TO NEW BURIAL PLACES
REMAINS TO BE TAKEN FROM OLD CEMETERY

Bones of 256 Soldiers, including Those of the Discoverer of Pike's Peak, to Be Dug Up at Sacket's Harbor.
Watertown, N.Y., July 27.—The bodies of 256 soldiers, including the remains of Brigadier General Z. M. Pike, discoverer of Pike's Peak, now buried in the old military cemetery at Sacket's Harbor, will be dug up and transferred to the new military cemetery. The contract for the job was let at Sacket's Harbor, before Capt. Fessell, to a Schenectady firm for $2,480. There were two local bidders for the work, Undertaker Burns Guilfoyle and Undertaker W. G. Northam. The work of exhuming the bodies, many of which have been beneath the surface nearly a century, will begin within three weeks. The monument over the grave of Gen. Pike as well as the soldiers' and sailors' monument and the many little slabs that mark the graves of unknown heroes, will likewise be moved and placed in position under the contract price.

In the old military cemetery is all that remains of 141 men who were killed during the war of 1812 at various battlefields throughout the north, and whose bodies were collected about the year 1820 and re-buried with appropriate exercises. Since that time the cemetery has served as the usual post cemetery, until all told 256 bodies have been buried in the plot.

Among the bodies that found a resting place in the old cemetery and which will now be dug up, are those of Brigadier General L. Covington, Lieutenant Cule Backus, Colonel Tuttle, Lieutenant-Colonel Dix, Brigadier General Pike and his aide-de-camp, Captain Joseph Nicholson, both of whom were killed at the battle of York, April 27th, 1813; Captain A. Spencer, aide-de-camp to Major-General Brown, killed at Lundy's Lane, in 1814.

The opening of the graves after the long lapse of years will be attended with much interest. Whatever remains of the former soldier is to be placed in a plain pine box and carried to its new resting place a quarter of a mile away. A steel fence will be placed about the new cemetery. There were seven bidders for the work.

The motorist stopped promptly and saved a serious accident. Mr. Bryan's companion was a Toronto visitor who had a similar experience in Toronto a few weeks ago.

Not The Committee's Fault.
The committee in charge of the picnic at the park, yesterday, very much regret that the fireworks display was not given as arranged, and that their patrons were disappointed. The fireworks were ordered and every endeavor made by the committee to have them delivered on time, but the suppliers failed to "make good." It was not the fault of the hard-working committee.

Bullet Whizzed Past Him.
A member of the Gillespie family, residing in Pittsburg township, near the rifle ranges, narrowly escaped being pierced by a stray bullet from the rifle of some careless marksman shooting at the butts on Monday. The bullet whizzed past him. Persons who are either so careless as to shoot in a reckless way or so gross as not to be allowed to hit the butts should not be allowed to use a rifle.

MAY SEE ASQUITH
IF THEY HAVE NEW FAGS TO COMMUNICATE.

London, July 27.—In the House of Commons, Prime Minister Asquith was asked whether he was aware that over 100 members of the Women's Freedom League had stood outside the gates of the house for an aggregate of over 3,000 hours for the purpose of obtaining an interview with him, and whether he could not see his way clear to grant the desired interview.
Mr. Asquith replied that he was sorry the women should have been so much inconvenienced, but they had been informed at the outset that he did not see that any public interest would be served by receiving them. He added that he understood the women were engaged in an assertion of a legal right which was awaiting the decision of the courts. But if they would communicate any new facts that he could elucidate by a personal interview, he would see them.
