ROYAL COUSINS WHO LOOK ALIKE. The remarkable likeness of the Prince of Wales to the czar was emphasized during the regatta at Cowes, where Nicholas II was the guest of the king. The Princess of Wales actually mistook the Russian autocrat for her husband and for several minutes after linking her arm in his did not discover the mistake, and then, much to the amusement of Edward VII and the members of the royal family. So great is the resemblance between the two that the heir to the British throne has become impressed with the danger of traveling abroad, lest one of the anarchists who are said to be ever on the track of the czar should make a mistake that might deprive the prince of life and throne.
