The three Poles are alleged to have entered it July 2nd, late in the morning, and, holding a revolver at the head of the manager, who recognized them, they took all the cash in sight, escaped, and separated.

The detectives traced Szymansky by Duluth to St. Paul, Minn. Here they found where he had gone to see his wife, who was living there, and where he had purchased a motor bicycle on the instalment plan. They discovered that he had set 'out on the cycle for Pittsburg. Not long ago word was received that this cycle had been sold to a dealer in a city near Pittsburg. The detectives busied themselves that locality, and when three men were arrested for stealing a ride on a freight train the detectives identified one of them as the man they had been following half way across the contin-
