Of Attempted Outrage In Gananoque.

FRANK RAISCH, A HOSTLER, HID IN HAY

He Enticed a Little Girl Into a Stable-A Young Lady Heard the Alarm.

Gananoque, July 14.—The public received another serious shock; a little after noon, yesterday, on hearing of an attempted indecent assault against Hetty McAllister, the nine-year-old time. A young lady ward, on her way home to dinner, heard the child ask if her father was in the stable and then hearing her cries at once gave the alarm, and help arriving, the child was released. The Ryan and Constable Thomson were promptly on the scene, but Raisch had disappeared. A search of the stable was made and Raisch was discovered hidden among the hay in the loft of the barn. He was taken in charge, warrant having been sworn out for his arrest, and he was taken to the lockup. Later in the afternoon he was brought before Police Magistrate Carroll, on a charge of attempting to
