WHERE COUPLE WILL SPEND HONEYMOON.

PRINCE MIGUEL DE BRAGANZA

Inverness, Sept. 29.—It may be many a long day ere the little highland town of Dingwall forgets the picturesque wedding of Prince Miguel, of Braganza, grandson of the late Dom Miguel, King of Portugal, deceased in 1833, and Miss Anita Stewart, daughter of Mrs. James Henry Smith, which was solemnized in the Roman Catholic church of St. Lawrence. Not even the most brilliant summer weather was lacking to make it one of the most memorable days in the annals of Dingwall.

Prince Miguel's bride is a step-daughter of the late James Henry Smith, of Evanston, Ill., who was known throughout the country as "Silent" Smith, and who left an estate of $30,000,000. Mr. Smith died two years ago, while he was in Japan with his bride on their honeymoon.

He had married Mrs. Annie Armstrong Stewart, the divorced wife of William Rhineland Stewart.

The death of Mr. Smith opened a season of lively interest among more than thirty heirs named in his will, many of whom later received large fortunes from the great estate. Miss Anita Stewart was given a life interest in $402,904, with an additional $97,235 for her children if she should have any.

TRIP AMONG ISLANDS

GIVEN KING'S DAUGHTER'S CONVENTION.

The Sessions at Gananoque on Wednesday—The High School Girls Organize a Basketball Club.

Gananoque, Sept. 30.—The fifteenth annual convention of the Ontario branch of the International Order of King's Daughters and Sons resumed their deliberations in St. Andrew's church on Wednesday morning. The session opened with a short Bible reading and prayer by Mrs. J. E. Austin, dominion treasurer, followed by the reading of minutes of former session by Mrs. Wallace, provincial recording secretary.

Mrs. M. S. Savage, central council representative, gave a report of the central council annual meeting, also of the Bureau conference. This was followed by a paper, "Woman's Responsibilities and Privileges from the King's Daughter Standpoint," by Miss L. M. Fessant, delegate from Owen Sound circle. Then followed city union reports from Toronto, Ottawa and other places. The report of the committee on credentials, appointment of tellers and distribution of nomination ballots brought the morning's business to a close.

At two o'clock, through the courtesy of the town council, a complimentary trip among the Thousand Islands was tendered to the local circle and delegates on the Mississquoi. The return was made about 5:30 o'clock and was much enjoyed by the entire party, the majority of whom had never before enjoyed the glorious scenery of the Thousand Islands.

The Wednesday evening session was held in the Anglican parish house. Rev. J. R. Serson, rector of Christ church, opened with a short Bible reading and prayer. The feature of the evening was the presenting of a large number of stereopticon views representing the activities of Brownville, N.Y., and the Mesdames Anna Martin and Margaret Rogers, of Clayton, N.Y., came over in a launch on Wednesday morning and spent the day with local friends.

The high school girls held a meeting on Tuesday afternoon to reorganize a basketball team for the season. Miss L. E. Mulloy was elected honorary president; Miss Edwards and Miss Ewing referees; Miss Jennie Moore, president, and Miss Gladys Berry, secretary. Six captains were chosen. All the girls in the school are expected to play the game.

Mrs. Max Koster and two children, spending the season at "Oakden," in the Admiralty Group, left for their home in St. Louis, Mo., yesterday.

"Lilywild," the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Shields, has been closed for the season. E. F. Hutchings, proprietor of the Great West Saddlery Co., of Winning, was in town yesterday, having come in his auto car from that city a few weeks ago to New York city.

Mr. Hutchings is a native of Leach county. Mr. and Mrs. George H. Moore have returned to town after spending a short time in Rochester, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. George Latham of Athens, spent a few days during the past week with their son, Gordon Latham, Tanager street.

Mrs. Gordon E. Hard, Charles street, is spending the week in Kingston, the guest of her brother, F. H. Hard. Dr. J. J. Lennan, Picton, spent a short time this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McLennan, Brook street. Mrs. William Hazel, Sydenham street, left on Tuesday for a visit with relatives in Tweed and vicinity. Miss Hazel Wilson, Brook street, is in Toronto for a course in arts and medicine in Victoria college. Hotel Lloyd, Garden street, spending the summer with a supervising party in the north of the province, has returned to resume his studies at Queen's.

News From Northbrook.

Nocturnal, Sept. 28.—Miss Lily Shier is spending a few weeks in Arnprior, and Carleton Place as the guest of her sister and aunt. Those on the sick list are: Mrs. Ira Wood, Louis Bosley, Martha and Hazel Walker, the last two being ill of scarlet fever. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Presley and two children spent Sunday at Frank Clark's, A. E. Paul, of Napanee, registered at the Shier house on Saturday. Miss Nina Wood has gone to Napanee, where she has secured a situation. James Presley and Mrs. William Both were the guests of Mrs. J. McAndrews recently. Philip Peterson has moved to the appearance of his residence by residing in Benjamin Thompson, of this village, and Miss Amanda Scott, of Dead Creek, were married at Clinton, on Saturday, by the Rev. Mr. Irvine. Mr. and Mrs. James Rombough spent a few days of last week in Enterprise and vicinity. Misses Abba Prosser, Gerie Bradford and Maggie Clarke spent a week at the Ottawa exhibition; while there they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell. Miss Cora Peterson spent Sunday at her home at Dead Creek. Misses H. Reid and Lizzie McCausland were the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. M. Presley.

The stereopticon entertainment, given by James Stubbins, on September 11th, in the Methodist church, was largely attended, also the service the following evening, which consisted chiefly of views from the life of the apostle Paul. Mrs. George Boothmore, of Dead Creek, spent a few days of last week with her father, J. Wood. William Both had the misfortune to injure one of his horses last week. While leading lumber it accidentally fell into a well, which had been covered over by boards and sawdust.
