Brass Beds

The first day of the Kingston town-ship fair was a success from all points of view. No doubt the weather had quite a little to do with the crowd, but the rain held off well, only few very slight showers coming late in the afternoon, and not enough to do any damage. The crowd was very large for the first day of the fair, and the different exhibits were viewed with interest, many complimentary remarks being passed about the size, quality and arrangement of the different articles shown. The large place where the perishable goods were shown was the main attraction and drew large crowds. Everyone was exceptionally well pleased with the show made in all branches.

The live stock exhibit was fine, especially in the horse grades, and was far ahead of any other line shown at any of the district fairs this season. The military transport show was good, twenty-five teams lining up along the green to be judged. Lieut. Col. Henning, D.O.C., was judge of this class and had a hard time picking a winner, so close was the competition. In the other classes the competition was also very close. The cattle, sheep and pigs were well represented.

The following were judges: Horses, G. W. Ruddick, government inspector; cattle, R. Shannon and Mr. Ferguson; sheep and pigs, M. Traves, F. Ferguson; poultry, George H. Hunter, grain, W. McNish; vegetables, H. Bailden, P. G. E. Beardsley, W. O'Shea, Joshua Knight; dairy products, J. Crawford; ladies' work, Mrs. S. A. Lyons, Mrs. E. S. Ferguson.

In regard to amusement plenty was furnished for the people, a fine baseball match, in which the Victorias defeated the Locos, 15 runs to 4, and two fast and close horse races. Both drew large crowds, the people being packed around the diamond and the grand stand being well filled with the lovers of the speedway. The Odessa band was in the stand and furnished excellent music.

We are making a speciality of Brass Beds this fall, the values are from $10 to $15, cheaper than before. The very latest, a low head and foot this makes a very pretty effect with a medium size Mahogany Dresser.

(We control our new designs.) Our Carpets are better in quality and more beautiful in design and coloring than ever before.

We are aiming at the best values in both medium and good furnishings. Our prices are doing business and making more friends every day.

Our out-of-town trade is growing and we are able to give closer prices all around.

Visitors always welcome.

RETIRES TO QUIET LIFE
After Being in Business For Thirty Years.

Samuel R. Bailey, University avenue, who has retired from the broom manufacturing business, believes that when a man has made enough money to maintain himself and those dependent upon him, he should retire to enjoy a quiet life and give the younger and less fortunate a chance to make their fortunes. Mr. Bailey is on "easy street," and is relegating business to the background. For thirty years he has been closely identified with broom manufacture in Kingston. He came to Kingston about 1862. For twelve years he was in charge of the B. Bailey company's factory; he was nine years managing partner with W. B. Bailey & Co.; for three years, 1900 to 1903, he retired, and from 1903 till the present he was managing partner of the Bailey Broom company. In future, Mr. Bailey will always be ready to act in an advisory capacity to his successors.

Mr. Bailey expects to be able to pass his time automobiling in spring, summer and autumn, and curling in winter, for he's one of the leading curlers of Kingston. He will also be able to render good services to the people, for he's chairman of the board of health.

GUY BROTHERS' MINSTRELS.
Will Be Feature at The Grand, To-Night.

Judging from the clippings taken from the press, it looks as though Guy Brothers have a good show this season, as newspapers everywhere are speaking highly of the show and especially of the singing and dancing in the first part, and the thrilling features in the olio. They appear at the Grand Opera House to-night.

"A Knight For A Day."
"A Knight For A Day," the merry musical comedy that has had such a vogue at the Whittier Opera House, comes to the Grand on Tuesday, September 28th, with a splendid cast and stage equipment. The first scene of the play is set in Evansville, Ill., and the second scene on the Island of Corsica. "A Knight For A Day" is a musical comedy of the customary kind as regards both manner and matter, but it is an uncommonly good entertainment and the admirer of tuneful music, abundant funmaking, and dashing, strenuous stage movement will have nothing to regret if he patronizes the performance.

It Penetrates Deeply.
Any deep-seated pain, any strain or bruise of muscle or tendon will be cured quickest by the use of Smith's White Liniment. It penetrates deeply into the muscles and tissues and banishes pain or inflammation. If you have backache, muscular rheumatism, lumbago, etc., try this remedy to-day. Large bottles 25c. at J. B. McLeod's, successor to Henry Wade, corner King and Brock streets, and corner Princess and Montreal streets.

A Distinguished Visitor.
Kingston had a distinguished visitor, yesterday, in the person of the Bishop of Chichester, England, with his wife and daughter, on their way home from a trip to Victoria, B.C. The party arrived in the city at noon and left this morning on the R. & O. steamer for the east. They sail from Quebec on the steamer Empress of Ireland.

Call To The West!
"Still more men wanted in the west." This is the information handed out to the railways. The last of the C.P.R. farm laborers' excursions from Kingston to the west will leave on Friday, Sept. 24th, and a goodly number is expected to leave.

UNDER THE CITY DOME
NO PAVEMENT CANVASSEER YET ENGAGED.

Will Council Adopt Local Improvement Plan For Future Road Building?—Where Were Property Committee Members?

The city engineer has not yet arranged for the canvass of the downtown property owners regarding pavement. He wants to get a first-class man for the work, one who understands paving and who can enlighten the property owners. Last year M. B. Malcolm, M.B. of Queen's School of Mining, had charge of the paving canvass and he may be secured again at the end of the month. It's not likely the board of works will ask that the people vote a sum of money for macadamizing residential streets next year. When the road-paving scheme comes before council the probability is that an effort will be made to have the local improvement plan adopted with reference to all road building, so that whenever a road is constructed of macadam or pavement the property owners will pay sixty per cent. of the cost. That is the question the council now has to face.

City Property Committee.
Ald. Toye was the only member of the city property committee who responded to the call for the regular meeting yesterday afternoon. He is as busy a merchant as there is in Kingston but finds time to attend civic meetings. To his mind the committee meetings are more important than the council sessions and he's more particular about attending them.

Kingston's Assessment.
Kingston's assessment for 1910 will show a big increase over that of 1909. In the first place fully sixty new buildings have been erected and these alone will add a good figure to the assessment total which for 1909 stood at $8,000,000. There has been a general raising of assessments on the bulk of properties, and it will not be surprising if Kingston's total assessment for 1910 reaches $9,000,000. The increased assessment would yield an additional $8,000 in taxes at the present rate of twenty and one-half mills.

The assessment notices are distributed and appeal to the city clerk must be received by October 15th. A good many people who are assessed for dogs, particularly, fail to make appeal and do their growling at the tax collector, who can afford them no relief. A certain time is given for appeal, and after that the judge confirms the assessment roll, making it binding.

Letters To The Editor.
A Sufferer's Opinion.
Kingston, Sept. 22.—(To The Editor): For nearly two weeks the residents down town, east end, have stood as nasty a stench as is physically endurable. Patience was long since exhausted. Has any person a right to bring to a populous place a nuisance of that kind? Right or no right legally, morally he is an offender. One must indeed be eager to make money to do it at the discomfort of many fellow citizens. Yours, THE LIMIT REACHED.

Selected Officers.
The Young Ladies' Guild of Queen street Methodist church, met on Tuesday evening for the election of officers. The following were chosen: President, Miss Mabel Day; first vice-president, Miss Patricia Birch; second vice-president, Miss Evelyn Crawford; secretary, Miss Mabel Milo; treasurer, Miss Ethel Edgar.

Where's the Best Place to Buy Furs?

This is a question you may have to decide before very long—for, naturally, a person buying such uncommon articles as Furs wants to know first the best place. The reputation we have gained for making and selling fine furs dida t come by chance. Quality, styles and values are the three points wherein we excel. Come straight to headquarters.

Held A Social.
On Wednesday evening the Orange Lodge, at Portsmouth, held a social for members and their wives. The affair was given as a compliment to those who worked so hard to make the recent grand party such a great success. Refreshments were served and different members contributed to a musical entertainment and everyone had a fine time.

PORTSMOUTH SCHOOL BOARD.
Sum of $800 Will Be Asked in Estimates.

The estimator for the year came up for consideration at the regular meeting of the Portsmouth school board, held on Wednesday night, and it was decided to ask for the sum of $800. The chairman, T. W. McCammon, presided at the meeting, and also presided over trustees William Kerr, J. N. Watt, F. Nicholson and W. Halliday. The considering of the estimates was the principal business up for discussion. Some necessary supplies were passed upon, also a number of accounts.

After the meeting, the members made an inspection of the school, which has undergone some alterations, and everything was found in a most satisfactory condition.

MARRIED IN MUSKOKA.
The Bride Was Formerly of Kingston.

A quiet wedding took place on September 17th, at "Auld Reekie," Lake of Bays, Muskoka, when Margaret Grace, only daughter of P. S. Clark, formerly of the Bank of Montreal, of this city, was united in marriage to Rev. J. A. McDonald, Waterdown, Ont., formerly assistant minister of St. Andrew's church, Toronto. Rev. George MacLennan, Huntsville, married them. After the wedding breakfast, the happy couple left for a trip on the upper lakes. They will be at home at the Presbyterian manse, Waterdown, after the 24th inst. Miss Grace Clark attended Queen's, was a former secretary of the Y.W.C.A., and attended Chalmers church, singing in the choir.
