Valuable Faint

THE SHERWIN - WILLIAMS ALUMINUM PAINT

is a valuable paint for household uses. It is far superior to other similar paints. It has velvety lustre; doesn't discolor; won't blister, scale or crack, and withstands extremes of cold and heat. It has no nauseating odor.

For all kinds of decorative work. Keep a can in the house to retouch anything that needs brightening. Very economical.

AN UNSEEMLY WRANGLE.

What a scandal attaches to the recoption of the Arctic explorers! Here are two men who have imperilled their lives in a great cause, and the people in their attentions. Both could have been honoured, and by the same admirers. They have been lauded for their services in the past, and elevated high in the public estimation. They could have again received the public favour and then submitted their proofs discovery to a committee or sov, whose members would have passed upon them and given credit has been one unseemly wrangle, and its effects are evident in the jealousies and partizanships of their respective followers. The man who is the most can give that value that we can. I modest under the trying circumstances We have all kinds, cheap for cash. I is Dr. Cook. The Next Unionist Cabinet. National Review:

Unionists occasionally speculate u on the probable personnel of the next cabinet. The depacte was largely du to the general exasperation caused by the late Unionist government, which gave an impression of vacillation, in eptitude and want of personality. it were believed that the result ejecting Mr. Asquith and his co leagues would be the restoration the old gang to the old places the verdict of the polls would be advers ly affected. It seems unthinkable th. Mr. Balfour should be content to sufround himself with his former leagues. The reduction of the amo phouse cabinets of recent years to more rational figure, say twelve; . the inclusion of a nucleus of ex-ministers and the addition of statesmen of the calibre of Lord Milner, Lord Curzon and Bonar Law, together with two or three unionists in the house of com mons, plus a peer or two who could easily be named, would provide Mr. Balfour with one of the ablest administrations of modern times. But the old gang are more tenacious than any Impets, that they honestly believ that the country exists chiefly for the purpose of providing them with cabinet offices, that Mr. Balfour prefer the familiar, and that during the tw or three days of cabinet-making incoming prime minister is all-powe. ful. At such moments public opinio is impotent, and the role of the man in the street will be confined to read ing in his daily naper that certai offices have been alloted to certai noblemen and gentlemen.

Of course, where Indigestion caused by sheer gluttony, cutting down the food would no doubt do good. But in most cases Indigestion is caused, not by overeating, but by lack of physical exercise, and consequent lack of vigor in the organs of digestion. Partial starvation still further impairs the bodily vigor, and makes the trouble

The dispeptic needs plenty of good, wholesome food. He can eat it, and DIGEST IT, TOO, if he takes a "Little Digester" after each meal. "Little Digesters" help the weakened stomach to do properly that which it cannot do alone—digest and assimilate the food needed to build up the system.
