LOSES ANOTHER SON DROWNING OF A LAD NEAR IVY LEA.

Presentation of Humane Society Medal to T. F. Milne, Gananoque—A Rate War Between Two Passenger Boats.

Gananoque, May 27.—Gananoque was thrown into a flutter of excitement about 7.30 o'clock last evening, when word reached here of the drowning of a young lad some twelve years of age, son of George Robbins, South street, and a younger brother of Selar Robbins, who, with his wife and the victims of the lamentable drowning accident near May Irwin's summer residence a few weeks ago.

The presentation of the medal of the Royal Humane Society to T. F. Milne, commercial specialist of the staff of Gananoque high school, took place at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

There was a goodly attendance, the presentation meeting with popular favor. George Taylor, M.P., made the presentation, and in a few felicitous remarks made known the circumstances of Mr. Milne's heroic rescue of J. E. Lindsay from drowning one night last February, and that this medal stood for the gallant action of a brave man.

Mr. Milne received the token with his usual modesty, and in a few words expressed his thanks for the kindly consideration ever shown him during his period of labor among the people of Gananoque.

The coal schooner Hiram Taber arrived, last evening, from Oswego, with a cargo for the Taylor & Green company, and is unloading, to-day, at the Rathburn wharf.

A rate war has begun here between the rival steamers of the Rockport Navigation company, giving service to Kingston three days a week, and the People's liner Stranger, giving a daily service between this port and Kingston.

Miss Victoria Baker, King street, entertained a number of her young friends in honor of her birthday, last evening.
