally a settlement has been reached, and Mr. Harvey Desrosiers, has been given the contract for building. The many friends of Mrs. Conrad Sills will be pleased to learn that she is speedily recovering from her severe illness. Mr. Gordon, of Bath, is painting at R. Wright's. George Chalmers, at Alexander Sills'. John Moon, with friends in Parma, Mr. and Mrs. Rev. Fraser Bell, of New York, spending a vacation with her father, James Hogaboom; Mrs. Wright has gone to Port Hope. Miss Pearl Moon, of Sydenham, at James Moon's; Miss Preston, of Bath, at George Wright's; Miss Jennie C. Phippen spent Friday with friends in Newburgh; H. Rutman, at W. Wilson's; W. Tibbitt, at W. Gallo way's; I. Higgins and J. Rutman, at J. Carroll's; Archibald and Robert Wright spent the 24th in Picton. Miss Martha Neilson has returned to Tarry Hall, to spend the summer. Miss Pearl Moon and George Gurren, Sandhurst, spent Friday evening at J. Spearling's. Miss Laura Meyers and Arthur Galt, of Hawley, paid Conway a flying visit on Wednesday evening. Edward Phippen has built an addition to his factory, which makes a marked improvement. Fletcher Young & Co. are very busy erecting wire fence in our neighborhood. Miss Taverner Dorland was in Conway, on Wednesday, in company with Mrs. Van Dyck.

HOW HE SUCCEEDED.

Reporter Who Was Sent to Interview General Booth.

Toronto Star.

Hearing of the birthday celebration of General Booth a member of the Star staff became reminiscient. "About twenty years ago," he said, "I was a reporter on the Globe, and General Booth was visiting Canada—for the first time, I think—and the Globe wanted him interviewed. As he was to arrive in Toronto rather late at night I was instructed to go to Hamilton and interview him on his way to Toronto.

"Here I became vividly impressed with the truth that to interview a man successfully you must know something about his favorite topic. On the subject of Salvation Army work I was in a state of woeful ignorance. Luckily there was a little time for preparation. It was Saturday. The interview was to be on Monday night. Walking pensively up Yonge street, I stopped at Brinell's bookstore, and was idly turning over a lot of volumes marked at some phenomenally cheap price, when my eye caught the title on a paperback book, 'Life and Work of General Booth.' Not to buy it was to fly in the face of Providence. I took it home and spent several hours in turning the whole book into interrogative form. Wherever the author—I think it was the General himself—made a statement I prepared an examiner's brief of about fifty questions.

"The general was most polite and willing to give information. Whenever I asked a question he gave me the answer in the book. He appeared to be astonished at my knowledge of the working of the Salvation Army, not being aware that the knowledge was only one day old. At the meeting that evening he jocularly remarked that he had little to say because a reporter hid met him at Hamilton and pumped him dry."

SPLIT THE CONTRACTS

And Awarded Them Without Asking Tenders.

Montreal, May 26.—The royal commission investigating civic affairs continues to inquire into a couple of contracts for repairs to police quarters at Bonsecours market. The regulations for not granting contracts over $1,000 without tender was over- come in this case by splitting the contract in two. Ald. Proulx was questioned about this matter, to-day, and he admitted responsibility for this procedure and claimed that he was within legal rights in doing so. Chief Campeau was also questioned on the same matter. There were no fresh disclosures.

Buried This Afternoon.

The remains of the late James Brown, drowned on the night of May 24th, were removed, at three o'clock, on Wednesday afternoon, from Corbett's undertaking rooms to Ontario cemetery. It was stated, in the account of his death, that he was a member of the Independent Order of Foresters and was in good standing, but this is a mistake.

The "Hecla" Furnace

And The Wonderful Fused Joints

Do you know what Fused Joints are, and what they mean to every buyer of a Warm Air Furnace? "Hecla" Fused Joints are made by bringing steel and cast-iron together at white heat. The two metals become practically one. The joints they form are permanently tight. In 20 years use, "Hecla" Fused Joints have never once worked loose. They form the one and only furnace joint that won't leak gas or dust. If you want plenty of warm, dry, PURE air—at the minimum cost for fuel, and at the same time want your home absolutely free of gas, dust and smoke—put in a "Hecla" Furnace.

There are dozens of other special features about the "Hecla" that every intending furnace buyer should know. Write for illustrated catalogue. 76

COOK WITH GAS.

READ WHAT CHIEF ELMER SAYS:

To the Manager of the Light Department, Kingston, Ont.

Dear Sir—

I write without solicitation to recommend to one and all to fall in line and use the gas for cooking, washing and ironing. By so doing you will save both time and money. It makes a quick, clean fire with no ashes to empty. Our family consists of nine and this quarter, that is the past three months, cost us $3.00. I trust this testimonial will do some good and influence some people who are prejudiced against the use of gas. We advise all to give it a trial especially in warm weather as there is very little heat from the fire.

Yours truly,
(Signed) JOHN ELMER.
