EVERYBODY STARTS IN THIS ONE WHICH IS CORRECT, DO WE COOK BY GAS OR DO WE COOK WITH GAS?

In the City of St. Louis a general discussion upon the above two sentences has been stirred up and its interest has become widespread, in fact some of the investigators have put it up to the learned heads to solve the problem. It would seem to be an easy matter to settle which expression is correct.

Gramatically speaking we are not going to put ourselves on record, but we will say this, right here, that the ones who are cooking either "WITH" or "BY" Gas are well up in the running, while those who failed to get the pipes installed in their homes this summer had better file their application at the office of the works, before it is too late to enjoy the benefit derived by the above named sentences.
