BOY MURDERS GIRL

COLD-BLOODED CRIME REVEALED AT BOYLSTON, N.S.

Six-Year-Old Child Tied to a Tree By Her Foster-Brother and Her Brains Beaten Out—Two Other Boys Held As Accomplices.

Guy'sboro, N.S., Aug. 5.—A cold-blooded murder committed a week ago at Boylston, a few miles outside of this town, has just come to light. On Thursday afternoon the adopted thirteen-year-old son of Joseph Issert, a negro, living at Boylston, in the absence of his foster-parents, tied their six-year-old daughter to a tree and beat her brains out. The Isserts were away on a picnic, and returning home, found the child tied up to a tree, dead. They applied to the overseers of the poor for assistance to bury the child, and this was granted.

Later the suspicions of the authorities were aroused, and it was decided to exhume the body, and hold an autopsy. This was done, and then it was ascertained that the child had been murdered. The boy was arrested and will come up for preliminary examination. An inquiry was held before Coroner Ewart and a verdict of murder returned. Two other boys are also held as accomplices. The preliminary examination is before Stipendiary DesBarres.

Lillian Ash, a young married woman, is in St. Michael's hospital, Toronto, from what has been diagnosed as chloroform or mercury poisoning. The poison was taken at the home of Mr. Harris, a neighbor, where she was visiting with her husband. It is not thought that her condition is serious. Mrs. Harris says the woman and Mr. Ash had a few words.

John Patterson, Hamilton, was arrested on Thursday, on a charge of bigamy. He married his first wife, over thirty years ago, and his second wife, Bertha Thorne, on July 27th. Both wives live in the city and Patterson, it is alleged, played the double game by visiting them in turn. The women finally got wise, both consulted the magistrate, who issued the warrant. Patterson was remanded for one week.

The woman gave the name of a boarding house where she had stayed and on investigating the police found she had been there but had been put out yesterday because she had no money to pay her board. Mrs. Selin says she has forgotten the name of the man she was married to, but described him as being tall and rather good-looking and a nice talker.

MAY FULL TRACK.

Montreal Police Intimate That Swoop Will Be Made.

Montreal, Aug. 5.—From information given by Chief Campeau it is more than likely that the chief of police will swoop down upon the outlaw race at Morin track one of these days and arrest all the bookies and Lemay and Richard, who are running the track.

They on the other hand say if their running races are interfered with they will create such a movement against racing that neither the Protestant Ministerial Association nor the Catholic or Protestant bishops can keep out of it so that the result will be that races will be treated in this province the same as in New York state, and Blue Bonnets will be shut up.
