Paint? Paint?? Paint???

That is the question whether it is better in the end to suffer the sorrows and disappointments that poor paint will bring, or at the start provide the best that can be bought and end there. There is but one best and that is

SCOURING YOUR SCALP.

Will Remove the Loose Dandruff Scales But It Won't Cure Dandruff.

If your hair is brittle and thinning, you have dandruff. The mere scouring of the scalp of the loose scales, won't cure dandruff, because dandruff is nothing but scales of scalp being thrown up by a poisonous little germ in burrowing its way to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality, causing falling hair and, in time, baldness. Now you can't stop dandruff nor falling hair, nor prevent baldness unless you destroy that germ; and the only preparation that can do it is the new scientific discovery, Newbro's Herpicide. In fact no other hair preparation claims to kill the dandruff germ—all of them will clean the scalp; soap and water will do that, but only Newbro's Herpicide gets at the root of the trouble and kills the dandruff germ.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. One dollar bottles guaranteed. G. W. Mahood, special agent.

DEATH OF WM. MAKINS AN OLD RESIDENT OF THE CITY PASSED AWAY.

Was For Many Years, a Valued Employee at Richardson's Elevator—The Late Mrs. W. Allan.

An old Kingstonian, one who was held in high esteem by his many friends, and who was well-known throughout the city, passed away at six o'clock, on Wednesday morning, in the person of William Makins, of 231 Barrie street. Deceased had been ailing for some time, suffering several attacks of illness, but the last one had only confined him to his bed for about a week and a half. Mr. Makins, for many years, had been employed at Richardson's elevator, and held that position up to the time of his death. Deceased was seventy-three years of age. Four daughters, Misses Hattie, Isabella, Jennie and Wilhelmina, all at home, survive, and they have the sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends. In politics, Mr. Makins was a liberal. He was a member of Cook's church. John Makins, of Lindsay, is a brother of deceased, and is at present in the city. The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, and Rev. Dr. MacFavish will officiate at the services.

The Late Mrs. W. Allen.

The death occurred on Wednesday morning of Mrs. William Allen, at her residence, 242 Alfred street, after being in feeble health for some months. The deceased's maiden name was Sarah Eliza Wood. Her husband the late William Allen, was a well-known citizen of Kingston and was both councillor and alderman in the fifties and sixties. He did such good work in the council for the city that after his death an oil portrait of him was placed in the city hall and remains there to-day. Mrs. Allen was a member of St. Andrew's church. She is survived by four daughters: Mrs. (Rev.) A. D. Menzies and Mrs. (Rev.) K. J. Hutcheon, Toronto; and Misses Sarah and Emily at home. The funeral takes place on Thursday afternoon.

The Late Patrick D. McGuire.

The death was announced on Wednesday of Patrick Dollard McGuire, aged 38 years, who was unmarried, and lived with his mother, Mrs. Robert Colman, 278 Sydenham street. Deceased was a son of the late James McGuire.

Osteopathy is a new and very successful system of treating human ills the underlying principle being that diseases are primarily due to mechanical interference with the functions of the nerves, blood vessels and other tissues, and may be remedied by manipulations to remove interferences, correct misplacements and stimulate or inhibit activity.

Tent Meeting Disturbed.

The Holiness Movement church on Division street is closed now and the meetings are continued in a gospel tent erected on the corner of Elm and Frontenac streets. These meetings are largely attended and great attention is given to the sermons preached by Rev. Messrs. York and Tompkins. There is one lamentable feature in connection with these meetings and that is the congregating of boys and girls around the fence and enjoying themselves in a disturbing manner. If parents will not control these youths a stroll taken by one of the police constables would be an act of appreciated kindness on the part of the Holiness Movement leaders.

Six Acts At The Bijou.

An unusual number of subjects is offered at the Bijou to-day, and to-morrow. "Cast Up By The Sea" is a drama of unusual beauty and heart interest. "My Friend, the Indian" is a drama which would make the most solemn Indian roar with laughter, and which has several new effects. The "Onanibus Taxicab" is a trick comedy in which a dreaming chauffeur accomplishes wonders. "Five Thousand Dollars Reward" is another exciting comedy, in which a number of country people appear in the roles of amateur detectives. "Are You the Man?" tells of a churlish man who made a reckless wager and who suffered many misadventures in consequence. The sixth act is an illustrated song, "Whose Little Girl Are You," sung by James Douglas Rankin.

Sale still continued at "The London," Miss L. Sutherland. New summer goods arriving daily.

ACCIDENT AT PORT HOPE.

Mail Train From Toronto Ran Off The Track.

The Grand Trunk mail train due here at 12:55 p.m., ran off the track west of Port Hope, but few particulars can be obtained. It is said no passengers were killed. No. 4 train, the fast express, took off the passengers and mails and reached Kingston Junction at 2 a.m. A train was started east from Kingston at 12:55 o'clock, so that passengers could make Ottawa connections. At Brockville, the fast express will overtake her and the mails will be transferred to her for places east of Brockville. Passengers from the west arrived at the city depot at 2:45 o'clock, and the most of them were on the last train, and knew very little of the accident. A broken rail was given as the cause of the accident. One report stated that a baggage-man had been injured, but this could not be confirmed.

He was driven into the city for medical attendance. Mr. Purdy was unable to attend the county council session as a consequence, but hopes to be around on Thursday.
