

JULY

A N
D

AUGUST

Brock Street Store and Factory will close daily 5 p.m.

Saturday, 1 p.m.

John McKay

TEA SETS

A tea set for a wedding gift is ideal, it means years of lasting remembrance.

Our selection is from the best makers.

WE MENTION ONE AT $3.25.

But the City is Not Allowed to Do the Work.

A five piece set of beautiful design and finish, with the cream and sugar gold lined.

SPANGENBERG
JEWELLER.
MARRIAGE LICENSES.

GROWING IN POPULARITY.

The More People Know Newbro's Hericide The Better They Like It.

The more it becomes known the better it is liked. One bottle sells two, and those two sell four; Newbro's Hericide is what we are talking about. It cleans the scalp of all dandruff, and destroying the cause, a little germ or parasite, prevents the return of dandruff. As a hair dressing it is delightful, it ought to be found on every toilet table. It stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It should be used occasionally, as a preventive to protect the scalp from a new invasion of the dandruff microbe.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamp for sample to the Hericide Co., Detroit, Mich. One dollar-bottle guaranteed. G. W. Maude, st. agent.

A Cosy Home

A home is more cheerful when the little things about the house are kept new and dressy.

Eloor Glaze

is particularly suited for the cozy home, will make things shine, and will last twice as long as any other floor paint. All bright and pretty shades.

$2.00 GALLON.

Also note agent in Kingston for JAP-A-LAC.

W. A. Mitchell's Hardware

CANNOT VISIT ELMIRA

MILITARY CELEBRATION THERE ABANDONED.

On Account of the 14th Regiment Declining Invitation Two Weeks Ago—The Militia Council Makes a Pretty Mess.

The 14th Regiment will not visit Elmira, N.Y., on July 4th and 5th. On Saturday afternoon, Lieut.-Col. A. B. Cunningham received the following telegram from Roy S. Smith, secretary of the Elmira Chamber of Commerce:

"Celebration abandoned on receipt previous communication. Committee says impossible at this late date to make new plans. Sorry. See letter." The refusal of the militia council at Ottawa to give the 14th Regiment the necessary permission to visit the United States, when application was first made for it, practically cancelled the trip. The Elmira celebration committee cannot be blamed for the present conditions, as it had to make other plans when the 14th Regiment commander wrote, regretting that the regiment couldn't accept the kind invitation extended to it to visit Elmira, after previously having accepted it.

The militia council has made a sad bungle of the matter by its refusal to allow the 14th to go, and then at the eleventh hour, when public opinion expressed itself so strongly, turning around and notifying Col. Cunningham that permission would be granted. The incident has been commented upon by the press of both countries, and, if any feeling has been stirred up across the line, the blame rests on the shoulders of the militia council.

The 14th will leave, next Saturday night, for Niagara Falls, where Sunday and Monday will be spent.

WANT APPROACHES BUILT.

But the City is Not Allowed to Do the Work.

This morning Judge Price and Alderman Rigney called upon the city engineer to make enquiries as to the rule regarding the building of concrete extensions from the line of walk to houses and approaches. They instanced several cases where small spaces have been filled in by the city's workmen, inside the walk lines, and wanted to know if all citizens were to be treated alike in this respect.

The city engineer said that four years ago the council had decided that the city would no longer build approaches to buildings, the contractors having protested against it holding that the city was taking work away from them. Since then no approaches of any length have been constructed. The engineer has a rule, however, where he requires his men to fill in any spaces between walks and buildings, under two feet in width. Beyond that width citizens have to engage contractors to do the work.

The judge and Alderman Rigney pointed out that it was nigh impossible to get contractors at this season to do concrete work on approaches, as everyone was busy, and thought that some arrangement might be made whereby citizens wishing approaches built could get them done by the concrete walk gangs or applying to the city engineer for them, as was done prior to 1905. Ald. Rigney said he would bring up the matter at this evening's meeting of the city council.

WORDS AND MUSIC

Of Beautiful Sacred Song From Kingston Pens.

In St. James church, on Sunday morning, the congregation enjoyed a beautiful offertory, sold sweetly sung by Miss Mildred Macomine, whose alto voice is at all times so tuneful. But few knew, as they spoke, afterwards, of the sweet and expressive music, and of the pathetic words that the author of the poem and the writer of the music were in the church.

The verses, entitled "No Night There," were written by Miss Dora Allen, and the music came from the pen of Mrs. J. H. Birckett, and both words and music reveal the presence of the gifts of the gods, poetry and song in abundant measure.

WHERE IT'S NEVER HOT.

The atmosphere is kept cool by seven electric fans at the Bijou. Never hot.

Cook's Cotton Root Compound
The great Utterine Tonic, and only safe effectual Monthly Rejuvenator, on which women can depend. It is a safe, strong, No. 2, degree strength, 1, $1; No. 3, for special cases, $6; $10 for special cases, $10 or less, posted on receipt of price. Free samples. Address: J. B. MEDICINE CO., TORONTO, ONTARIO, Canada.

FLOWER SUNDAY.

It Was Happily Observed Sunday School.

Queen street Methodist church was very pretty on Sunday with its charming floral display. In the afternoon the Sunday school gave a fine programme of songs, recitations, etc. The soloists were Misses Elizabeth Pound, Caroline Knight, Ida Weese and Master Edward Pound. Gladys and Ruby Quail gave a duet in sweet fashion while Goldie Bartels was very pleasing in her violin solo. Various departments and classes gave exercises and pretty tableaux while E. W. Skinner, superintendent, Rev. W. H. Sparling and T. F. Harrison gave helpful addresses. The attendance was very large and everyone was greatly pleased with the service.

At the evening service Mr. Sparling preached from II Peter iii-18, urging growth and development in spiritual matters. It was only by prayer and work that advancement came. He did not speak farewell words, reserving them for Tuesday evening, when the congregation bid him and family good-bye.

Special Excursion Rates.

Tickets at single fare for the round trip will be sold per steamer North King and Caspian, between all points, good going June 30th and July 1st, and to return July 3rd.

SALE ENDS JULY 15TH, 1909

Nothing reserved at this sale. Nothing put aside as too good. It's a clearing out of the best we have.

LIVINGSTON'S

Announcing that on Tuesday Morning, June 29th, we will start Our Annual 20 Per Cent. Off Clearing Sale on all Ready-to-wear Clothing, Hats, Caps and Furnishings.

How To Spend Dominion Day.

Steamer America for Gananoque celebration, 8:30 a.m., returning leaves Gananoque 7 p.m., Kilties band on board. 50c. return.

Tour of the islands, steamer America, 2:30 p.m., via the American and Canadian channels. Supper on board. Fare 50c.

Cheap excursion to Cape Vincent, 2 p.m.; home 8 p.m.; two hours at Cape Fare 50c. return.

Moonlight. Highlanders band leaves to-night by steamer America for Gananoque at 7:30 p.m.

How To Keep Cool. Sit near one of the new electric fans at the Bijou.

Fine Strawberries For Canning. Tuesday, Edwards & Jenkin.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Movements of The People—What They Are Saying and Doing.

P. Douglas Stewart, of Montreal, is visiting his uncle, James Stuart, Stuart street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, of Stratford, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Jordan, Barrie street.

John McEngall, superintendent of the House of Industry, is quite ill in the general hospital.

Col. Gordon, O.C., E.O.C., is on a tour of inspection. He will visit Cobourg, Port Hope and Sturgeon Point.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilcox, Oswego, N.Y., came over on Friday last to attend the funeral of Mrs. Wilcox's brother, the late Henry Wade.

Mrs. T. G. Smith and Miss Flora Smith are expected to reach Kingston on Thursday from California, Miss Smith continues in poor health.

Eugene Bonodore has left for Winnipeg, to take a position as stenographer in the C.P.R. offices.

He graduated at the Kingston Business College.

George Goodfellow, graduate of the Kingston Business College, left for North Bay, having secured a position as stenographer in the C.P.R. offices.

A. H. Blackley, superintendent of agencies, I.O.O.F. Relief Association.

Was the chief speaker at Hamilton, on Sunday, when the graves of deceased Oddfellows were decorated.

Rev. W. H. Spalding and family will leave for Brookville on Wednesday on the one o'clock train. Rev. S. Scully and family will arrive on Wednesday day by the mail steamer.

Owing to typographical error, the Whig, on Saturday, stated that Rev. Dr. MacTavish would leave Sunday on a trip to the west. Dr. MacTavish will leave Kingston on Tuesday morning.

The friends of Mrs. S. Dutton, Barrie street, will be present to learn that, after the successful operation which was performed, last Friday, she is doing remarkably well, and is resting quietly.

Hon. E. J. Davis and wife spent Sunday in the city with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Davis, Sydenham street, on their return from an extended and highly interesting continental trip. Yesterday they went on to their home in Toronto.

The Misses Stillwell were presented with an address, from a purse of gold, by Miss E. Binnington, on behalf of their Catarqui friends.

Row. R. Stillwell moves to Aultsville, circuit, much to the regret of Catarqui people.

Arthur F. Wallis, the genial and versatile editor of the Mail and Empire, Toronto, is suggested for the office of registrar of West Toronto. The government owes much to this distinguished writer, and a position such as proposed would be small return for good loyal work and support.

MARINE NEWS.

What Is Found About The Wharves.

The steamer Dundurn passed down Sunday.

The government tug Trudeau arrived from Toronto.

Steamer Jesca dredged with coal for Rideau canal ports.

The steamer Parthia is loading with near Folger's wharf.

The schooner Major cleared from the penitentiary for Charlotte.

The steamer Aberdeen arrived from Erie with a cargo of coal for Swift's.

The steamer Arabian called at the dry dock, Sunday, on her way to Montreal.

The steamship Kenirving cleared Sunday night with coal for Smith's Falls, from Oswego.

The steamer Dundurn, grain-laden, passed on her way from Fort William to Montreal on Sunday.

The steamer John Rancill arrived from Smith's Falls and cleared for Oswego to load coal.

The steamer Stormont, grain-laden, from Fort William to Montreal, was reported at Port Colborne, 7 a.m. Sunday.

The steamer Sowards made another quick trip. Clearing from here Sunday night, at 6:30, she made Oswego, loaded, and arrived back in Gananoque at five o'clock Sunday evening.

The steamers Simla and Nevada are on their way from Fort William.

Then the ladies, with their winning ways, called upon him, and convinced him that they were the real sufferers and he felt compelled to sing against the gramophones. I don't blame Mr. Laidlaw for this. He is doubtless an impressionable man, and the ladies certainly have a way with them that is hard to resist.

Then, doubtless, Mr. Redden, or Mr. Strachan, or some other joker, teased Mr. Laidlaw about the two signatures and the latter felt that it was "up to him" to write a letter.

I must say, sir, that I do not think

Mr. Laidlaw signed my petition in favor of the gramophones he did so in a spirit of kindness to me.

Then, the ladies, with their winning ways, called upon him, and convinced him that they were the real sufferers and he felt compelled to sing against the gramophones. I don't blame Mr. Laidlaw for this. He is doubtless an impressionable man, and the ladies certainly have a way with them that is hard to resist.

When Mr. Laidlaw signed my petition in favor of the gramophones he did so in a spirit of kindness to me.

Then, the ladies, with their winning ways, called upon him, and convinced him that they were the real sufferers and he felt compelled to sing against the gramophones. I don't blame Mr. Laidlaw for this. He is doubtless an impressionable man, and the ladies certainly have a way with them that is hard to resist.

When Mr. Laidlaw signed my petition in favor of the gramophones he did so in a spirit of kindness to me.

Then, the ladies, with their winning ways, called upon him, and convinced him that they were the real sufferers and he felt compelled to sing against the gramophones. I don't blame Mr. Laidlaw for this. He is doubtless an impressionable man, and the ladies certainly have a way with them that is hard to resist.

When Mr. Laidlaw signed my petition in favor of the gramophones he did so in a spirit of kindness to me.

Then, the ladies, with their winning ways, called upon him, and convinced him that they were the real sufferers and he felt compelled to sing against the gramophones. I don't blame Mr. Laidlaw for this. He is doubtless an impressionable man, and the ladies certainly have a way with them that is hard to resist.

When Mr. Laidlaw signed my petition in favor of the gramophones he did so in a spirit of kindness to me.

Then, the ladies, with their winning ways, called upon him, and convinced him that they were the real sufferers and he felt compelled to sing against the gramophones. I don't blame Mr. Laidlaw for this. He is doubtless an impressionable man, and the ladies certainly have a way with them that is hard to resist.

When Mr. Laidlaw signed my petition in favor of the gramophones he did so in a spirit of kindness to me.

Then, the ladies, with their winning ways, called upon him, and convinced him that they were the real sufferers and he felt compelled to sing against the gramophones. I don't blame Mr. Laidlaw for this. He is doubtless an impressionable man, and the ladies certainly have a way with them that is hard to resist.

When Mr. Laidlaw signed my petition in favor of the gramophones he did so in a spirit of kindness to me.

Then, the ladies, with their winning ways, called upon him, and convinced him that they were the real sufferers and he felt compelled to sing against the gramophones. I don't blame Mr. Laidlaw for this. He is doubtless an impressionable man, and the ladies certainly have a way with them that is hard to resist.

When Mr. Laidlaw signed my petition in favor of the gramophones he did so in a spirit of kindness to me.

Then, the ladies, with their winning ways, called upon him, and convinced him that they were the real sufferers and he felt compelled to sing against the gramophones. I don't blame Mr. Laidlaw for this. He is doubtless an impressionable man, and the ladies certainly have a way with them that is hard to resist.

When Mr. Laidlaw signed my petition in favor of the gramophones he did so in a spirit of kindness to me.

Then, the ladies, with their winning ways, called upon him, and convinced him that they were the real sufferers and he felt compelled to sing against the gramophones. I don't blame Mr. Laidlaw for this. He is doubtless an impressionable man, and the ladies certainly have a way with them that is hard to resist.

When Mr. Laidlaw signed my petition in favor of the gramophones he did so in a spirit of kindness to me.

Then, the ladies, with their winning ways, called upon him, and convinced him that they were the real sufferers and he felt compelled to sing against the gramophones. I don't blame Mr. Laidlaw for this. He is doubtless an impressionable man, and the ladies certainly have a way with them that is hard to resist.

When Mr. Laidlaw signed my petition in favor of the gramophones he did so in a spirit of kindness to me.

Then, the ladies, with their winning ways, called upon him, and convinced him that they were the real sufferers and he felt compelled to sing against the gramophones. I don't blame Mr. Laidlaw for this. He is doubtless an impressionable man, and the ladies certainly have a way with them that is hard to resist.

When Mr. Laidlaw signed my petition in favor of the gramophones he did so in a spirit of kindness to me.

Then, the ladies, with their winning ways, called upon him, and convinced him that they were the real sufferers and he felt compelled to sing against the gramophones. I don't blame Mr. Laidlaw for this. He is doubtless an impressionable man, and the ladies certainly have a way with them that is hard to resist.

When Mr. Laidlaw signed my petition in favor of the gramophones he did so in a spirit of kindness to me.

Then, the ladies, with their winning ways, called upon him, and convinced him that they were the real sufferers and he felt compelled to sing against the gramophones. I don