New Home of Man and Wife and 12 Children

Seven Years Ago and To-day—The Wretched Hut on the right and the Comfortable Home Now Occupied by the Same Family

The photographs shown above clearly illustrate the present vastly improved condition of the poor victims of the old system of landlordism. New sanitary dwellings are replacing the wretched huts of the tenants, now made owners of their lands. The farms shown in the large picture were carved from a large tract of "grass-land," which for fifty years had been devoted to pasturing cattle while the people nearby vigorously tilled patches of stony hillsides.

Brookville, Ont., Aug. 19.—Charles Matthews, Mallorytown, farmer, is in jail awaiting disposition on a charge of contempt of court. South was committed for trial, but when the case came before the county judge Matthews could not be found, having left the country. The hearing was adjourned a few times, and finally the prisoner was discharged. Matthews came back to his home in Mallorytown, was promptly arrested, and handed over to the authorities here.

FOUND TRINKETS.

But This Only Determines Place of Struggle.

Rochester, N.Y., Aug. 19.—Except for the finding of Anna Schumacher's side comb, and a button, beside the pond in Holy Sepulchre cemetery, where the girl was murdered and buried Aug. 7th, the police are no further advanced toward a solution of the mystery than having gained the knowledge of where the struggle between the girl and her assailant and slayer took place. This they claimed is determined by finding the trinkets in question late yesterday.

Flew Into His Mouth.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 19.—While rooting at a baseball game between Atlanta and Birmingham, at Ponce de Leon, and laughing at a friend of his who was having trouble in fighting off a sparrow which had flown into the grandstand, Billy Wells, the biggest rooster at Atlanta, threw back his head and opened his mouth, and the sparrow, evidently seeing a good opening, flew into his mouth. Mr. Wells closed his jaws on the sparrow, but opened them quickly, and when the bird was released it flew away twittering, leaving Mr. Wells coughing.

PLUCKED MANY.

Slaughter of Candidates Throughout Province.

Toronto News.

The raising of the average that must be obtained on the junior matriculation examination per cent, to forty-three and one-third per cent, to forty-five per cent, has proved disastrous, so far as the numbers who were successful are concerned.

Complaints of the "ploughing" of large numbers of pupils are contained in local papers all over the province, and in some cases barely twenty-five per cent passed.

Inquiry at the education department showed that the number of failures was larger than in previous years, but not more than was expected, owing to the higher standard required. Next year it goes up to sixty per cent, and in two years to sixty per cent, average.

In Toronto, so far, as can be learned in the absence from the city on their holidays of the principals and most of the teachers, at least thirty-three per cent, failed.

The News received special despatches from a number of cities and towns in the province giving in detail the number who wrote and passed on this examination.

The results showed that, out of 390 who wrote, not one-half passed, or only 185 out of 390.

The details are:

London—70 wrote; 52 passed.

Strathroy—25 wrote; 11 passed.

Kingston—139 wrote; about one-fourth passed.

Stratford—32 wrote; 17 passed, whom 14 had written before.

St. Thomas—16 wrote; 10 passed.

Lindsay—26 wrote; 22 passed.

Barrie—35 wrote; 16 passed.

Collingwood—20 wrote; 6 passed.

Woodstock—27 wrote; 16 passed.

St. Catharines—20 wrote; five passed.
