The King Referred Them To Minister

AND HE HUNTED AID

THE SUFFRAGETTE DELEGATION SAW GLADSTONE.

The Home Secretary Expressed Regret at the Present Involved Situation and His Belief That the Matter Would Finally Be Settled to Satisfaction of Women.

London, July 8.—Mrs. Despard and the contingent of suffragettes, infesting the House of Commons for the past week in the hope of catching Premier Asquith, have scored a point in their fight for the concession that they have a constitutional right to present a petition to a responsible minister of the crown.

The suffragettes appealed directly to the king who informed them that the home secretary was the constitutional channel of communication, and his majesty apparently followed this up with a hint that Mr. Gladstone would be advised to receive the women's deputation.

In the face of Premier Asquith's persistent refusal to meet a deputation of suffragettes it is hardly conceivable that his lieutenant would consent to this course as he did, without strong pressure.

The suffragette deputation will be received by the home secretary this evening.

Received By Gladstone.

London, July 9.—Following a direct appeal to the king, by Mrs. Despard and a deputation of suffragettes, the home secretary, the Right Hon. H. J. Gladstone, accorded a courteous audience, Mrs. Despard was leader of the deputation. After reading their petition, the home secretary made a sympathetic speech, expressing regret at the present involved situation, and the belief that the matter would finally be settled and in a way satisfactory to the women. Mr. Gladstone explained he could do nothing to commit the government. He admitted that the petition was an argument for an audience, and promised to forward it to the king.

Mr. Bergman was thrown out and being quite a heavy man, he alighted in such a position as to fracture the right arm just above the wrist.

IN AMONG WHEELS

WHEN THE MERRY-GO-ROUND WENT TO PIECES.

Held on to the Flooring—Was Dragged Around Twice Before Machine Was Stopped—The Crowd Cheered.

London, Ont., July 9.—Rare presence of mind and magnificent pluck was all that prevented Mrs. Oscar Wanton and her two-year-old baby from being ground to death beneath the wheels of the merry-go-round at Springbank Park. Mr. Wanton was standing on the platform holding the baby on a horse when a section of the merry-go-round gave way and she and the child were thrown between the wheels. She managed to grab the flooring with one hand and held on to the child with the other and was dragged around twice before the machine was stopped. When passing through the part where the cables run she was almost torn from her hold and her clothing was ripped to shreds. As the machine was stopped the two were extricated, and the crowd of picnickers who saw the accident cheered the woman heartily. It is likely she will be presented with a medal for her bravery.

SEARCHING FOR CHILD.

Little Daughter Stolen in Front of Mother's Eyes.

Sun Prairie, Wis., July 9.—Poses of armed officers are scouring the woods and country roads in every direction for miles about Sun Prairie in search of two men in a big red automobile, who kidnaped Annie Stangler, four years old, from the lawn in front of her parents' home here last night.

The child was playing about the front gate when the automobile drove up and stopped, and her mother saw the two men get out. Then the woman heard her child scream and saw the men seize her and carry her to the automobile. Whether there were other occupants of the car Mrs. Stangler could not see as it drove off at top speed and took a road leading to the country toward Madison.

It is thought that the kidnapers worked along carefully planned directions and already have hidden the child in some place where they will hold her for a ransom. Stangler is one of the wealthiest farmers in the central part of the state. He already has offered a reward of $1,000 for the return of the child unharmed, and is leading one of the armed posses that is searching for her. Mrs. Stangler is prostrated.

Awarded Heavy Damages Against Saloonkeeper.

Detroit, Mich., July 9.—A decision far-reaching in its importance, and one which will be of interest to the cause of temperance everywhere, was handed down by the Michigan supreme court. It was shown to the satisfaction of the court that until Merriman took to drink he was prosperous, a railroad telegrapher, and stood high with his employees. The drink habit caused him to lose everything, and finally his wife was obliged to leave him. The case first went before a jury, which gave Mrs. Merriman a small verdict, but she appealed to the supreme court and the decision resulted in a verdict against the saloonkeeper for $5,225.

TO BETTER SITUATION

Of the Police in the City of Paris.

Paris, July 9.—There is a strong movement in the Paris municipality to better the situation of the police. The Commission du Personnel has voted in principle a general increase of pay for all grades.

Men joining the force will start at 2,000f. ($200) a year and the maximum pay will be increased from 2,400f. ($240) to 2,600f. ($260) which will benefit particularly the p.o.'s in clothes men, who for administrative purposes form a class in themselves. The intermediary classes will each receive 100f. (20) a year more than they get at present.

It has long been recognized that the Paris police, inadequately paid in proportion to the hard, dangerous and important work which falls to their lot. Even when the proposed increase in pay comes into vogue the wages of the Paris policeman will not compare favorably with those of his New York confrere who receives 4,000f. ($400) a year when he joins, and has a chance of being a sergeant after five years of service, with a salary of 7,500f. ($750).

DEAD MAN IDENTIFIED

AS THOMAS EWART, JR. OF PORTSMOUTH.

Photograph in Toronto Paper Identifies Man Found Dead on G. T. R. Tracks Three Miles West of Napanee on June 29th.

A photograph in a Toronto paper of identification of a man found dead on the G.T.R. tracks three miles west of Napanee, on June 29th. The picture was published in the hope of identifying the dead man, and when it was seen by Portsmouth people, they recognized it as that of Thomas Ewart, Jr., who left about two weeks ago. His brother, Joshua, accompanied by Edward Kato, left Thursday evening for Napanee to have the body exhumed, and identification completed. The description of the dead man convinced the people of Portsmouth that the body was no doubt that of Thomas Ewart.

The Napanee despatch to the Whig at the time described the unfortunate man as apparently between thirty-five and forty years of age, well built, weighing about 160 pounds, and height about five feet seven or eight inches. He was dressed in a dark tweed suit, with duck overalls, a black and white striped shirt. A small sum of money was found on his person and a tintype photo, which somewhat resembled him. Nothing was found that could lead to his identity. It is thought that he might have been riding on a freight train and fallen off, receiving injuries which must have caused instantaneous death.

Thomas Ewart, Jr., was the son of Thomas Ewart, laborer of Portsmouth, and was forty-five years of age. He was a laboring man himself. The last work he did was for John Mills on the Carruthers farm. His sister is Mrs. Stevenson, of Portsmouth, whose husband died last year from injuries received in a murderous attack made upon him by a patient in Rockwood asylum.
