MORE FINES IMPOSED ON CHINAMEN WHO ARE DISOBEDIENT.

Laundry Tax is Keeping Police Magistrate Busy—Celestials Complain of Lack of Funds, But Money Was Found on Them.
 The laundry tax is making police court business heavy these days. Five more "Celestials" were in the "sinner's" dock, Saturday morning. They were gathered in by the police on Friday, because they failed to put in an appearance, when summoned for non-payment of their license.
 "Charlie" Yoke was first. He said he was too sick to appear before but was not willing to pay his license. He was taxed $3 and costs.
 Lee Chung sprung the old story about not having sufficient funds, and was fined the same amount.
 Ching Choo, very small, but very talkative, informed the magistrate that $50 was too much to pay for a license.

 "Where do you do business?" asked the court.
 "At 354 Princess street," was the reply.
 "And how long have you been there?"
 "About two years, I guess."
 "How much money do you take in during a week?"
 Ching figured up for a few seconds, and then told the magistrate that he collected about $28 in a week. This was with two men at work.
 "I'll make it $3 and costs," said the magistrate.
 "The 'boy' said his place of business was at 104 William street.
 "How much business do you do there?" asked the magistrate.
 Lee said that he made about $10 per week, and took the trouble to explain to the court, that business was very slack. He was fined the usual amount.
 Wah Long said, "No money, can't pay." He too, was fined.
 It was pointed out to the magistrate, by the police constables, that the Chinamen who were fined yesterday, had money in their possession, some having as much as $27.
 Magistrate Farrell told the Chinamen that they would not be compelled to pay for a license, if they decided to go out of business. They must pay, to continue in business. This was the whole case, in a nutshell.
 One of the Chinamen taken to jail on Friday became frightened when he was taken inside the prison walls. He did not act all like the idea of staying at the jail. He was also of the opinion that he would have his "pig-tail" cut off.

PAID THE FINES.
 The seven Chinamen paid their fines Saturday afternoon and were liberated from the jail.

ACCUSED OF THEFT.
 Young Man Under Arrest Remanded For Week.
 William Walker, a young man, was placed under arrest on Friday, on a charge of theft. He is accused of stealing a couple of parcels of underclothing, from car No. 308033, which was out at the junction.
 Walker was arraigned in the police court Saturday morning, and entered a plea of "not guilty." The magistrate then remanded the accused for a week.
 There has been considerable thieving from G.T.R. cars along the line of late, and the arrest of Walker was made as the result of an investigation which has been carried on by Grand Trunk detectives, in conjunction with the local police. Several cars have been entered at different times, and goods taken.

Cleric From Cork, Ireland.
 Rev. T. S. Meistrudy, of Cork, Ireland, at present the guest of Dr. J. F. Gibson, this city, is on a short tour in Canada as representative of the Irish Baptist Home Mission enterprise. The evangelical bodies of Ireland feel that the people of that country are on the eve of finding themselves. A new spirit of enterprise, and an awakening desire for education seems to be stirring the mind of the rising generation. This being the case it is felt to be an opportune hour in which to strengthen and enlarge missionary effort. Mr. Meistrudy reminds us that this is the jubilee year of the great revival which swept over our old land in 1859. He is pastor of the Cork Baptist church which is 250 years old, and also chaplain of the Cork military barracks. He is an Irishman, deeply interested in the evangelization of his own people, and will tell the story of the awakening missionary spirit in the First Baptist church, at the Sunday evening service.

At Kingston 46 Years Ago.
 Maj.-Gen. Sir George Frouch, K.C. M.G., organizer of the North-West Mounted Police, and one of the early explorers of the western plains of Canada, has arrived in Montreal. He will proceed by easy stages to the Pacific coast to see his daughter off on a trip to Australia. It is almost forty-eight years since Maj.-Gen. Frouch, then a youth of twenty-one, came to Canada for the first time as adjutant in the Royal Artillery at Kingston.

Will Likely Pay.
 Saturday afternoon, the Chinamen fined in the police court, this morning had not paid their fines, but it was expected that they would. Other Chinamen were endeavoring to raise the money. It is their intention to go out of business, and thus avoid the $50 fee.

CHALLENGE TO COUNCIL
 To Be Manly Enough to Repeal Laundry By-Law.
 Kingston, Sept. 4.
 To the mayor and members of the city council:
 Having dragged the Chinese laundrymen to the police court, and having thrown them into the jail, where they must submit to indignities, preparations being forced to have their hair cut, etc., you must now proceed to carry out the by-law you have placed on the city. You must summon every woman in the laundry business to the magistrate's court, and force them to pay $50. There are about ten dozen women who live, and work, in the laundry business. If your law is not one of discrimination, you must order your police magistrate to proceed against them. These women have signs in their windows and on their doors. I will wager any sum of money, you are afraid to proceed against them. When we are cowardly enough to persecute foreigners, laugh at Russia, we cannot, at the same time, be sufficient free men in the council, born under the British flag, which means equal rights and fair play to all men, citizens and foreigners alike, who will petition the mayor to call a meeting of council, admit a mistake was made and wipe out this iniquitous by-law. If you want money, why not tax everybody, because we will pay it in the end by paying increased prices for laundry.—EX-ALDERMAN.
