TO KINGSTON AFTER SIXTY-FIVE YEARS.

Long Lost Snuff Box, Found in Turtle Mountains, Manitoba, is Returned to Its Owner, J. A. K. Drummond, of Kingston.

This morning, Thomas M. Asselstine, clerk of the high court of justice, received a letter from his sister, Miss Laura V. Asselstine, Plateau, Saskatchewan, regarding the snuff box presented on November 20th, 1844, by Kingston St. Andrew's Society, the Thomas Drummond, and many years afterwards stolen from his son, J. A. K. Drummond, of Kingston, who formerly lived in Manitoba. It was through Miss Asselstine that the snuff box's existence was made known. She is teaching school in Saskatchewan and is boarding at the home of James McKenzie, who found the box in the Turtle Mountains. Mr. Asselstine recently wrote his sister about Mr. Drummond's eagerness to get the box back, and the letter he has received in reply states that the box is on the way to Kingston, addressed to Mr. Drummond.

Miss Asselstine writes that in the fall of 1894, Mr. MacKenzie's father—was preaching to the reservation Indians in the Turtle Mountains, near Deloraine, Manitoba. His son, James, then fifteen years old, was ploughing a garden for the Indians, and turned up the box. It was not till two or three years later that it was cleaned, and the inscription made visible. Then Mr. MacKenzie's father wrote to St. Andrew's Society, Kingston, but received no reply. His discovery now by a Kingston girl makes an interesting story.

Mr. MacKenzie regrets to part with the souvenir, which he values on account of finding it at a very interesting time of his life, but he recognizes Mr. Drummond's superior claim to the little box, and accordingly presents it to him with his compliments and good wishes.

The other had no counsel, appearing before the court himself, and entering a plea of guilty.

Two young men, Edward Kelly, of Godfrey, and Van Abrams, of Verona, appeared before the court on a very serious charge, that of fighting and using bad language on a Kingston & Pembroke railway train on June 25th.

DEATH OF MRS. J. J. BEHAN.
She Passed Away on Friday Morning.

A Kingstonian beloved by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance passed away at six o'clock on Friday morning in the person of Mrs. J. J. Behan, grand secretary of the Catholic Mutual Benefit association. The death occurred at the family residence, 78 Sylvanham street.

Mrs. Behan had been ill for some weeks, but had almost recovered from her illness and was in a fair way to recovery when, on Tuesday night last, she suffered another bad spell, and from that time sank very rapidly.

Deceased was born in Kingston, a daughter of the late Dennis Branigan and Catharine Murdock, and had lived in this city all her life.

Twenty years ago, June 28th last, she was married to Mr. Behan, who was a member of St. Mary's cathedral, a member of the League of the Sacred Heart, and also a member of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Hotel Dieu.

At all times she took an active interest in the work of the church. She paid special attention to charitable work and her kind acts were the means of bringing comfort to many a sad heart. She had many friends, both in and out of her church, and the news of her death was learned with sincere regret, and those who survive it extended heartfelt sympathy.

Deceased had no family, and besides her husband is survived by one brother, Dennis Branigan, manager of the Grand Opera House, and four sisters, Mrs. John W. Wall, of Brock street, Leicestershire, and Susan, of Kingston, and Miss Mary, of Ottawa. Miss Joseph and Miss Mary Harty, of Ottawa, are nieces of deceased, and are at present in the city.

Mr. Behan's mother is at present seriously ill at the Hotel Dieu. The funeral will take place Friday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, to St. Mary's cathedral, where a solemn requiem will be sung.

LIGHT HAY YIELD.
A Pittsburg farmer, who has cut his hay, got only one-quarter of a ton to the acre. A fair average in a hay year is two or two and a half tons to the acre.

The extent of this year's hay crop can thus be measured.

Menagerie In Kingston.
A menagerie and a band of red Indians are the principal attractions at the Bijou theatre to-day and Saturday. The Indians appear in a drama entitled "The Trapper and the Squaw," or "A Famine in the Forest." They belong to the famous troupe that used to live over about Cape Vincent 200 years ago.

The menagerie is a wonder. It shows the animals in the great royal zoo Copenhagenolar bears and penguins romping in the water, seals, storks, lions, elephants, the fiercest baboons, and like men, hippopotami, camels, seals and all kinds of wild things. There is also a drama, entitled "Neptune's Daughter," or "A Sailor at the Bottom of the Sea," and a comedy "The Masher's Finish," or "Never Again." J. Douglas Bankier sings.

Buy Bananas Saturday. Edwards and Jenkin. Phone 775.

LONGBOAT'S BEHAVIOR.

Keeping Steady and Will Race Again Shortly.

Sol. Mintz, Hamilton, Longboat's manager, is at Deseronto, and was met at the station by his Indian charge, who took him to Mr. Marade's home on the Mohawk reserve.

Longboat has been visiting Tyendinaga since July 1st and has been taking the best of care of himself. "I have my own contract now and I think I will have to clean all these good runners up again," said Longboat.

Looking For A Game.
The baseball team at Richardson's elevator are out after the scalps of the aggregation of the M. T. company, and the Whig was today authorized to state that they would offer a challenge for a game at any time, any place, and for any sum mentioned.

"Jack" Powell, the veteran hockey player, is on their pitching staff, and Col. Cameron is catcher. They feel confident they can trim the M. T. company and would like to hear from them.

Issued A Challenge.
The victory of the K. & P. railway baseball team, over the G.T.R., last night, awakened the "Scranton Live Coals," at Swift's, and to-day they sent a challenge to the winners. The game will be arranged for some evening next week.

Railroaders Play Ball.
There was a great game of baseball, at the cricket field, last night. It was between the office staff of the G.T.R. and the K. & P. railway, and at full time, the score stood 12-11, in favor of the K. & P. The return game will be played on Tuesday night, and the "Trunkers" say that there is sure to be something doing. The K. & P. piled up a score in the early stage of the game, but the G.T.R. made a grand stand finish, and near the last it was anyone's game. Umpire Davidson gave good satisfaction as umpire. A feature of the game was the heavy hitting of Dixon, for the K. & P. He played a stellar game.

Sporting Notes.
Langford has issued a challenge to Ketchel for a twenty-round scrap.

Sweden will hold the 1912 Olympic games at Stockholm.

Several Ottawa boys will likely catch places on the McGill rugby team next fall.

Donovan, the Detroit pitcher, has been on the hospital list with an injured knee.

"Bobby" Kerr promises to turn the tables on Cartmel and Walker when they race in London.

Svenberg, the Swedish runner, is in Toronto looking for a race with Shrubbs or Longboat.

Travis won the championship at the New York state golf tourney, beating Reekie, of Toronto.

With the Giants steadily climbing towards the top, New Yorkers are once more getting the baseball fever.

The Toronto have made forty-eight hits in the last four games with Ketchel, averaging twelve hits a game, with House, leading with an average of .67, having secured eleven hits out of sixteen times at bat.

Frank G. Selee, for twelve years manager of the Boston National Baseball League Club, and later leader of the Chicago Cubs, Frank Chance, succeeding him, died Tuesday night at Denver, a victim of consumption. Selee, during his career in Boston, won five pennants.

Kauffman may be substituted for Ketchel as an opponent for Johnson in the bout proposed by Coffroth for the coming fall, who is not pleased with Ketchel's showing against Papke, as he thinks the Michigan man should have shown his supremacy more strongly.

Mathewson has won ten out of the last ten games, and seems to be pitching with his old-time effectiveness.

The New York Giants play with a world of confidence behind Mathewson, who has every one of the opposing teams in the air before he begins winding up.

Martin Sheridan lost twenty-one pounds weight during the two hours and a half in which he won the all-around national championship at the Scottish Clans game, Celtic park, Montreal, according to a story published in New York, but he regained ten pounds five hours later.

RECEIVED TWO CALLS.
Invitations Extended to Rev. J. Charles Villiers.

Rev. J. Charles Villiers has been asked by the committee of Chatterton Hill congregation, New York, to consider a call to the pastorate. It is a suburban congregation, and is in organic relation to what has become known in New York church circles, as "the Westchester Movement," the union of three congregations, each under a separate pastor, in one church, acting mutually and unitedly for community interests. The movement was begun only about eight years ago. The Chatterton Hill congregation was only organized in 1906.

The church maintains the Marathe mission of the American Congregationist board, at a cost of $1,200 a year. It also maintains a local mission to the Italians, and employs a secretary under salary. The Chatterton Hill edifice erected about a year ago, considered for some time a call to a western state, and probably will not make final decision as to his future course until after he has visited that field.
