TENTED IN THE RAIN

WET WEATHER PUT AN END TO DRILL.

The Soldiers Enjoyed Themselves Under Canvas—No Injuries to Volunteers Have Yet Been Reported.

"Oh, the life of a soldier for mine; Oh, the life of a soldier is fine." These were the words that reached the scribe's ears on Thursday afternoon as he walked through the rain on Barriefield Heights, along the different lines, apparently deserted only for the sentry who walked up and down the lines, "with slow and measured tread." The song came from one of the many tents, raised by many strong voices, perhaps not musically perfect, but with the ring of joy and excitement that pervades the entire tented city, among officers and men. The men did not mind the rain on Thursday afternoon. They were all dismissed from drill and rifle practice and were allowed to do as they pleased. Every tent held a picnic party that afternoon, and the sound of string instruments and the latest popular songs could be heard all over camp.

The different regiments were shooting on Thursday before the rain came but it put a stop to everything. The grounds are so well drained that the water that very little water gathered in any of the low places, causing wet boggy ground for the men to walk on. The new pumps are still working to perfection and no cause can be found for any complaint this year about the water.

The Y.M.C.A. tent is the headquarters for many in camp. Here everything is quiet and peaceful and the men can read or write letters. In the evening gospel services are held and they are always largely attended. Mr. Nelles, the local secretary, and Mr. McComb take the services. J. J. Thompson, physical director, is busy at the sporting end of the camp and will have a fine field day before the camp closes.

One of the busiest men in camp is Captain Panet, R.C.I.A., gunnery instructor. He is at work every morning till evening and always is the same courteous officer to soldier and civilian alike.

Trumpeter Albert Wells, 9th brigade, returned to camp on Thursday afternoon from the station hospital. Wells was injured the first day camp opened, at the corner of Ontario and Queen streets.

No accidents have yet been reported at camp, the medical corps having only one or two minor cases of illness to look after.

The officers of the 9th artillery brigade are a busy bunch all day long but are always ready to welcome and royally entertain any visitor within their lines.

The pie men and boys do great business around camp these days. Pies disappear very quickly, especially in the lines of the 16th regiment, for Picton is a town that loves pie just as well as canned goods.

Medical officer to-morrow, Capt. H. Currie, 16th Regiment, is range officer; Lieut. C. A. Young, A.M.C., veterinary officer; Major King, 4th Hussars.

The 49th, 40th, 47th, 16th Regiments and 4th Hussars will have musketry instruction to-morrow.

The time gun is fired by the 9th Artillery Brigade, at reveille and first post.

The chaplain of the regiments meet, this afternoon, to arrange for Sunday services.

MARRIED AND AWAY.

A Kingston Girl to Reside at Engleheart.

On Wednesday, at high noon, a quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mrs. Marshall Greer, Prime street, when her daughter, Miss Kathleen A. Greer, was married to Stanley J. Miller, Engleheart, Ont. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. J. D. Boyd, in the presence of a number of the relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The pretty bride looked charming in her becoming fitness wedding gown, of cream voile over silk. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bride was attended by her little nieces, Kathleen Spooner, gowned in a pretty cream silk dress, carrying a basket of sweet peas.

After the ceremony the guests sat down to breakfast. The bride and groom received the congratulations of their friends. After breakfast the bride absented herself from the merry company, but only for a few moments, when she appeared in her becoming travelling gown of blue broadcloth tailor-made suit, with white net blouse. She wore a smart toque of green foliage.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller left at three o'clock for Toronto and Niagara Falls, after which they will go to Engleheart, where they will reside. Many beautiful presents were received by the bride from friends in and outside the city.

A Frosty June Morning.

June 18th, 1909, will perhaps rank as the coldest day of this summer season. During the night the mercury dropped to 40.9 degrees, about nine above the freezing point. This was the official registration at Prof. Knight's weather observatory. Outside the police station at eight o'clock the thermometer registered forty-four degrees. Out in the country, there was frost early in the morning.

A Small Fire.

Fire, supposed to have been caused by an overheated journal, broke out in Richardson's elevator, about five o'clock, Friday morning, but owing to the prompt work of both the firemen and the night watchman, Robert Cousins, it was checked in the nick of time, with very little damage. Mr. Cousins detected the fire while going on his rounds, and hurriedly sent the call, and the fire was put out with one stream.

Stray Away Horses.

According to a complaint, made to the Whig, some stray-away horses have been playing high jinks around Barrie and John streets, and the residents of that part of the city are asking whether there is a pound kept. Some of the people have been endeavoring to cultivate a nice lawn, and the horses, which have been allowed to ramble around at their own leisure, have made quite a mix-up. Some of the owners of these horses may be called upon to pay damages, if the nuisance is not stopped.

LOOK FOR GOOD CROPS.

Farmers Say Prospects Are Good at Present Time.

"At the present time everything looks good," said a leading farmer of the Kingston district, to the Whig, yesterday, when asked about the crops. And this appears to be the general opinion, too. Yesterday's rain was gladly welcomed by the farmers, and will mean much to them. The frequent showers have kept the meadows in fine shape and the dairy-men are in fine spirits over the fact that there will be a fine crop of grass.

SHELVED ONCE AGAIN

COUNTY COUNCIL BAULKS AT PURCHASE

Of Two of the Toll Roads—A Central Heating Plant Suggested For the Court House and the Jail.

On Thursday afternoon, Councillor Rankin brought before the county council the question of purchasing the Portland, Storrington and Bath roads, for whose purchase there had been petitions received. He said that these roads should be bought up, and the cost distributed among the townships immediately concerned. The Bath Road, however, being wholly in Kingston township, had to be bought by that township itself and arbitrated upon by the township. The other two roads passed through several townships. Councillor Rankin moved, seconded by Councillor Broudale, that the petitions be referred to the toll roads' committee to report at the November session.

Councillor Foley said he was opposed to other townships except those interested paying for these toll roads. Wolfe Island paid for its ferry boat, which was really a road to the island, and Pittsburg had bought up its own roads. Let the other townships do the same. Councillor Foley wanted a committee appointed that would represent all sections of the county, and not leave the matter wholly to representatives of the townships interested. The amendment was carried. Councillor Rankin said this was merely shelving the question. A similar resolution had been passed in January, leaving the matter over till June, and now it went over till the end of the year.

Councillor Rankin moved, seconded by Councillor Thomson, that the amount of stock ($2,000) which the county council held in the Bath toll road, be transferred to Kingston township, on condition that the latter purchase the toll road itself. It was pointed out that the stock was not worth much, and might be given Kingston township as a gift.

Councillor Donaldson said he didn't like to vote either for or against the motion, just at the moment, and suggested that the matter be left over for a day, till the council could think over it. Councillor Rankin withdrew his motion, and a small committee was appointed to get information concerning the stock and report to the council.

Councillor Rankin brought up the question of a central heating plant for the court house and jail. He had consulted Prof. Gill, of Queen's School of Mining, who estimated that a heating plant near the jail would cost under $6,000. Forty per cent. of the fuel now used would be saved. The average yearly cost of fuel for the years 1903 to 1907 was $1,730. Prof. Gill would prepare plans and specifications for $125.

Councillor Rankin moved, seconded by Councillor Foley, that Prof. Gill be engaged to make plans and specifications to be submitted at the November session. It was suggested by Councillor Kennedy that another year be allowed to elapse before anything was done. Let this year's bill be considered. Councillors Rankin and Foley decided to withdraw their motion.

The reeve of Bedford was given authority to have repairs made to the bridges in his township until the November session of the council. A committee was appointed to report upon the application of the local master of the high court for office quarters.

The good roads committee was given full authority over the county engineer.

A deputation consisting of Capt. Gray and Knight, of the 47th Regiment, addressed the council, and asked for a grant of $200 for a marquee for the regiment. On motion of Councillors Donaldson and Miller, the grant was made.

At the Friday morning session of the council, an invitation was read from Dr. H. R. Duff, chairman of the general hospital governors, asking the warden and councillors to honor the CORRIGAN'S.

County Rate Increased.

The township assessment equalization was fixed as follows, the same as for years passed:

Barrie	29,664.00
Bedford	286,314.00
Clarendon and Miller	57,490.00
Garden Island	65,900.00
Kingston	101,022.00
Hinchinbrook	211,258.00
Kingston	1,409,145.00
Kennebec	57,027.00
Loughboro	518,367.00
Oden	135,594.00
Oran	199,277.00
Pittsburg	1,024,866.00
Portland	732,082.00
Storrington	708,848.00
Palmerston, N. & S. Can- onto	63,258.00
Wolfe Island	637,400.00

Heretofore, the consolidated rate has been three and one-third mills, and two-thirds mills for general purposes. An additional rate of one mill was also made for good roads, so that the total tax rate of the county, this year, will be eight and one-fifth mills, an increase of two mills over that of last year.

On motion of Councillors Rankin and Thomson, the roads and bridges committee was appointed to meet the same committee of the Lennox and Addington council, with reference to several small bridges on the counties' boundaries, and given power to act.

It was decided, on motion of Councillors Donaldson and Cronk, to print in the council minutes the schedule of sizes and prices of tile made in the county jail for the benefit of township clerks, so that townships may purchase some of this tile if they desire.

BISHOP MILLS' OPINION.

Writer Agrees But Thinks Cause is Intellectual.

"Observer," writing in the Montreal Herald says:

There are many who will agree with Bishop Mills in his statement that the world is not getting any better, but would ascribe the reason as intellectual rather than moral. The tendency of the age, with all its advantages, of acquiring knowledge of every kind, and the consequent effects that acquirement of the same gives to every discerning and right-thinking person, surely is one of the real causes for indifference to the teachings of any of the "churches' doctrines and creeds. Some one has said the only reason for believing in God, that there is a God, is because the idea of God has been useful. There are, however, many to-day who, as a result of education, free thought and personal contact, and expenses, both in and out of the "church," become indifferent to its teachings, its obligations and commands, with the result that honest men like the "bishop" see and feel the need of something more substantial than mere blind, academic belief.
