

Nervous People SALT OF THE EARTH

But When Overstrained Their Highly Strung Systems Give Way and Depression and Suffering is Intense.

Money is made these days at the expense of brain and nerve rather than muscular tissues.

The successful men and women are often of the highest strung nervous type—keen and active—but with too little reserve force.

A little extra worry and anxiety and snap goes the nervous system. Weeks and months are often required before energy and vigor are regained.

Rest helps, so does fresh air and exercise, but the blood must also be made rich and red by use of such treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Much as they may disagree on some points, the best physicians are unanimous in claiming that an abundance of rich, red, life-sustaining, nerve invigorating blood is positively necessary for the restoration of the exhausted nervous system.

There is too often little sympathy for the nervous sufferer. When as a matter of fact his sufferings are most intense, being of mind as well as body.

Headaches, neuralgia, indigestion, sleeplessness, irritability, pains and cramps are often the lesser felt because of the depressed spirits and discouragements which come with loss of memory, and gloomy forebodings of the future.

The sufferer from nervous exhaustion and prostration can use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food with positive assurance that the benefits derived therefrom will be both thorough and lasting.

There is no reaction from this great nerve-builder because it is not a stimulant, but a restorative and reconstructor of the wasted nervous system. 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

RISKED HER LIFE HEROIC DEED CROWNED WITH SUCCESS.

Rushed Through Wall of Flame to Rescue Sleeping Child—Escaped by Side Door While Spectators Thought She Was Dead.

Detroit, Mich., June 17.—Fighting her way through a veritable wall of fire, Mrs. Paul Orlovsky yesterday saved her eighteen-month-old baby from being burned to death when a gasoline stove exploded in the kitchen.

Mrs. Orlovsky was ironing when a terrible explosion shook the house. Mrs. Orlovsky dashed into the kitchen. The room was by this time a roaring furnace, but (leaping low) the frantic mother threw herself forward in the direction of the door leading to the dining room, where her baby lay asleep in its cradle. Grabbing the child she ran out through a side door.

By this time Mrs. Victor Smarowski, who occupies one part of the house and was in the front at the time of the explosion, ran screaming to the street. Her cries attracted the attention of several men and boys, who ran to the house. Mrs. Smarowski told them that Mrs. Orlovsky and the baby were in danger. A boy and a man attempted to enter the house, but the flames drove them back to the street.

Then the cry went up that the baby was being burned to death, and hundreds of people flocked to the scene. The street in front of the house is being paved and the fire department had some difficulty in reaching the place from the front. When the firemen arrived hundreds of voices called to them to save the baby.

It did not take long to extinguish the fire, but it was several minutes before it was learned that the mother, crying wildly for joy at having saved her child, was in a barn across the alley, the little mite clasped to her bosom.

The house is owned by Paul Orlovsky. He had his furniture insured for $500 and the house for $1,600. The house was almost destroyed. Victor Smarowski had no insurance. Both families lost most of their household effects.

THOUSAND DOLLARS EACH

Remains of Late Mrs. W. Allen pet Works.

Yonkers, N.Y., June 17.—Three hundred and fifty employees of the Smith Carpet Works, yesterday, received checks for $1,000 each, devised to them in the will of the late Mrs. Eva Smith Cochran, daughter of the carpet shop founder.

Mrs. Cochran, whose son is now the head of the works, died on February 3rd last, leaving an estate of more than $8,000,000, and one section of her will provided that all persons who at the time of her death had been in the employ of the carpet company for a period of twenty years should each receive $1,000 free from all tax.

Since that time lists have been under preparation in the different shops. Yesterday Alexander, Smith Cochran Smarowski had the money had been distributed, but the lists were held in strict secrecy, and those receiving the money were pledged not to speak.

It is learned, however, that many of the recipients of the checks are women employees.

THE BISLEY TEAM.

It Will Sail For England in the Morning.

Montreal, June 17.—The Bisley team, under command of Lieut.-Col. Bertram, and Major Mercier, arrived here, today, with the exception of a few members, who will join the team at Rimouski. This year's team is considered an exceptionally good one, but regret is expressed that Capt. Blay was prevented from going at the last moment.

Brigadier-General Buchan inspected the team at the drill hall, today, and Col. Samuel Hughes, president of the Dominion Rifle Association, and Col. Tilton, chairman of the executive, were present. The team sails at daybreak, to-morrow, on the steamship Tunisian.

HELD UP MINISTER

And Something Will Drop in Constancy.

Toronto, June 17.—An exciting incident took place at the parliament buildings, at noon, to-day. Hon. Mr. Foy, who was late in arriving for the cabinet meeting, called for twelve o'clock, was accosted in the corridor by Herbert Capewell, business manager for Abe Orpen, who conducts the racing meets at the Dufferin Park track, the charter of which the government has decided to suspend.

"Aren't you going to do anything for us?" asked Capewell, holding the attorney-general by the arm.

Mr. Foy answered that he could not do anything, and he could not wait to talk, and threw off Capewell's grasp. Capewell caught the attorney-general by the shoulders, saying, "You will have to."

Mr. Foy once more freed himself, not so gently as before, and entered the council room, Capewell crying out, "All right, you'll hear something drop in South Toronto soon." South Toronto is Mr. Foy's constituency.

DR. ELIOT'S CHOICE

Books on His Five-Foot Shelf Library.

Reading of These Books Will Give the Essentials of a Liberal Education, Says the Harvard Scholar.

Boston, Mass., June 17.—Dr. Chas. W. Eliot has made public a partial list of the twenty-five volumes which constitute his five-foot-shelf library, which he believes will give any man the essentials of a liberal education.

In making choice among the different works of a great author the aim, he says, is to take the author's most characteristic work or that which will be most intelligible to the people of the day.

"It is my belief that the faithful and considerate reading of these books with such re-reading and memorizing as individual taste may prescribe, will give any man the essentials of a liberal education even if he can devote to them but fifteen minutes a day."

The selection as far as have been made follow. It is necessary to explain that several titles are supposed to be bound into one volume:

"Autobiography of Benjamin Franklin." "Journal of John Woolman." "Fruits of Solitude," by William Penn. "Bacon's Essays" and "New Atlantis." Milton's "Areopagitica" and "Tractate on Education."

Sir Thomas Browne's "Religio Medici." Plato's "Apology," "Phaedo" and "Crito." "Golden Sayings" of Epictetus. "Meditations of Marcus Aurelius." Emerson's "Essays." Emerson's "English Traits." The complete poems of Milton. Byron's "Volpone."

Beaumont and Fletcher's "The Maid's Tragedy." Webster's "Duchess of Malfy." Middleton's "The Changeling." Dryden's "All for Love." Shelley's "Cenci." Browning's "Blot on the Scutcheon." Tennyson's "Becket." Goethe's "Faust." Marlowe's "Dr. Faustus." Adam Smith's "Wealth of Nations."

Letters" of Cicero and Pliny. Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress." Bunyan's "Tam o' Shanter." Walton's "Compleat Angler" and "Lives of Donne and Herbert." "Autobiography of St. Augustine." Plutarch's "Lives." Dryden's "Amiel." "Canterbury Tales," by Thomas Jonson of Christ, by Thomas A. Kempis. "Divine Comedy." Darwin's "Origin of Species." Arabian Nights."

FRONTENAC CHEESE BOARD.

Sales Made on the Board on Thursday.

The regular meeting of the Frontenac cheese board was held on Thursday afternoon, with the president, F. W. Vallan, of Cataract, in the chair, and Secretary William Pijlar also present. There was boarded 901 boxes of white and 614 boxes of colored.

The bidding opened at 11c. and closed at 11 1/2c. for colored and 11 9/16c. for white. L. Murphy purchased 255 boxes of colored and 285 boxes of white at these figures and Mr. Alexander secured 37 boxes at 11 1/16c. and 129 boxes at 11 9/16c.

A number of young ladies visited the camp at Barrifield, on Wednesday afternoon, and were royally entertained by the soldiers.

AN IDEAL TOUR

Coast and Yukon-Pacific Exposition.

Because of the fact that the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition is being held in Seattle this year crowds of people from the east will be attracted to the Pacific Coast. In fact many who have long wanted to visit the coast will make an effort to do so this year because of the extra attractions which the west will have to offer and the low rates which have been established; because, too, that many have learned by experience that the personally conducted tour is the ideal way to travel and get the most real enjoyment and value out of a trip many are naturally looking for such a tour. The same has been provided for by the Grand Trunk railway system, and on July 16th a special train party will leave Montreal. The party will be made up of people from New England, Northern New York and Canada and will be composed of teachers, business men and professional men. The fact that the service of this road, which is easily one of the finest equipped railroads in America, is at the disposal of the party, and that the party is to be personally conducted by E. C. Bowler, of Bethel, Maine, who has long since established a reputation of making his tours truly ideal, is sufficient guarantee that those who make this tour will get the tour of a lifetime. No effort has been spared by the railroad or Mr. Bowler to this end, the route from start to finish is the best that can be had between ocean and ocean; every possible detail looking to the comfort and pleasure of the party has been considered, and a rate which seems almost inconsistent with the service has been made. The party will be limited to the capacity of the train, and any desiring to secure accommodation should apply at once for full information to E. C. Bowler, Bonneventure Station, Montreal, Que.

CAUGHT BY ELEVATOR.

Society Woman's Narrow Escape From Death in Detroit.

Detroit, June 17.—Caught between the floor and the top of the gate of a big passenger elevator in the Union Trust building, Mrs. Joseph Tatroe, a well-known society woman of Monroe, hung suspended in the elevator four stories above the ground yesterday until the power of the motors, pressing against her limbs, bent the iron framework outward and released her. Then the unconscious woman dropped to the floor, narrowly missing a plunge to the bottom of the shaft. The elevator boy, Oliver Doyle, who had charge of the car at the time, fell in a dead faint from what he supposed was a real tragedy. The woman is in Grace hospital with both bones of her right leg broken below the knee, thighs and hips terribly lacerated and her back injured. Mrs. Tatroe attempted to leave the elevator quickly just as it started from the fourth floor and before the boy could close the door.

Rookery On Fire.

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 17.—More than 100 Hungarians, men, women and children, living in an old five story river front tenement, fought, in mad panic, for their lives, to-day, when a gasoline explosion on the second floor set the rookery on fire. Fifteen men and women were overcome by smoke, before they could grope their way through the dark hallways. Some ran into the street. Only the bravery and absolute discipline of the firemen and policemen prevented a holocaust. Ten persons were slightly injured. The building was destroyed.

COL. ALEXANDER K. MCCLURE.

Friend of Lincoln and Curtin and one of the noted editors of two generations. Colonel McClure died at Wallingford. He was born in 1828. After achieving a wide reputation as a writer through his connection with newspapers he went to Philadelphia, and in 1875 founded the Times of which he was editor-in-chief for twenty-five years. He was one of the leading exponents of the journalism of the old school, and for years was an active and powerful influence in the state.

TWO FIRES AT DENBIGH.

James McDonald and Henry Bartsch Suffer Loss.

Denbigh, June 15.—On the 8th inst. James McDonald's house was destroyed by fire, with most of the contents, while he was away from home, river driving. He had only built the house six years ago when his former dwelling had also become a prey to the fiery element.

On the forenoon of the 9th inst. the dwelling occupied by Mr. Henry Bartsch also caught fire, while he with most of the neighbors was away doing statute labor. The efforts of a few neighbors, who were promptly on hand, trying to save the building, were unavailing, and they only succeeded in saving part of the contents. Both fires are supposed to have been caused by defective stove-pipes and neither buildings nor contents were insured.

Rev. J. Reble returned on the 10th inst. from Preston, Ont., where he attended the annual session of the Lutheran Synod of Canada, and from Annapolis, where he had left Mrs. Reble visiting with friends. They were greatly but agreeably surprised upon entering the parsonage to find that it had been entered during the reverend gentleman's absence and a set of parlor furniture placed therein as a wedding present from members of his congregation. On Sunday he conducted morning service here and left in the afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. Reble, for Kagan, where he was to hold evening service. To-day he is to make a young couple there happy by uniting them in holy bonds of matrimony, and a number of young people from here also went to witness this enjoyable event and to pay a visit to friends and relatives there at the same time. Among them are Messrs. Herbert Fritsch, Julius Glaeser and William Rahm, and Misses Mary Rahm, Wanda Glaeser, Martha Petzold and Ida Warlich.

J. S. Lane, of the municipality, was in Napanee last week to attend the sessions of the county council.

Charles Fritsch, who bought a farm in New Ontario and made his home there, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Fritsch. He intends to take a span of horses and some milk cows with him when he returns to his present home. His sister Clara, a nurse in training in a New York hospital, is also enjoying three weeks' vacation at her parental home. The cheese factory being built here by Algernon Lane, will be ready for operation in a few days.

An Economical Remedy.

Wade's Ointment is put up in large boxes at a small price. It is cheap in the truest sense because you get for the price a large quantity of a most valuable remedy. Wade's Ointment cures skin affections that many dollars worth of other remedies would probably not cure.

Cures eczema (salt rheum), scaly or itching eruptions of the skin, pimples, blotches, dandruff, etc. In big boxes, 25c., at Wade's drug store.

If a man believes all a woman says—but of course he doesn't, so that settles it.

Don't drug the Stomach, or stimulate the Heart, or Kinneys. That is wrong. It is the weak nerves that are crying out for help. Vitalize these weak inside controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and see how quickly good health will come to you again. Test it and see! Sold by all dealers.
