Joseph M. Gaites has signed S. Miller Kent to appear in a new farce by F. E. Dunn, entitled "A Dry Town."

Joseph Weber has assumed the management of Miss Grace Van Sledright, who will continue in "The Golden Butterfly" next season.

Adelaide Thwaites has secured "Contrary Mary," by Mary Ellis Baker, author of "Mary Jane's Pa," in which Henry E. Dixey scored the greatest success of his career.

Janet Dunbar will be David Warfield's leading woman, next season, in "The Music Master." Mr. Warfield opens his season at Richmond, Va., on September 30th.

Willis P. Sweetman will return to vaudeville next season. He has had several offers for the legitimate and a pressing one from Cohen and Harris' Minstrels, but prefers vaudeville.

The Shuberts announce an early production of "The Persian Princess," with lyrics by Percy Greenbank and music by Sidney Jones, with additional music by Marie Horne. The comedy proved a big success in England.

Lieber & Co. are to send out Dustin Farnum in "Lambo Kirby," the Tarkington-Wilson play which was tried by Nat Goodwin last season. Alcega Rankin will be one of the actors in his support, and the tour will extend to the Pacific coast.

Speaking editorially of the theatrical outlook the Dramatic Mirror says: "That managers are preparing for one of the most lively and varied seasons in the history of the American theatre is apparent from the notes of purpose carried by the Mirror nowadays."

Miss Olga Nethersole, who is now in Europe, will inaugurate her transcontinental American tour in October, when she will appear in a cycle of plays, including "Sapho," "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," "The Writing on the Wall," and a new play dealing with the labor question.

George M. Cohan's new music play written for Raymond Hitchcock, has been rechristened "The Man From Broadway." It is in rehearsal and will open next month with Raymond Hitchcock, Florida Zabelle, Lora Lee, Stanley Ford, Scott Welch and Frances Gordon in the big cast.

"The Wizard" is the title of the new musical production in which Samuel Bernard will play under the Shubert's management this season. The book of the piece is by Harley Manners, the lyrics are by Robert B. Smith, and the music is by Julian Edwards.

To the chain of Shubert theatres during the past week have been added the Masonic and Avenue Theatres in Louisville. In connection with Anderson and Ziegler, the Shuberts already control the Mary Anderson Theatre in the same city.

Law DeStader has contracted with James H. Decker, to appear under his management, in the Shubert playhouses for a term of years. Mr. Decker is manager of the Shubert's booking department, and used to conduct the Primrose and Deckerstader minstrel tours.

"A Fool There Was," Porter Emerson Brown's play, which Frederic Thompson produced at the Liberty Theatre last spring, with Robert Hilliard in the chief role, will shortly be presented in London with Herbert Sleath, Miss Ellis Jeffries and Miss Violet Van Burgh in the cast.

J. E. Dodson, the star of "The House Next Door," one of the few successes of 1909, is compiling a history of theatrical art in all ages. He has already published a monograph on the art of "Make-up," and has nearly ready for the press a work on the "Psychology of Character Acting."

Charles Cherry, the English actor, will begin his season early next month in "The Bachelor," which was first produced at the Maxine Elliott Theatre last spring. Clyde Fitch, who

"Constipation For Three Years"

Had Dizziness, Bad Breath, Headaches, Bad Color, Poor Appetite.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills Cured Quickly.

Those who doubt if constipation and chronic stomach trouble can be cured need only read the striking testimony of Mrs. E. C. Curran, of Westport, to know that even if all else had failed certain cure attends the use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

"For fully three years I have suffered the tortures of biliousness, constipation and stomach disorders. I had terrible pains in my head. My appetite faded away and when I did eat anything it disagreed and made me very sick for hours after each meal. The active pains in my stomach and the dizzy headaches I had to endure almost set me wild. Some times attacks came on so severely that I had to go to bed. I would feel so worn, depressed and utterly miserable that for hours I wouldn't speak to my family. My system was poisoned with wastes and nothing helped me till I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Without this grand system-cleaning remedy I would still be sick, but each day brought me better health and spirits. I was cured and made as strong, ruddy and healthy looking as one could wish, and will always use and recommend Dr. Hamilton's Pills."

Thousands who are in an ailing, low state of health need nothing else but Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They cure blood disorders, pimples, rashes, bad color, biliousness, liver, stomach and kidney troubles. Mild, certain and safe. Beware of imitations and substitutes, at all dealers, or The Catarthozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

wrote the comedy, is under contract to deliver another play for the same actor.

Ralph Stuart, who will play one of the principal roles in Channing Pollock's new comedy, "Such a Little Queen," which opens in New York at the Hackett Theatre, on August 30th, enjoys the distinction of having played more principal parts in New York than any other contemporaneous actor. Mr. Stuart has a repertoire of more than four hundred.

Far removed from the footlights, Henry Marsh, old-time minstrel, showman, Mr. Marsh was at times associated with Tony Hart, Primrose, West, Barlow and Tony Pastor.

Nazimova, who is now resting at her country place in Portchester, N.Y., is studying her three hundredth role. She is said to have a repertoire larger than any foreign actress. Eugene Walter is now working on a drama for the Russian actress, the scenario of which will be delivered to the Shuberts by the middle of next month. As previously announced, Madame Nazimova will open the new Shubert Theatre in New York, which is to be named after her, in January.

Happened Before.

Chicago News. Women of England in the eighteenth century wore large hats. Samuel Rogers once travelled to Ranelagh in the same coach with a woman who was compelled to sit on a stool on the floor of the coach on account of the inconvenient height of her headdress.

Hannah More, who was all for simplicity in costume, writes in her diary that she has seen women wearing on their heads "an acre and a half of shrubbery, besides slopes, grass plats, tulip beds, clumps of peonies, kitchen gardens and greenhouses."

The credit of killing this fashion is given to Garrick. He appeared one night on the stage with a mass of vegetables on his head and a carrot suspended from each side, to the shame and confusion of many fair members of his audience.

Equine Pride.

PONGEE WITH BABY IRISH LACE.

Pongee gowns are numbered among the toilets that one can count upon for beauty as well as endurance. This empire-princess is fashioned with a deep vest of baby Irish lace, fastened with Irish crochet buttons. Bands of pongee run from shoulder to waist line and cross in front, running, surprise style, to the back of the gown. A deep panel of Irish lace goes down the middle of the skirt to the hem. The long sleeves are of the pongee, with a wide insertion of baby Irish lace. With the gown, which is of the walking length, is worn a dainty scarf which adds to its effectiveness.

FISHING FOR SHARKS.

Large Specimens Caught Along Mexican Coast.

Mexican Herald. The shark fishing season is on here now and furnishes quite a pastime for those addicted to such dangerous sports. The sharks seem to be bolder than usual, very large ones coming into the bay, while generally they keep out towards the entrance.

Yesterday quite a large one was caught from one of the piers. It measured over two metres in length, and caused quite an exciting battle before the fishermen got the second harpoon into it. This morning another much larger one was caught by some fishermen in a boat. It was only subdued after a hard struggle, and finally towed alongside the sea-wall and hoisted out with a derrick. The animal was near three metres long, and was still alive after being hoisted out on to the dock, and it slashed around at a lively rate, causing the crowd that had gathered to see it to scatter in all directions to avoid its enormous tail. After being killed the animal was removed and it measured more than three feet in length. This furnishes a very fine transparent oil that is used for many purposes.

Only a short time ago Capt. Washburn of the Ward Line's tug Neptune, caught one of these monsters, and came very near losing out with him, as the fingers of both hands were so badly burned by the line which held the shark that he was laid up for several days with bandaged hands.

How To Iron A White Skirt.

To iron a white undershirt begin at the strings and waistband, then take the bottom of the skirt. Iron all round on the right side with a very hot iron, then iron the first frill. This frill will probably have sewed work or lace. In either case it must be nicely fringed on the wrong side. Probably above the frill there will be tucks or hems. They must next be ironed over the wrong side and afterward on the right. Rub the iron the way of the hem. If there is a second frill the cloth under the frill is ironed at the same time as the hem or tucks and the frill again ironed on the wrong side. Put skirt board into the skirt and place each end of the board on the table, thus allowing the skirt to hang over the board. It can thus be easily ironed and nicely finished. Afterward fold it lengthwise and hang up to air.

With His Sanction.

London Argonaut. Others may have said the same thing, but this rather unsympathetic comment is attributed to the late Judge Hoar: "Are you going to attend the funeral of Gen. Butler? I was asked him. 'No,' was the calm reply. 'No, I am not going to attend—but I heartily approve of it.'"

Always There.

New York Globe. Mrs. Binks (reading)—John, I read where a scientific expedition explored an extinct crater 2,000 feet deep and at the bottom they found the bones of a prehistoric woman. How do you account for it? Mr. Binks—Oh, that's easily accounted for, Martha. You know a woman is at the bottom of everything.

The medicine with a record of cures extending over 65 years. You don't experiment when you buy it.

Mrs. JOSEPH L. HATCHETT, Huntsville, Ont., writes: "It gives me much pleasure to write you of the wonderful benefit I have found in your medicine. Last summer I was sick with cholera. I was very weak and had no strength. I tried many remedies, but they did me no good. I should try Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. After giving them one bottle I found a great change, and now my little ones are as well as ever. We have never been without it since, and I have recommended it to my friends."

Mrs. S. A. HARRIS, N. Napanee, Ont., writes: "I take great pleasure to send you this testimonial of what Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has done in our family. My daughter's little girl, three years old, took summer complaint and was nearly dead. After all other remedies failed I thought of your remedy. The first dose gave relief and the third cured her. My son had diarrhoea, and a few doses stopped it right away. I advise all mothers to have a bottle of Dr. Fowler's on hand all the time. It is a grand medicine for young and old, and I cannot recommend it too highly in all trouble where the bowels become too loose. A few doses will check the trouble at once."

with hot milk or cream and a little fruit. If you eat more than the stomach needs you are wasting both money and strength. Overtaxing the stomach impairs digestion, weakens brain power and lays the foundation for disease. Cut out heavy meats and soggy white flour pastries for ten days, eat Shredded Wheat and see how much better you will feel—then tell your friends about it. Your grocer sells it.

Shredded Wheat is made of the choicest selected white wheat, cleaned, steam-cooked and baked. Try it for breakfast to-morrow with milk or cream. The Biscuit is also delicious for any meal in combination with fresh or preserved fruits.
