SEATTLE'S CAPTURE KINGSTON GIRL MARRIED TO AMERICAN HUSBAND

From Her Brother's Home in the Western City—The Lovely Young Bride is Much Loved in Kingston.

On June 16th, at Seattle, Washington, Miss Alice Martha Sears, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sears, Earl street, was married to George Virgil Friend, barrister, of Seattle.

The bride wore her travelling gown of pastel blue serge, with trimmings of rich Maltese lace, the latter a present from her aunt in Dorset, England, and a large black plumed picture hat.

An informal reception was held immediately after the ceremony in the apartment home of the bride's brother, Edward S. Sears, and the young couple received the congratulations of their friends.

The rooms were decorated with a profusion of June roses and ferns, and an arch of ivy and roses, a present from the janitor of the building, was very beautifully erected by him over the entrance to the apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. Friend left, later, for a trip through California, and will be at home in their new residence on Beacon Hill after the first of August.

Young, and lovely in face and character, the bride is a prize which the States may be glad to have captured from the daughters of Canada, and that she may be truly happy through life is the wish of the many in her own home town who love her very much indeed.

MARRIED IN NEW YORK.

Miss Florence Kinrade Becomes Clergyman's Wife.

Hamilton, Ont., June 29.—The following letter, written in New York, yesterday, and signed by T. L. Kinrade, was received in a local newspaper office this morning:

"The marriage of Miss Florence Belle Kinrade, daughter of T. L. Kinrade, principal of Cannon street school, Hamilton, Ont., to Clara Montrose Wright, B.A., of Victoria university, Toronto, took place Monday, June 28th, 1909, in New York city.

The ceremony, which was very private, only the nearest relatives being present, was held in the Madison Avenue Methodist church and was performed by Rev. Wallace McMullen, D.D.

This marriage precludes all chance of Mr. Wright joining the Methodist ministry, local preachers say. According to the Methodist discipline a man studying to enter the ministry cannot marry until he has been ordained.
