WHAT WHIG CORRESPONDENTS TELL US.

The Tidings From Various Points in Eastern Ontario—What People Are Doing And What They Are Saying.

At Ferguson's Falls. Ferguson's Falls, June 28. P. Lacey, who has been going to business college in Ottawa, has returned home for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Michael, of this place, visited friends in Perth yesterday. Miss Maggie McCusker leaves to-morrow to go to Kansas to visit friends. Mr. and Mrs. H. McDonald visited friends in this place yesterday. A. Yell, from Rosetta, visited his son here last week. F. Nagle, of Ottawa, intended bringing his family to the fine grove this summer.

Plevna Personal. Plevna, June 28.—This place is visited with two meat wagons every week. H. Hasard Young has about completed a government job on the Perth road. Miss Mona Stalker is visiting at Mallory Hill and Wensley. George Graham has returned after spending a week at his home in Boesburg. Rev. J. Lyons and Ralph Card made a trip to Malboro' Jackson and son, of Trenchard, at her father's, J. Albert's, sr. Miss Maxwell is at Mrs. Ostler's. D. McCrimmon has returned home.

Reports From Wilbur. Wilbur Station, June 28.—The men around here are busy at road work. Mr. Caldwell, from Toronto, came on Saturday to look after his iron mine here. A number of the young people from here attended the Snow Road picnic on the 24th. Miss J. Richardson returned to Kingston on the 24th. The people around here have much sympathy for Mr. and Mrs. James Payva, whose house was burned on Friday, the 25th. Mrs. J. Payva, who has been in the hospital at Smith's Falls, returned to her home on Saturday when the sad news was broken to her. William Thomas, from here, has been kind enough to raise a subscription around the neighborhood to help them along. Miss Mamie Boyd, from Kingston, is at her home here.

Waite and Wagarville. Wagarville, June 28.—Crops and gardens are looking fine since we had another good shower. Much work needed. There was no church service on Sunday, owing to the absence of Rev. J. Crowe. School closes on Wednesday. Some of the young men talk of leaving and going over to the United States side. Mrs. Charlotte Wagar spent a few days with her husband at Marlborough. G. Raymond has purchased a new gramophone from J. Goodfellow. Mr. and Mrs. E. Vanvolkenburg, McLean, at M. Cronk's. Miss M. Brezee, the guest of Miss S. Butler. Miss J. McMurber, visiting at Mississippi. Mrs. A. Wagar, Febo Lake, spent a few days with her mother. Mr. and Mrs. E. Wagar, at L. Saitz's. S. Vanvolkenburg, at G. Raymond's.

Seeking Samples. Althorpe, June 28.—Rain is badly needed at present, as high land crops are suffering. Statute labor is the order of the day, and, therefore, left the roads in a dusty condition. Our teacher, Miss Cora Dowdell went to Perth to try the entrance. Miss Gertie and Miss Rena Norris spent Sunday at Christy Lake. Miss Violet Dowdell is home for her holidays. Master Everton McMillan, Perth, at his grandparents'. John Forrester, M.A., and sister, Miss Lizzy, from Westport, spent a day, the guest of Miss Ida Fournier. Mr. Smith, of the Burgess Mining company, called in George Fournier for samples of the iron ore that was worked so extensively some years ago. John Dowdell had the misfortune to have one of his horses kick him while causing him to become quite lame. Some of the young people went to Calvin church social.

Upper Holford Happenings. Upper Holford, June 25.—Farmers have finished planting and the prospects for an abundant harvest are very promising. Rev. J. Cornell preached his farewell sermon here on Sunday last. D. Walker returned from Cobalt a few days ago, giving his family a pleasant surprise. Ben Ewing is slowly recovering. A merry party of young people enjoyed a picnic on Knowlton Lake on the 24th. Miss N. Medcal was in Kingston last week for music examination. Those from here who attended the camp meeting at Pittsview, given by Harold Redmond is home from Snydenham high school nursing a very severe cold. Miss Myrtle Clark, Harrowsmith, at S. Martin's. Miss Hawcock, at Mr. Clough's. Mrs. Dwyer, of Clayton, at her father's, A. Collins'. Mr. and Mrs. B. Patterson, Kingston, with friends here. Misses Hattie Collins and Edyth Martin, of Snydenham, spent Sunday at their respective homes. Miss Walroth, at J. E. Smith's.

News of Marysville. Marysville, June 28.—Miss McCallahan, of Millbrook, was the guest of Mrs. J. Fabey at the Marysville house. Mr. and Mrs. J. Russell was at Selby one day last week, visiting with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Erwin Russell. All were sorry to hear of the death at the Hotel Dieu, Kingston, of Margaret Horigan, an old and much respected resident. Miss Carrie Oliver, Mrs. Dennis Harley and Mrs. John McCambridge, Jr., are ill. Many went from here to take a cup of tea with Mr. and Mrs. James McHenry, Richmond, on Sunday last. Many from here went to Belleville on Saturday to see the wild west show. Ben to Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Oliver, twin daughters. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harrison were the guests of Michael McAlain on Sunday last. Mrs. W. Smith and children, with her father, J. Jennings, Messrs. E. Doyle and S. Brown spent Sunday with friends here.
